CAR WITH BOOZE IS CAPTURED HERE SUNDAY MORNING

William Grebe, State Agent, Makes Arrest of Albert H. Domian, Driving a Buick Six.

From Monday's Daily. Yesterday morning State Agent William Grebe made a capture of a Buick roadster on South Sixth street and disclosed the fact that the car contained a gallon and a half of the distilled spirit of corn juice, which had been brought from Omaha.

The owner of the car, Albert H. Domian, was placed under arrest and taken to the office of County Attorney A. G. Cole, where he was questioned as to the possession of the liquor.

At the time of the arrest B. J. Halstead was riding with the Omaha parties in the car, being a friend of the party owning the liquor and who had also been a customer at the Halstead market at different times. Both of the parties were held for their presence.

Mr. Domian was able to supply a bond for his appearance in the county court this morning and departed for his home in the metropolis. When the case came up for hearing today, he was assessed a fine of $100 and costs for transportation of the booze and the car, a Buick roadster, in good shape, was ordered confiscated and to be sold by Sheriff Quinton in compliance with the state law in such cases.

The complaint against Mr. Halstead was filed in the city police court and Judge Weber assessed a fine of $100 and costs on the defendant and which amount was set for and the matter closed.

NEBRASKA CITY WINS CLOSE GAME OF BALL SUNDAY

Merchants of this City Lose by Score of 3 to 2 in Real Baseball Battle at Nebraska City.

From Monday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon the Merchants baseball team of this city motored down to Nebraska City and engaged the Eagles of that city in an exhibition of the national pastime and which resulted in a victory for the Otoe county team by the score of 3 to 2. Although Plattsmouth outthrew their opponents but breaks allowed the Eagles to push the necessary run over the plate for a win. Connors for Plattsmouth pitched a good game and allowed only four scattered hits in the whole nine innings but errors at the critical time allowed the victory to slip to the Eagles and the fact that the Plattsmouth players were unlucky in their work on the bases. Gude did the tossing for the Otoe team and was nipped for eight hits in the battle. McCarthy secured two hits, one for three bags, and Bill Mason lammed a two-sacker to the left garden that looked good for a homer, but Benson, the fleet-footed left fielder of the Eagles, was able to get the ball and returned it so that Bill was stopped at the second station.

The local team will play at Weeping Water Wednesday and goes to Glenwood on next Sunday.

VISITS CASS COUNTY MEN

Frank Vallery, the real estate hustler of this city, has just returned from a visit out in the western part of the state and in which he paid a visit to the fine ranch of Chas. Lau and John Gakemeier, located near Dunning. This ranch consists of 1,200 acres and on which the two former residents of near Murdock have 1,000 head of stock. The ranch is one of the best in that part of the state and Mr. Vallery states that the owners were getting ready to cut they hay crop which will consist of thousands of tons of the best western hay that can be found. The Dismal river flows for three miles thru the ranch and is a very valuable feature of the land. Mr. Vallery also visited the farm of Ed Sigler, also a former Cass county man, while out in that portion of the state. While in the West Mr. Vallery together with J. W. Chilton of North Platte, made a very satisfactory ranch deal over which they are much pleased.

RETURNED TO HOSPITAL

From Monday's Daily. Yesterday morning Robert Goodman was returned to the Methodist hospital in Omaha as the result of the serious effects following his operation for the removal of his tonsils. Mr. Goodman had returned home but suffered a number of hemorrhages as the result of the operation and which made necessary his return to Omaha to remain until the throat is entirely healed up or the danger of other hemorrhages is eliminated.

Although Journal want-ads cost but little the results they bring are wonderful. Try them.

He is feeling very much improved and was on his way home to Plainview by auto, but at Sioux City, Ia., they ran into the severe storm of Friday night that has made the roads impassable in that locality and consequently the family decided to come on to Plattsmouth for a short visit before going home. The many old friends here of Mr. Ebinger will be pleased to learn that he is doing so well and trust that he may continue to show improvement.

WILL LOCATE HERE

Saturday evening Mr. A. M. McCommons of Ashland, arrived in the city to make arrangements to move here at once and take up his work in the Plattsmouth State bank, having accepted a position in that financial institution.

Mr. McCommons has been for a number of years with the Farmers & Merchants bank of Ashland, one of the largest institutions in Saunders county and is a gentleman well qualified for his work in the banking line and should be a valuable addition to the force of employees of the bank. He has secured a home here and will move his family as soon as possible and become a permanent resident of the city. He was very much pleased with the appearance of the city and anticipates a very pleasant time in the new home that he has decided upon and as soon as possible will become a permanent resident here.

HAS FINE OFFICES

From Monday's Daily. Attorney D. O. Dwyer has in the past been having his suite of offices in the Dwyer building repainted and decorated and made into one of the most pleasant and attractive office locations in the city. The library has been papered and painted in a soft tone of green that makes a restful and pleasing shade for the study and private offices are in a lighter coloring of gray that makes a very handsome appearance and certainly will be appreciated by Mr. Dwyer in his hours of study and office work as a most pleasing place to look after the cares of the large law practice. The hall is yet to be completed but when this is done the interior of the building will be strictly up to date in every respect.

MISSED THE TRAIN

From Monday's Daily. A good story is related of one of the prominent ladies of the city, who has, it has been stated, often been warned of the time that the great Burlington train leaves for the metropolis of Nebraska. This morning the lady had an engagement with a friend to go to Omaha and the friend was on time at the station but the other lady failed to show up and arrived some five minutes after the train had left. She was compelled to try the auto bus route into Omaha and there located the other lady who was there to spend a few hours shopping.

DRAWS DOWN A FINE FOR FIGHTING LAST SATURDAY

B. J. Halstead Receives Fine of $25 and Costs for Striking Frank Battman Saturday.

Saturday evening when Judge William Weber had laid the cases of the police judge's office and doled the judicial emine to retire to his home, he received a hurry call to return and open up the Palace of Justice that a dispute among two of our citizens might be settled.

The court found on his arrival that there was a complaint filed by Chief of Police Barclay against B. J. Halstead in which the defendant was charged with fighting and the object of his attack was Frank Battman, a resident of the south part of the city.

From the statements made by both Mr. Halstead and Mr. Battman it seems that the affair occurred in the Halstead meat market on South 6th street, and arose in the first place over the question of a claim of the meat market man that he said had not been paid while Mr. Battman contended it had and from the verbal argument the affair merged into active warfare and soon the parties were into it. Mr. Battman received a rather disfigured optic in the melee and as he in no way active, was the loser of the contest.

The matter was reported to the police, and Chief Barclay took up the case and after hearing the evidence in court, Judge Weber announced that a fine of $25 and costs would be assessed against Mr. Halstead. The defendant announced that he desired to appeal the case to the district court and bond was fixed in the sum of $50 for the appeal, and, owing to the lateness of the hour, Mr. Halstead was given until this morning to produce the fine or the amount of the appeal in the case.

HAS VERY CLOSE CALL FROM SERIOUS INJURIES

Sterling Harris, Son of County Commissioner, Has Rough Time With Backing Horse.

From Monday's Daily. Yesterday morning Sterling Harris, 15-year-old son of County Commissioner and Mrs. C. F. Harris, had a very narrow escape from serious injury at the farm home of George H. Shrader north of Union.

The young man had spent the night at the Shrader home and Sunday morning was engaged in riding a young horse in the farmyard when the animal became unruly and started bucking with all the vim of a real western mustang and after several bucks, Sterling was thrown over the horse's head and fell to the ground, his foot catching in a bridle rein and the horse then started to run to the barn, dragging young Harris along over the rough ground and after being dragged some seventy-five yards the rein broke, releasing him. The horse dashed into the barn and had the boy been held by the rein a few seconds longer he would probably have been very seriously injured as the horse ran into the barn door.

Dr. B. F. and J. F. Brendel of Murray were called and dressed the injuries and an examination failed to disclose any broken bones which was very fortunate. He is resting quite easily now but still feels the effects of the injuries.

HAS FINE OFFICES

From Monday's Daily. Attorney D. O. Dwyer has in the past been having his suite of offices in the Dwyer building repainted and decorated and made into one of the most pleasant and attractive office locations in the city. ## PARTY RETURNING FROM OMAHA GOES IN DITCH

TRUCK OF H. M. SOENNICHSEN CONVEYING PARTY FROM DEN, IS WRECKED.

From Tuesday's Daily. Last night about 11:00 when the truck belonging to the H. M. Soennichsen store was returning to this city with a party that had been in attendance at the Ak-Sar-Ben show, the truck ran into the ditch near the turn at the Nord farm on the Platte bottom and as the result occasioned some very painful injuries to Mr. Soennichsen as well as knocking off one front and one rear wheel of the truck and shaking up all of the occupants of the truck. The truck was driven by William Mendenhall, who is in the employ of Mr. Soennichsen and the party was traveling at a very good rate of speed to reach home as early as possible. It was quite dark along the roadway and Mr. Mendenhall states that he was unable to see far enough in advance to glimpse the turn in the road and when he saw it, it was too late to make it, and as a consequence the car went into the ditch. The driver says that the weeds are quite high there and more or less dust flying prevented him from seeing the turn in time.

As the car struck the ditch it turned over on one side and Mr. Soennichsen was pitched out of the car, over the steering wheel and Mr. Mendenhall, with whom he was riding, and as he was thrown he hit on a barbed wire fence inflicting a number of painful cuts and injuries and alighting on his face on the ground was quite badly bruised and skinned up. He had several cuts on his legs from either the wire or pieces of the broken windshield, that necessitated the services of a physician to dress. Edward Donat and Carl Ofc were seated in the rear of the truck and were not seriously injured beyond being bruised up some and as was also Mr. Mendenhall.

The injured man was brought in by other motorists returning from Omaha and taken to his home where he is being cared for. The truck was brought in later and found to be more or less battered up with two wheels broken and other damages including the broken windshield. This accident was the only disagreeable feature of the trip to Omaha and while serious enough it is fortunate that no one was injured fatally.

The heavy storm of Friday night that did a great deal of damage in the northern part of the state, caused a great deal of apprehension as to whether or not the trip could be made but Mr. Tartsch decided to try and reach their home as he was to commence his work this morning in the large mercantile establishment there with which he is connected.

From Tuesday's Daily. The three days that the "Let's Go" summer clearance sale has been on here has demonstrated to the buying public that there is some of the most exceptional opportunities in the way of reasonable merchandise that has ever been offered in the city.

In the features of the sales are the prices offered for the produce of the farmers and the Kinsey Poultry Co. is offering prices better than the farmer can find elsewhere for chickens. The market of springs is so uncertain that the price cannot be announced except from day to day but on other lines of poultry the prices are exceptional.

All of the stores that are engaged in this community bargain sale have found a liberal patronage from the public that shows they are appreciative of the offerings made.

GETTING READY FOR WORK

The stakes have been set at the Masonic Home for the proposed paving that will connect the Home driveways with the paving in front of the Missouri Pacific depot and will make a good permanent crossing at the point where the Omaha highway joins the pavement. The pavement will be a great improvement as it eliminates a rough spot in the road and will be much appreciated by the traveling public. Later the driveways through the home grounds will be joined to the paving and permit driving to the Home under any weather conditions and not cause the annoyance of mud as in the past.

HAVE A GREAT TIME AT AK-SAR-BEN DEN SHOW

Plattsmouth Delegation Visits Lair of Samson and is Highly Entertained by the King.

From Tuesday's Daily. A large delegation from this city motored to Omaha last evening in acceptance of the invitation of Samson to visit the Ak-Sar-Ben den and witness the entertainment that has been devised for the 1922 show and the tortures that are given the victims on their entrance into the chosen ranks of the boosters.

The Elks band of this city accompanied the delegation and gave a number of selections that were received with the greatest of enthusiasm by the Omaha knights, and the visitors from Nebraska City, Nehawka, Union, Murray and Syracuse, who were also in attendance at the show.

The Plattsmouth bunch were fortunate in the fact that there were none of their number selected for the stunts and all they had to do was to sit tight and enjoy the fun. The show is pronounced a hummer by all of the visitors and one of the best things that the Ak-Sar-Ben has put on in many moons.

The high price necessary for a special train held back this feature and made necessary the use of autos to convey the bunch and plenty of cars were on hand to supply the demand of the passengers.
