Program Progressing Nicely

Those in charge of the program for the coming meetings of the Old Settlers and pioneers celebration which is to occur on August 18th and 19th, Friday and Saturday. The program for the first day is to be made exceptionally strong and a very strong array of speaking talent is being arranged for that day. Now, the second day is to be a good one also, but special care is being taken in selecting the talent that both days may be well worth the while.

Will Hold No Services

There will be no services held at the Baptist church at Wabash on the coming Sunday by reason that the Rev. W. A. Taylor is to have charge of the program and services which are to be held at the home of Charles Creamer on account of the passing of the 86th birthday of Mr. George W. Shrader. All friends and neighbors and the members of this family, including also all Masons and friends are expected to come.

On account of the probably large crowd which will be present, all who come are expected to bring subsistence for each of the party to eat, and in addition one plate, knife, fork, spoon and cup.

Come, Meet Your Old Friends

The committee on amusements has secured the merry-go-round of LeBates of Nehawka and are certain they have a good feature for the amusement of those who come. Not this alone will be drawing cards, but the true friendships which have featured the life of the old settlers of Cass county and the hardships which have been incident to the making of this great country, are one of the strongest ties which can bind peoples together. Come and have two good days of visiting and enjoyment. Next year some of your friends will have answered the call and you will not meet them. Better have a good time with them this year.

Union Wins Ball Game Sunday

In a finely contested game, which was played on the local grounds last Sunday between the Alamo Dairy company's team and the Union team, the local boys took the cream and left only the skim milk and that none too sweet for the visitors. It is broadly hinted thought that the visiting team had something stronger than the game which they put up. The result was 11 runs for the home boys while the visitors only received four.

A large and well pleased crowd of base ball fans gathered to see the fun and they were not disappointed for they saw the enemy go down before the superb playing of the local team, who were able to find the pill of the Omaha team very easily.

Receives Many Severe Bruises

While riding a fractious horse on last Sunday morning at the farm of Earl Wolfe, Master Sterling Harris, son of Commissioner C. F. Harris and wife, met with a very distressing accident which caused a great amount of suffering. In some way he was thrown from the horse and as he was being cast from the animal his foot caught in the bridle rein and the unfortunate young man was dragged for over a hundred feet, with the result that he was cut and lacerated with many patches of skin and flesh torn from his body and limbs. Drs. Brendel & Brendel were called and dressed the wounds and made a close examination and from the results decided no bones were fractured or no severe internal injuries sustained. Sterling is getting along as well as can be expected considering the nature of his severe wounds.

Funeral of Solomon Long

Solomon Long was born August 8, 1833, in the state of Ohio, where he lived only a short time, moving to Knoxville, Iowa, while yet a mere boy. He came to Nebraska in 1856, nearly two thirds of a century ago. He was united in marriage with Miss Clarissa Rakes at Rock Bluffs in 1858. Mr. Long has been more recently making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Patrick Sullivan, at Omaha, where he answered the call of the death messenger on July 28, 1922, at the advanced age of nearly 89 years. Mr. Long had lost his wife some time since, and leaves to mourn his departure Mrs. Ida Edson and Mrs. Ella Powers, daughters, also one step-daughter, Mrs. Sullivan, and one son, John Long, of Plattsmouth.

Mr. Long has been a member of the Baptist church for many years and has lived a consistent Christian life and made many friends who mourn with the children his departure. The funeral was held at the Lewiston church, conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor last Friday, July 28th.

SAYS NEBRASKA'S CROPS LOOK BEST

Editor of Farm Paper Returns From Tour of Three States and Reports Crop Prospects Good

J. H. Frandsen, dairy editor of the Capper Farm Press, returned a few days ago from a 1,000-mile auto trip throughout the agricultural section of southern Nebraska, northern Kansas and western Iowa.

Mr. Frandsen commented on the fact that while crop prospects are excellent in most of the sections visited, nowhere did they look better than in Nebraska. While in certain sections much of the wheat is being stacked, shock threshing is the order of the day. Wet weather is causing some delay and some wheat is being injured from excessive moisture. In some parts of Kansas and Iowa, where threshing machines are operated mostly by steam, there is considerable anxiety regarding needed coal.

Corn is in excellent shape throughout the territory visited, and everything so far indicates a bumper corn crop. The loss from hail, while confined to local territory here and there, seemed particularly severe, many localities this year having suffered a complete crop loss.

The scarcity of cattle is particularly noticeable in some of the large Iowa pastures and feed lots generally so well filled with cattle at this time of the year. Practically all creameries visited report an increase in cream receipts running at least 20 per cent higher than those of last year. Farmers are making some money and are feeling a lot more cheerful than last year. Demand for farm land is coming back and some localities report quite a few farm sales at prices of approximately 20 per cent below boom prices.

MANY NEW FOREST FIRES REPORTED IN MONTANA

Missoula, Mont., July 31.—Two large forest fires were reported as having broken out in the Keweenaw forest in northwestern Montana.

The report received in headquarters of district No. 1 of the forest service here says that smoke from these fires is so dense that it is impossible to tell the extent of the flames. A fire said to be of incendiary origin, is reported as having broken out late Sunday east of Belton on the Great Northern railway. It is said to have burned over 70 acres. Twenty-five men have been sent from Kullspell to fight this blaze. This is at the southern boundary of the Great National park.

Five fires were reported as having been started by lightning in the Selway forest in eastern Idaho late Sunday. Crews have been sent to fight these fires, but these regions are almost inaccessible.

TRYING TO BUY THE PENNANT

New York Giants Emulate Example of Yanks and Buy McQuillan From Boston Braves.

Showing that the Boston-New York entente cordials will work in most any direction, the Giants have now gone pennant marketing to the Hub.

Badly in need of pitching to ward off the pesky St. Louis Cards, the Giants reached out Sunday night for help and they found the Braves willing to part with Hugh McQuillan, their best pitcher, to aid a distressed ally.

In return the Giants passed over big Fred Toney, a Memphis pitcher and Walter Houlthan, an untired college rookie hurler from Middlebury.

Some cash went along too. New York says it was "substantial" and Boston alleges it was in six figures. McQuillan is a high class young pitcher. With a tall end team he has won five out of fourteen games and he ought to be a life saver for the Giants.

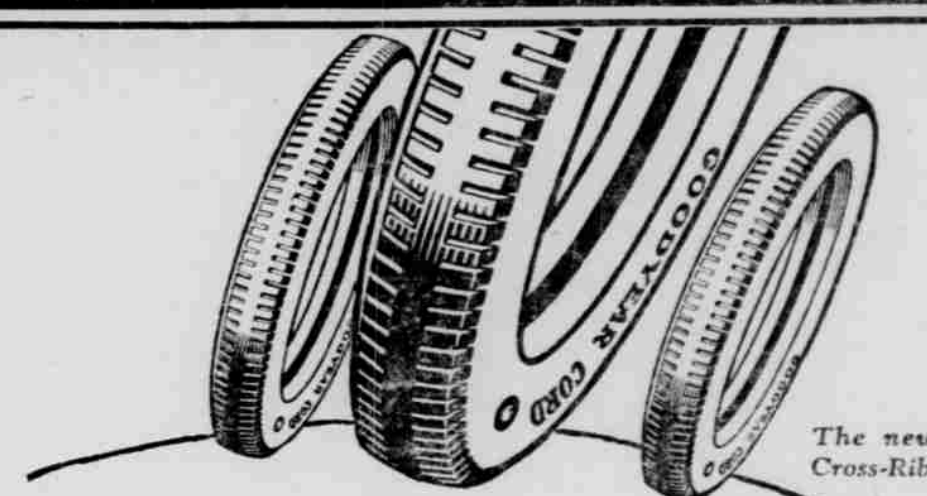

Right on the heels of the New York-Boston deal in the American League, the Giants acted as if more evidence were needed to show Commissioner Landis that he should step in and take a whack at pennant buying.

Counting up the cash involved in the purchase of Arthur Nehf, Dave Bancroft, Emil Meusel, Frank Snyder, Heinie Groh and McQuillan, the Giants have invested close to a half million dollars in a pennant contender when the other rivals, with the exception of the Chicago Cubs, can't afford to put out $100,000.

Bartering between the clubs is banned after Monday and if the Cards should have the money to make a counter move on the market, the mighty law of baseball will prevent it.

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man an unhappy slave. For impure blood and sluggish liver, use Burdock Blood Bitters. On the market 35 years. $1.25 a bottle.

The new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord

Did You Get the Bottom Price, After All?

The man who buys a "long discount" tire usually finds himself troubled by the above question.

Did he pay less for the tire than his neighbor might have paid, or actually did he pay more?

Did he get the bottom price, when all is said and done, or could he perhaps have driven a sharper bargain?

Was the net price really more than he might have had to pay for a tire of established reputation and value?

In the belief that the average motorist prefers a frank and open transaction, we built the new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord and discounted the "discount" in advance.

Instead of listing it at a high price, to enable the dealer to attract you with a so-called "long discount," we list it as low as we profitably can.

We build it of high-grade long-staple cotton, using the patented Goodyear method of group-ply construction, and sell it at a lower price than you are asked to pay for many "long discount" tires of unknown worth.

Compare these prices with NET prices you are asked to pay for "long discount" tires

BURIAL OF SOLOMON LONG

From Saturday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon at the Lewiston cemetery, ten miles south of this city, was held the funeral services of the late Solomon Long, an old resident of this county, and the services were attended by a large number of the former friends and neighbors. Mr. Long died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Nora Sullivan in South Omaha Wednesday night.

The funeral was very simple and impressive and in keeping with the wish of the deceased.

Mr. Long is one who will be recalled by the older residents of the city and county as he made his home here for many years and where his son, John Long, is still a resident.

In their loss the family will have the deep sympathy of the old friends in this community.
