LATEST RETURNS REDUCE LEAD OF LYNN J. FRAZIER

Majority For Nonpartisan Candidate In North Dakota Estimated at Less Than 10,000.

Fargo, N. D., June 30.—Belated reports that trickled in from Wednesday's state-wide primary in North Dakota seemed to bear out early indications that Lynn J. Frazier, Nonpartisan, had captured the senatorial nomination by a majority of less than 10,000.

While Porter J. McCumber, the state's senior senator, dropped behind Frazier in returns tabulated today, reports from some of the scattered precincts favorable to McCumber tonight cut down to less than 2,000 the margin that separated them.

Friends of McCumber here, conceding his defeat, admitted that most of the missing precincts undoubtedly would be favorable to Frazier, but insisted the latter's plurality would fall considerably short of the 15,000 to 20,000 mark league headquarters have forecast.

Meanwhile Governor R. A. Nestos independent, had a lead of 15,000 over B. F. Baker, Nonpartisan, in the republican gubernatorial contest. Independent headquarters declared tonight. There seemed no reason to alter its prediction of a 10,000 plurality for Nestos.

In 1,741 of the state's 2,064 precincts tabulated in the senatorial race, Frazier had 76,398 and McCumber 74,962, a gain for McCumber over the last previous totals, due largely to the "mopping up" of precincts in nearby territory, known to be favorable to the senator.

Mrs. Sherman Cole and child of Wynore, Nebraska, arrived here this afternoon for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McMaken, called here by the illness of the little daughter of Ray McMaken and wife.

NO USE OF GOING OUT OF TOWN TO CELEBRATE 4TH

Splendid Entertainment Arranged for All at K. S. Park—Music by Elks Thirty Piece Band.

Plattsmouth people who stay at home this Fourth of July will have plenty of opportunity of enjoying themselves at the celebration and picnic being arranged by the K. S. Although the event proper will last three days, the main portion of the program is arranged for Tuesday, and will include a parade, various sports, a picnic dinner, a dance and fireworks display as well as a patriotic address by Judge Begley, numerous other addresses and a turning exhibition.

Music will be furnished all day by the Elks band of this city. In addition to dinner served at the K. S. hall, refreshments of all kinds will be on sale on the grounds throughout the day and evening.

The generosity of Plattsmouth merchants in furnishing the Elks band for the day, has precluded the necessity of charging admission to the K. S. park as was first intended, and accordingly young and old will be admitted free.

The three day program of events starts tomorrow and will continue until the last of the fireworks display is touched off late Tuesday night.

Certainly there is no need of our people journeying elsewhere to celebrate the 4th, with such a splendid program arranged for right in our midst.

Andrew P. Moran, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for state senator, was here today for a few hours looking after business matters and meeting his many friends.

HAVE YOU DONE ANYTHING ABOUT THE TARIFF?

Tax on Wool Imports Will Lay a Heavy Burden on Consumers if Allowed to Pass.

There has been a great deal of discussion in newspapers recently concerning the new tariff on wool. One result of this proposed bill (it has not yet passed the senate) has been to increase the prices of woolen fabrics at the mills, in some cases as much as $1 a yard.

Should the bill become a law it will increase the price of men's suits and overcoats from $3 to $5 each. Women's and children's wear will also advance in price.

We believe that wool growers are entitled to a tariff which will enable them to make a fair profit on their product; but careful study of statistics reveals the fact that the rate of 33 cents a pound on the scoured content, as provided in this tariff bill, is considerably higher than is necessary to accomplish the desired result, namely adequate protection for the American wool grower.

We imported 375 million pounds of wool in 1921, while we produced but 275 million pounds. At the same rate the proposed tariff of 33 cents a pound will add approximately 360 million dollars to the cost of woolen clothing. But only 45 million dollars of this will be received by American growers in increased prices for their wool.

In our opinion the proposed tariff bill should not be passed in its present form simply because it works a hardship on the majority of the American people.

Let us have an equitable tariff. Write or wire your congressman and senator at once; they are your representatives and will be glad to have your views.

Prices of all woolen already are going up in mere anticipation of the proposed new tariff.

Advances of from 20 cents to $1 a yard have been posted at the mills in the last week or so; further advances are in prospect.

All this means higher prices for clothes—men's suits and overcoats, women's dresses and coats, and boys' clothes.

And the people of this country think clothes prices are high enough now. They've been fighting for lower prices by staying out of the market—doing without clothes—in short by not dressing as well as they formerly did.

The tariff bill which has been passed by the house and is now before the senate levies a duty of 33 cents a pound on cleaned wool. This is about twice as high as the duty levied by the old Payne-Aldrich tariff, and being based on so much a pound, it means higher prices for the poor man just as much as it raises prices of the rich man's fine clothes.

It has been calculated that the proposed tariff on wool will add from $3 to $5 to the cost of every man's suit or overcoat; proportionate sums to the cost of clothes for women and children—a total of $350,000,000 to the country's annual clothing bill just at a time when the whole country feels that the present clothing bill is too high.

Clothing merchants and manufacturers have been doing everything in their power to bring prices down; have reduced them very greatly from the peak of a year and a half ago. They don't want to see prices go up again; workingmen don't, farmers don't; no one does.

And yet congress seems to be about to levy a duty which will put clothes prices up.

This isn't a matter of politics, it's a matter of the cost of living—important to every man. If congress can be induced to look at it in that light it may see that 33 cents a pound is too much protection on wool. It can be revised downward and still give protection without being such a hardship on the whole country.

Judge Jesse L. Root of Omaha came down this afternoon to look after some legal matters for the Burlington for a few hours.

Fred Sydebotham and wife departed this morning for Lucas, Ia., where they will visit for a short time at the home of Mr. Sydebotham's mother in that place.

EBEN K. LONG IS BURIED WITH FULL MASONIC FUNERAL

Covert Lodge and Mount Calvary Commandery Fulfill Wishes of Oldest Member.

A Masonic funeral in charge of Covert Lodge and Mount Calvary Commandery was held at the Masonic temple Friday afternoon for Eben K. Long, 96, former Omahan who died Tuesday. He was the oldest Mason in point of time in the state, and before his death expressed a desire for these lodges to officiate at the funeral.

John W. Dishbrow, master of Covert lodge conducted the ceremonies. He was assisted by commandery officers who read the ritual and the Rev. Edgar Brown, pastor of the Deitz Memorial church, who offered prayer. Mrs. Carl Crisman sang three songs.

The active pallbearers, who also acted as guards included William L. Ritter, James Cameron, Thomas Falconer, Fred B. Lowe, D. Charles Mc-Masters of Blue Lodge commandery.

The honorary pallbearers, and escorts included Luther Hayt, William H. Warnack, John Dysart, Victor White, Ed Willmuth and Dr. Center, past masters of Mt. Calvary commandery.

Among prominent men present were state officers, Wilbur W. Day, past standard bearer, Lincoln; Francis E. White, and George Thummel, past grand commanders of Nebraska, and Judge Arthur E. Baldwin of Omaha.

F. J. Stack was the undertaker in charge.—Omaha World-Herald.

FORMER GOVERNOR SAYS NO TIME FOR A DEBATE NOW

John H. Morehead Replies to Challenge of A. L. Tidd for Argument of Public Issues.

Former Governor John H. Morehead of Falls City, who is a candidate for the democratic as well as progressive nomination for congress in the First district, has made reply to the challenge made a few days ago by Attorney A. L. Tidd of this city, who is seeking the progressive nomination to the national law making body. Mr. Morehead feels that a discussion of the issues at this time when the nominees have not been decided on would be a useless matter and that the time for argument should be when the primary is finished and the candidates ready for the race.

"I am unable to see what purpose would be served by any joint discussion between any candidates before the primary election," Mr. Morehead states. "After the selection of candidates and adoption of platforms, it may be advisable for a joint discussion of issues as presented by the different political parties."

FREIGHT RATES DROP TODAY.

Washington, June 30.—Freight rates throughout the United States on practically all commodities will be reduced tomorrow by 10 per cent when the carriers of the country put into effect the decision rendered last month by the interstate commerce commission in the general rate case. New schedules incorporating the reduction have been completed.

Agricultural commodities will be the only important traffic which the 10 per cent will not affect, rates on these commodities having been reduced last January.

Railroad statisticians have worked out the estimate that the general rate decision will cause a decrease of $350,000,000 annually in the nation's freight bill.
