The Old Settlers' Reunion

This week occurs the thirty-fourth annual meeting of the old settlers and pioneers of Cass and Otoe counties. This institution which has been in vogue for more than a third of a century, is one which furnishes a meeting place under most pleasant circumstances for the people who have made this country the wonderful country it is. Take a day or two off and enjoy yourselves, meet your friends and become acquainted again. There are many people who would like to see you and talk over the olden times and have a good visit which the press of business will not allow for it is probable IMPWYP MPWY for it is possible to visit with hundreds of people in this way and know that you have the many friends who will be in attendance. Good programs are provided for both days and besides excellent entertainments as well. Make this meeting one of the best during the thirty-four years which it has been in existence.

Had an Outing and Worked

The members of the staff of the State Horticultural Association and some of the apple growers of Nebraska numbering about two hundred in some forty automobiles, visited Union last Friday and inspected the orchard of W. H. Banning which is the finest young orchard in the state and also observed the terracing which has been put in force to conserve the land and prevent washing. They then went to the old orchard of Henry W. Banning which they also inspected and made a couple of more stops, one being the Morton orchards and then repaired to the Morton park at Arbor Lodge where they held their annual meeting and there had their dinner. The program which was touching apple culture and apples as a commercial product, was well worth while.

Mr. W. R. Banning who is a member of the society and a well known horticulturist, accompanied them.

Given Call to Church Here

Last Sunday the Rev. Plank, who is pastor of the Baptist church of Palmyra, delivered the discourse at the Baptist church at Union and proved his exceptional ability as a minister and pulpit orator. The members of the church here were all well pleased with his good work and extended a call to this gentleman to fill the pulpit here.

Will Exhibit at State Fair

Joseph Lidgett who has some of the finest Chester White hogs ever, is getting a herd of some 14 in readiness to take to the state fair which begins the first of the coming week at Lincoln. They will be taken by the Dowler brothers truck and we are guessing they will be as fine as any exhibited from the state.

Less Trains For Union

Union and the Lincoln branch as well as the main line will get along with less trains for the present as the two flyers have been taken off and what is known or was known as trains No. 647 and No. 648, the day passengers running between Union and Lincoln, have been discontinued for the present. A coach has been added to the freight trains running between here and Lincoln which now arrives in Union at 2:00 p. m. and departs for Lincoln at 2:45 p. m.

Lose to Iowa Team

"Milt's Colts" which is a pretty foxy team on the diamond, went to Perceval, Ia., last Sunday as the guests of the ball team of that place and there of course was to do some ball playing, but failed to get very far with the Iowa lads for at the end of the ninth inning they had only made three runs, though they were running all the time, while the Hawkeeye aggregation had rolled up a dozen less one scores to their credit. However, they say it was a good game.

Designate Resting Place
Last Monday Geo. E. Stiles, W. A. Taylor, R. E. Taylor, S. M. Taylor and R. M. Taylor took the monument which the Soldiers' home has prepared and sent to Union and erected the same at the head of last resting place of the mortal remains of Uncle J. W. Taylor, who passed away a few months ago. He was a member of Co. H, 14th Ohio Infantry in the Civil War.

DOES NOT LIKE
CONDITION OF THE JAIL AT NEB. CITY

Aged Physician, Charged With Manslaughter, Takes Officials to Task Over Conditions.

Nebraska City, Aug. 11.—That the Otoe county jail is unfit for humans to live in, that it is infested with vermin and other "wild animals" and ought to be condemned as a human habitation is the way M. A. Carriker, Nebraska City physician charged with manslaughter, described the well known county building which he appeared in county court for arraignment.

The aged physician, always neat and immaculate in his appearance and dress, scathingly rebuked county officials for what he termed their utter disregard for the comfort and welfare of the prisoner in the jail. "I strongly urge upon the board of health," he said, "the necessity for having this hole cleaned up or abandoned as a jail. It is a menace to the health of the men who have been incarcerated there for months. It is literally alive with bedbugs and other vermin. If I am a prisoner, I would not want to stay there. It is a disgrace to put men and women in such a hole. I earnestly hope the local board of health will make a thorough inspection of the vile place."

The condition of the jail has been known for months, but nothing has been done about it. Prisoners frequently complain, but aside from an occasional whitewashing and some desultory scrubbing now and then it is just as it was a half century ago. The odor is sometimes so strong that it pervades the atmosphere to the exclusion of the patent disinfectant frequently used. Officers realize it is no Fortenelle hotel, as one of them said yesterday. "But prisoners can't expect Ritz-Carlton accommodations," he went on.

Dr. Carriker, for more than thirty years a practicing physician at Nebraska City, was held on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the recent death of Mrs. Rena Dewey of that city while the woman's husband Donald Dewey, is held responsible with Carriker by a coroner's jury which handed down a verdict that her demise was due to an illegal operation.

There were a great many witnesses examined, including physicians from Omaha and Lincoln. The last witness was Dr. M. L. Koser, who testified that Mr. and Mrs. Dewey had called upon him and suggested that an operation be performed, but which he had refused to do.

After the verdict had been returned County Attorney Holmke filed information against Dr. Carriker, charging manslaughter, and he was placed under arrest.

Dr. Carriker was arraigned before County Judge Blachof on the charge of manslaughter and his bonds were set at $10,000. Those were signed by Fred E. Johnson, Mrs. Mary E. Winston and Mrs. John Bickel. The preliminary hearing was set for Thursday, August 24, at 10 a. m.

Discounting the "Discount" in Advance

You don't have to be a shrewd bargainer to get the bottom price on the new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord. Instead of listing it at a high price, to enable the dealer to attract you with a so-called "long discount," we list it as low as we profitably can. You can see from the figures below that its advertised price is lower than the net price you are asked to pay for many "long discount" tires of unknown value. We believe the average man would rather buy tires on this frank and open basis, and assure himself a product of recognized worth. The new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord is made of high-grade long-staple cotton, and it embodies the patented Goodyear method of group-ply construction. In design, materials and manufacture it is a representative Goodyear product, built to safeguard the world-wide Goodyear reputation. It has a different tread from the famous All-Weather Tread Cord—a new tread with a deep, clean-cut, cog-like pattern—and it sells for substantially less.

Compare these prices with NET prices you are asked to pay for "long discount" tires

30x3 1/2 Clincher.....	$12.50	32x4 Straight Side..	$24.50	33x4 1/2 Straight Side..	$32.15
30x3 3/4 Straight Side..	13.50	33x4 Straight Side..	25.25	34x4 1/2 Straight Side..	32.95
32x3 3/4 Straight Side..	19.25	34x4 Straight Side..	25.90	33x5 Straight Side..	39.10
31x4 Straight Side..	22.20	32x4 1/2 Straight Side..	31.45	35x5 Straight Side..	41.05

WEST NEBRASKA
HAS BEST CORN
IN MANY YEARS

Secretary of Agriculture Stuhr Finds
Potato Crop in Northwest Will Be a Record Breaker.

Western and northwestern Nebraska will have the best corn crop this season for thirty years, and the potato crop will also be a record breaker, Agriculture Secretary Leo B. Stuhr predicts after a week's tour thru twelve or fifteen counties in those sections of the state.

Both the irrigated territory in the North Platte river valley and the dry farming districts of the west will harvest big crops of these commodities, says Mr. Stuhr. He found fields looking especially IHRDL FF fields looking exceptionally good in Dawos, Sioux, Sheridan and Cherry counties, but the entire western half of the state promises a yield that will eclipse the production of any past season.

Sugar beets and alfalfa are also doing well, Stuhr reports. Wheat in certain sections was a little light, due to the drought in early June, but in general it has made a satisfactory crop.

Low Prices For Potatoes
Because of the huge potato crop, not only in Nebraska but over the country generally, prices have declined to very near pre-war levels. Farmers in the Kearney district, who sold their crop last year at from $1.50 to $2.25 per hundredweight, according to grade, are now offered only 80 to 85 cents for No. 2 grade at their home stations. No. 1 potatoes would bring a little more, but the demand is not strong enough to furnish much of a market for them.

At this date last year, the bulk of the potato crop in the Kearney region had been shipped, but only a small part of it has been moved this season. For the most part, farmers are holding back and letting their potatoes stay in the ground, hoping to see prices go higher before cold weather comes.

The Chicago and Kansas City potato markets have been glutted, but of late the receipts at Chicago show a decrease, and there is some prospect of a better demand in the near future, which will tend to stiffen the prices.
