BURGLAR SCARE CREATES A BIT OF EXCITEMENT HERE

Party Seen Making Way into Basement of R. A. Bates Building
Makes Good His Escape.

From Wednesday's Daily.
At an early hour this morning when a number were returning home from the dance at the Eagles hall, a man was seen to descend the shaft of the east side of the Bates building at the corner of 5th and Main streets and the fact occasioned not a little excitement among those who were on the street at the time.

The elevator that is used to carry freight for the use of the occupants of the building, had been left down at the bottom of the shaft, instead of at the sidewalk level as is usual and it was in this manner that the party made his way down the shaft.

As soon as the incident was noticed, Officers Jones, Heinrichsen and Deputy State Sheriff Grobe and Deputy U. S. Marshal O'Connor, who were standing at the corner of 4th and Main street, were notified and hurried to the scene of action and a search made of the premises but the person who had made the descent into the elevator had apparently taken alarm and made his getaway as the officers could find no trace of the man, William Hartwick, who resides on the second floor of the building, was awakened and securing the key to his store, an entrance was secured to the basement of the building but the would-be burglar had apparently not been able to gain entrance to the building proper.

Had the man not been seen at the time he had and the police hurried to the scene there might have been a real burglary pulled off, but as it was it created only a little excitement for the wee small hours.

YOUNG PEOPLE OF CITY JOINED IN WEDLOCK

Miss Lottie Schafer and Mr. Guido M. Seydlitz Married at Presbyterian Manse.

From Wednesday's Daily.
Last evening at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian manse, Miss Lottie Schafer was united in marriage to Mr. Guido M. Seydlitz, the ceremony being a very quiet one.

Mr. C. F. Schafer, father of the bride, and the members of the McClusky family were the only attendants at the wedding and the beautiful and impressive service was read by Rev. H. G. McClusky and following the wedding the young people returned to the home of the bride's parents where they will reside for the present at least.

Both of the contracting parties have a large circle of warm friends who will learn with pleasure of their decision to continue the journey of life as one. The groom was formerly in the employ of the Burlington here and is a young man held in the highest esteem by those who know him best. The bride is one of the popular young ladies of the city and one who possesses a large circle of friends.

COMES FROM IRELAND

From Wednesday's Daily.
John Weber and wife of this city have been enjoying a visit from a niece of Mrs. Weber, Miss Mary Rogers, who has just arrived from her old home in the County Down, Ireland, and is enroute to Butte, Montana, where her father and other relatives are located. The old home of the Rogers family is located in that portion of Ireland that has been the scene of much of the recent disorders. County Down, adjoining Belfast, where the two opposing factions of the Irish people have met in frequent clashes and as a consequence the country has suffered a great deal. Miss Rogers departed this morning for Omaha in company with Mrs. Weber and from there will go to Butte to make her future home.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS

From Wednesday's Daily.
J. M. Young of this city has just received word of the serious condition of his sister, Mrs. W. R. Olmstead at her home in Carroll, Neb. Mrs. Olmstead has been in poor health for some time and has gradually been growing weaker until little hopes of her recovery are entertained by the members of the family. Mrs. Olmstead will be remembered by many of the older residents of the vicinity of Murray where she resided in her girlhood, having been Miss Lou Young, and these old friends will regret very much to learn of the serious condition of the lady.

ATTRACTS ATTENTION

With the cool breezes occasionally reminding one that the straw headgear will soon be consigned to the moth balls, the east window of the Philip Thierolf clothing store is a treat to the eye, both in the display and the artistic manner that it is arranged. The new fall hats and caps are shown and the cards and general arrangement of the window makes a very pleasing blending of color that attracts the passersby. And also by the way, girls, the young man whose picture is shown in the demonstration of caps is an Omaha boy.

S. D. White and family of Fort Madison, Ia., arrived here today via the auto route to spend a short time visiting at the home of Mr. White's niece, Mrs. W. C. Foster and family. They report the roads as being excellent all the way across Iowa.
