THE PRIMARY RESULT IN CASS COUNTY GIVEN

UNOFFICIAL CANVASS OF VOTES SHOWS SENTIMENT OF THE VOTERS.

The unofficial vote of the county, as received at the office of the county clerk, gives the results in the various party contests at the primaries and many very interesting races developed in the battle of the ballots. The most interesting development of the election was the fact that Rex Young, who gave Sheriff Quinton one of the closest fights of his career, had by polling too many republican votes, eliminated himself from the progressive nomination and also lacked the republican votes necessary to win from the sheriff. This will leave it up to the progressives to place another candidate in the field for the position.

The following is the vote of the various candidates in the county:

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

From Friday's Daily. Yesterday was the forty-fifth birthday anniversary of Frank R. Gobelman of this city, and last evening he was given a very pleasant surprise which had been arranged by Mrs. Gobelman and which caught Frank wholly unaware. The occasion was marked by a very enjoyable dinner at 6 o'clock and to which Mrs. Gobelman had invited a number of the gentlemen friends of Mr. Gobelman who have been his fishing and hunting companions on many a trip. Mr. Gobelman was wholly unaware of the plans for the celebration and on his arrival home at 6 o'clock he found the jolly bunch present and it was one real surprise for the guest of honor. The table appointments were in a color scheme of yellow, which was carried out in the place cards and cuts as well as in the large birthday cake with its glowing candles. Throughout the dining room there were decorations of the garden flowers and which added their part to the beauties of the scene. Mrs. Gobelman was assisted in serving by little Miss Jean Caldwell. It had originally been planned to have a prize given for the best fish caught at the dinner, but when the fishermen all were warmed up there was so much competition that it was decided to call it a draw. Those in attendance were Mrs. A. D. Caldwell and J. F. Fogarty, C. S. Johnson and W. R. Holly.

ENTERTAINS CLUB

From Thursday's Daily. Last evening Mrs. H. F. Goos entertained very charmingly the members of the card club of which she is a member, at her pleasant home on Locust street. The event was in the nature of a 6 o'clock dinner party and the decorations of the rooms were in the garden flowers of the mid summer season that made a very pretty setting. Following the dinner the ladies spent some time in the playing of bridge. Those in attendance were: Mrs. E. J. Richey, Mrs. Kidder of Seattle, Washington; Mrs. George O. Dovey, Mrs. F. L. Cummings, Mrs. Claire Dovey Brown of Cleveland, Ohio; Misses Mae Murphy, Hazel Dovey, Minnie Guthman, Anna Hassler and Margie Walker of Murray.

DEATH OF MRS. GEORGE BECK IN ARKANSAS CITY

Former Resident of Cass County in the Early Days and Sister-in-Law of Henry Boeck.

The many old friends in this county of the Boeck family will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. George Boeck at her home in Arkansas City, Kansas, and many of the older residents will well remember this splendid lady.

Theresa Juerg was born September 28, 1838, in Salsbach, Baden, Germany, departed this life July 15, 1922 at Arkansas City, Kansas, aged 83 years, 9 months and 17 days. She came to Peoria, Illinois, with her parents in 1850. They were 48 days on the ocean in a sailboat. She was married in 1858 to George Boeck at Peoria. In the summer of 1860 they moved to Plattsmouth, Nebraska. They bought a farm four miles out from this city staying here until two years later when a prairie fire came fifteen miles and destroyed all they had, the young mother barely escaping with her life and her two babies. Her husband started a blacksmith shop in Plattsmouth and worked at his trade for seven years.

They again started life on the prairie eight miles from Plattsmouth. To this union nine children were born, one having died in infancy. On this farm the family went through the hardships of pioneer life. Some of the older children were sent away to school while the younger ones went to Murray, two and one-half miles to school.

The parents had their education in Germany and could only learn the English language as they learned from the children studying at home. A son wrote to her on "Mother's Day" saying he could remember her in days of yore, standing reading the papers, so eager for knowledge yet not having time to study. And he added, "You and father gave me lessons in character building which many college graduates do not get." The influence and heritage left by this self-sacrificing mother can be measured only in real worth and nobleness of character reflected in the lives of those she reared and friends she constantly won.

Her fondness for children was a marked expression of her loving and gentle spirit. She was a model of patience and because of her frequent expressions of love for them, she numbered among her friends a host of little folk, who never tired of grinning her flowers and dainties.

That she was able to withstand the suffering and radiate only cheer and helpfulness throughout all her years of suffering was due to the marvelous trust and sustaining power of a prayerful life. She ever gave an example of simple faith in God. May this life, which so magnified the Christ, and so clearly demonstrated that, "To know God is life and peace," inspire those who remain to mourn their loss, to a new determination to serve the God she trusted.

Her husband and four children preceded her death leaving E. H. Boeck of St. Louis, Mo.; J. B. Boeck of Trousdale, Okla.; A. C. Boeck of Newkirk, Okla.; Mrs. Ida Schneider of Texas, Okla., and Mrs. Mamie Schellenberg of Arkansas City, Kas. A sister, Mrs. M. L. Kellerstrass of Atlantic City, New Jersey, a brother, August Juerg of Peoria, Illinois, to mourn their loss. Burial was held at Newkirk, Okla., July 17, 1922. And ever near us, tho unseen, The dear immortal spirit tread; For all the boundless universe Is life—there are no dead.

REPORT OF FIRES HERE DURING THE PAST SIX MONTHS

Fire Chief Sandin, Efficient Head of Department, Gives Report on the Last Six Months.

The report of Dr. O. Sandin, chief of the Plattsmouth fire department, covering the past six months from December 1 to July 1, has been given to the public at a special meeting in the city hall. The report was given in a most interesting and instructive manner in which the doctor conducted the affairs of his office.

In the past six months there were ten fires in the city and the buildings were of the value of $23,300, with insurance on the same of $8,300 and the damage to the buildings was $4,727, according to the report of the fire chief.

The value of the contents of the buildings visited by fire was $10,850 and the insurance on the same was $4,650 and the damages on the contents of buildings placed at $2,609.

FINE LITTLE SON

From Thursday's Daily. Yesterday the stork made a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Sigler in the south portion of the city and left in their care a fine little son and heir, who with the mother is doing very nicely and the event has been one that has brought great joy to the happy father.

STURM IS NOMINATED

The returns in the senatorial contest in the second district, composed of Cass, Otoe and Sarpy counties, have not been fully reported as yet, but on the face of the returns from Cass and Otoe the nomination of A. F. Sturm of Nebraska on the republican ticket can be safely forecast. Mr. Sturm received 1,666 in Otoe county, and 873 in Cass county for a total of 1,639, while his opponent, Andrew P. Moran, received 345 in Cass county and 732 in Otoe county for a total of 1,077. The republican vote in Sarpy county is very small and therefore Mr. Sturm can read his title to the nomination clear.

HEARS MESSAGE FROM THE FAR DIS- TANT SOUTHLAND

Radio Entertainment of the Atlanta (Ga.) Journal Heard by Radio Fans in This City.

From Thursday's Daily. Last evening while Attorney A. H. Duxbury was engaged in tuning up his radio outfit that he has just recently purchased from E. J. Weyrich, he was surprised to hear the concert from some strange station, and it was with much pleasure that he found that he was enjoying the concert of the Atlanta (Ga.) Journal, one of the largest metropolitan papers in the South.

This is the longest distance message received in this city and proves that the radio is one of the great modern means of communication and that the smaller set can be made possible so that they can receive messages from great distances. Mr. Weyrich himself made this set for Mr. Duxbury and it is of the double switch variety and one of the best in the city for practical use.

The southern concert was clear as that of Omaha entertainments and the program consisted of a recital of the old time songs and southern melodies that were very pleasing as well as the news notes of the day. The announcer stated that the Journal holds these concerts each evening at 10 o'clock, eastern time, which is one hour slower than our time here, so the radio bugs can take notice accordingly.

FIRST CONCERT OF SEASON HERE VERY PLEASING

Elks Band Gives Pleasing Musical Offering at Garfield Park to Rather Small Audience.

From Thursday's Daily. The opening band concert of the season was offered last evening at Garfield park by the Elks band under the directorship of E. H. Schulhof, and to enjoy this feature of the summer entertainment program a small but very appreciative audience was present.

The community sales day served to keep many away from the concert who would otherwise have attended, but those who were present felt that they were more than repaid in the unusually well balanced program offered by the band. The concert was being sponsored by the City of Plattsmouth and will be given during July and August at the park.

As an unusual feature of the concert the band is giving one number each concert of a combination of the late jazz selections and one of the standard musical compositions, the one last evening being "Ragtime Blues" and "Intermezzo Sinfonica," by Mascagni.

Among the other pleasing numbers given was that of the "Air de Ballet" from "Tilliana," "La Zarina," a Mazurka Russee, and the overture "The Bridal Rose," by Lavellee.

MEMORABLE ANNIVERSARY

From Thursday's Daily. Today is the anniversary of a most memorable date, as it was on July 20, 1917, that Secretary of War Baker started the drawing in the selective draft that was to supply the men for the national army. The occasion was one of pride and sorrow to the men who were the holders of No. 258, the first number drawn, and it will be well remembered the feeling of excitement and waiting as the numbers were telegraphed to every county in the United States where the number found some one waiting to respond to the call of arms.

MARRIED AT PARSONAGE

From Thursday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Methodist church occurred the marriage of Mr. Benjamin Berg and Miss Lucile Chadwell, both of Omaha, and friends of Rev. and Mrs. Calvert. The bride party were accompanied by a number of friends and the marriage lines were read by the pastor in his usual very pleasing manner. Miss Eugenie Chadwell and Mr. Guy Corwin were the attendants at the wedding.

AUTO PARTY HAS SMASH UP BELOW UNION

TWELVE YOUNG PEOPLE OF CITY HAVE A VERY CLOSE CALL FROM UNDERTAKER.

From Friday's Daily. Last evening as a party of twelve Plattsmouth young people were speeding on their way to Nebraska City to attend the American Legion dance at Brown's park, they met with an accident at the crossroad north of the town of Wyoming, in Otoe county, and as the result of which four members of the party were very badly injured and all suffered more or less painful injuries and bruises.

The party were in the large Hudson touring car of C. T. Peacock. Miss Harriett Peacock being at the wheel and in the front seat with the driver were Miss Florence Hodder of Council Bluffs, Charles Hartford and Charles Egenberger, while the other eight members of the party were in the back portion of the car.

It is stated that Miss Peacock was unfamiliar with the road over which the party was traveling and the car was going at a good rate of speed when she struck the curve and not knowing the road the car was driven with full force into the embankment on the east side of the road. Members of the party returning to this city claim that the brakes on the car would not work when the members of the party saw their danger and it was only a few seconds until they drove into the bank. The car was forced into the bank by the force with which they struck and the front seat forced back into the crowded rear part of the car and the engine driven back onto the occupants of the front seat.

Miss Harriett Peacock suffered a severe cut on the forehead from the flying pieces of glass while Charles Egenberger had his right hip dislocated in the wrecking of the car. Mrs. Lawrence Sprecher, who was in the back seat of the car, suffered the worst of any of the occupants as her right jaw was broken and a very severe injury sustained to one of her lower limbs. Charles Hartford was struck in the breast by a piece of a broken rod that inflicted a bad wound and everyone of the party was severely bruised and shaken up.

The car was a complete wreck, being practically demolished by the force of the impact when hitting the high embankment and it is almost a miracle that all of the party were not seriously injured if not killed outright.

The wreck was discovered by Nebraska City parties returning from the band concert at Union, and S. P. Cresap and J. C. Thygeson, with their autos assisted in bringing the injured parties to Neb. City where they were hurried to the Wilson hospital and the office of Dr. A. P. Ginn for emergency treatment.

Most of the members of the party were able to return last night but the more severely injured were kept at the hospital for treatment.

Those who comprised the unfortunate party were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sprecher, Earl Newland, Percy Dunn, George Schmidtman, Charles Hartford, Charles Egenberger, Florence Hodder of Council Bluffs, Edythe Wallengren and Lilian Schissel.

While the accident has been a serious one for all of the party, they, as well as their friends, feel very thankful that it was no worse.

The place where the accident occurred is a stiff curve and to one unacquainted with the road an accident could easily occur and especially with a car going at a high rate of speed.

HAVE A FINE OUTING

From Friday's Daily. Last evening the members of the Y. M. B. C. of the Methodist church held a most delightful outing at the lakes in the vicinity of Cedar Creek and one that they will long very pleasantly remember. The party of class members left the church at 6 o'clock and arrived at the lakes at the most pleasant time after the heat of the day and all enjoyed the plunge into the cooling waters of the lake and which was followed by the campfire supper. While the "cats" committee, composed of Jesse and Halie Perry, were arranging the feast the members of the party enjoyed a rousing campfire talk for ten minutes from Rev. John Calvert, the pastor of the church, and as well the feast of waffles, buns, pickles and coffee that had been provided for the occasion. After the feast the boys gathered around the campfire and had a "songfest" that lasted for some time and as the evening was growing late they motored back to the city feeling that the second annual outing had been a real one in every respect.

Your ad will carry punch if you write it as a plain "selling talk" instead of trying to fuss it up with frills and exaggerations.

CARD OF THANKS

The many friends and neighbors who have so tenderly ministered to us in the deep sorrow that has come to our home in the taking away of our beloved little daughter and sister, have our most heartfelt appreciation and the memory of their kind acts and loving sympathy will be remembered as long as life shall last. May these friends be given the same sympathy in the hour of their grief.—Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Pickett and Family.

From Friday's Daily. Last night at 12:30 at the Methodist hospital in Omaha occurred the death of Mrs. Hans Franke of near Cedar Creek. The death following closely a very dangerous operation in the afternoon and from the beginning there had been little hope of the recovery of the patient.

COURT HEARS IN- JUNCTION MATTER THIS FORENOON

Application of C. B. & Q. Railroad For Injunction Heard in Federal Court Today.

From Thursday's Daily. The federal court in Omaha this morning took up the hearing of the application of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad for an injunction against the six striking shop craft unions and their representatives and officers and the membership of the unions. The injunction matter has been pending since the issuance of the temporary restraining order a week ago and the court in the fore part of the week overruled a motion to dissolve the injunction.

The injunction and restraining order limits the use of the pickets of the striking shopmen to one at each of the entrances of the shops and also prohibits the trespass on the right of way or the property of the above named railroad company.
