Building Your Wealth!

A bank works for you night and day, week after week, adding cents to your dollars. Little by little the amounts grow till each addition is a respectable sum.

Where does the gain come from? Not from your pocket. Nor from ours. It is the result of production. Money placed in a bank is given an opportunity to work and to produce.

Thus a bank BUILDS your wealth.

Start with a small deposit if you will. Add to it when you can—regularly if you can do so. It will not be long till you can fairly see it grow.

Hand Writing on the Wall

This will be the lesson for the coming Sunday and at the Christian Bible school we have secured Mr. C. E. Whitaker of Plattsmouth, a very close student of the Bible and the times as they come to us to freighted with all the problems of commercialism, society and the family as well as the church. Come, hear this fine speaker and enjoy the lesson.

Card of Appreciation

The many kindnesses which the people of Murray and vicinity have extended to us during the illness and at the time of the death and burial of our beloved father, Mr. J. B. Seyboldt, was so kind and coming from the friends who desired to do what they could in this season of stress with us, that we feel we cannot convey to them the heartfelt thanks for their thoughtfulness and kindly acts, in a manner in which we desire.

The thoughtful care of our crops, the looking after the home in our absence, the desire to serve our beloved father and the tokens of love and respect, the ministrations at the time of his death and the funeral.

We are wishing that the troubles which come to us may be few for all you, our friends. Accept our thanks and be assured of our appreciation for your kindnesses.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Seyboldt; H. H. Shrader and family.

Murray in Vortex of Storm

The hurricane, attendant with a devastating hail, which swept from near the middle of the state, finding a number of Cass county towns in its path and making a strip of from one to four miles in width across one of the most fertile portions of the country that the sun ever shone upon, found Murray directly in its path and pelted and battered it with its trees and houses besides destroying crops for miles each way had not spent its entire force or fury when it leaped the Missouri river and began on the productive farms of Iowa.

The strip extended from near the western portion of the county, being very strong at Greenwood and missing Murdock just slightly, coming through Manley and the intervening country to Murray and east to the river, where it left the state. The width of the storm wrecked strip on the Kansas City and Omaha roads, extended from John Hobscheit's on the south to Glen Perry's on the north, a distance of four miles. The people in the district who received the worst damage are feeling the loss and while they are taking a most optimistic view of the situation and are planning to plant other crops and raise as much as the lateness of the season will permit.

Return the Jewelry or Suffer

At the time of the death of Mrs. C. A. Trent, one present and we know who, took a LaValiere from my house, and the party is known. This was a keepsake which my beloved wife had given to her little daughter and if this is mailed to me within a week no questions will be asked; but in case it is not we will have the guilty party arrested, for we know who it was who took the necklace. If you want to get in clear, better be in a hurry about it. We are not going to wait long.

SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF MRS. FRED ENGELKEMEIER

Funeral of Long Time Resident of Cass County Held Tuesday Afternoon at 2 O'Clock.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Frederick Engelkemeier occurred on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Evangelical church of Eight Mile Grove and was conducted by the Rev. Rhode, pastor of the church, the service being in both English and German. The burial was in the family lot in the cemetery near there.

Emilie Wilhelmine Engelkemeier, nee Kirchoff, was born on June 29, 1850, at Lutte, a village of the principality of Lippe-Deimold, now a confederate state of the German republic. She was baptized and confirmed in the Evangelical church at Lenna, to which parish her native village belonged. The departed resided in and near Lutte up to her twenty-fifth year, when her deceased husband, Fred Engelkemeier, who had in the year 1872 come to the land of the noble free, to the land that offered him and his energy many untold opportunities, returned to his native land in 1875 and there the two young people pledged their love and duty before God and man.

They came to the United States and came west to Nebraska, settling in Mt. Pleasant precinct, Cass county, and there amid the scenes of peace and quietude they spent many of the years of their lives very happily, in fact thirty-eight years with just an interruption of a short stay in Plattsmouth, and in 1912 they decided to remove from the farm to the city to reside and enjoy the rest that they were entitled to by the years of labor and thrift. Sorrow came to Mrs. Engelkemeier in February, 1916, when her beloved was called away from the scenes of his earthly activities and left her to continue her path alone. It was in 1920 when she and her youngest daughter, Miss Rose, moved on account of their health to California, the land of perennial sunshine. There she lived quite contentedly, enjoying the beauties of nature in the city of Long Beach, till God called her to her home above. She calmly fell asleep on July 1st, when night was drawing near, bringing her years of life to 72 years and 10 days. The cause of the death of Mrs. Engelkemeier was enlargement of the heart. A week prior to her death the Rev. Wynntimer of the Zion Lutheran church of Los Angeles visited her and found her prepared to go to her Father's home, and who also conducted the devotional service before the body was started on its journey back to the old home in Nebraska for interment.

To mourn the death of this good mother there remains nine children: Henry and August Engelkemeier of Cass county, Mrs. Rose Ragos of Garber, Okla.; Julius, Mrs. Pauline Kraeger, La Porte, Colo.; Mrs. Ann Kraeger, John and George Engelkemeier and Miss Rose Engelkemeier of Long Beach. There are twenty-five grandchildren and three sisters and three brothers. The brothers and sisters being: Mrs. August Engelkemeier, Mrs. Bertha Wassaman, Mrs. August Schafmeister, the last two residing in Germany. Gustave Kercheff, Alpe, Kansas; Julius Kirchoff of Plainview, Neb., and Henry, residing in Germany.
