Prepared in the Interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Roland Schlichtemeier was attending the fair during the week, having some fine hogs on exhibition. J. W. Magney was attending the state fair during the week a few days and thought it well worth while. H. H. Stoll was unloading a car of sand last Monday for Mr. A. F.

Sturm, the lumber and grain man. F. H. Sheldon was a visitor at the state fair on Thursday of this week and thought it about an average exhibit. Ollis Allis was a visitor in Wabash, his home, last Sunday, returning to take up his work last Monday morning. Walter Wunderlich is attending the state fair and is engaged in assisting in looking after some of the exhibits. Mayor Sheldon and Mr. George Tate were looking after some business matters in Avoca last Monday afternoon. During the time Mr. Rough was at the state fair, Mr. J. G. Wunderlich was looking after the business at the elevator. George Pollard, the genial salesman at the Sheldon stores, is taking a week off this week and is seeing some of the world. John Knabe and family were attending the state fair last Monday, they making the trip to the state capital in their auto. Earnest Pollard was a visitor at the state fair, where he has some excellent hogs on exhibition, and which looked like prize winners. Last Sunday, Miss Pearl Cliney spent the day at the home of W. S. Lewis and was a guest of the Lewis family, where all enjoyed the day. Forrest R. Cunningham was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Tuesday, where he was looking after some business matters and also visiting with his many friends. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sherman, the former an employe of the Lincoln Star, were spending last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop and other friends. Uncle Z. W. Shrader received from South Omaha last week 637 head of fine sheep, which he is feeding for the market and will expect to have ready in about ninety days. Mr. Harry Thomas, of Falls City, where he is the agent for the Missouri Pacific, was spending last Monday, Labor day, with his brother, Herman L. Thomas, in Nehawka. Frank McConnell was hauling hogs for a number of people who were attending the state fair and also looking in on the game at Weeping Water last Saturday as he returned home. Frank W. Martin and brother, Ben Martin, last Saturday received 589 sheep, which they are feeding at the home of the latter and will return to the market in a short time. Last Sunday W. O. Troop and family spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kruger, where the friends had a most enjoyable time, returning home in the evening.

PHONE NO. 14

NEHAWKA, NEB.

Will O. Troop and Charles R. Troop received a load of cattle last Friday, which they are placing in their feed yards and will feed them for returning to the market this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ross have been spending some time at the home of their son, H. C. Ross, of near Union, and after a very pleasant visit there of three weeks, returned home last Saturday. Mr. A. J. Ross has just had his house at the farm northeast of Nehawka given a good painting, the same being done by Mr. Henry Feltes and his worthy assistant, Mrs. Edward Woods. Superintendent of the city schools, W. L. Burbey, was in attendance at the state fair, interested in the stock judging contest in which a number of the pupils of the Nehawka schools were engaged. Last Sunday Mr. J. H. Palmer took a lot of fine spotted Poland China hogs to the state fair for Mr. R. B. Stone. These should surely bring down the first prize, as they are excellent individuals. Mr. Minch, who was considered the locating on Nehawka with a garage, has concluded to engage in the same business and has rented a place there, and will not locate in Nehawka as thought. Mrs. Marion Tucker made a flying trip to Omaha for the films when the railroads failed to make the proper delivery and the large crowd which gathered to see the community show were not disappointed. Jacob Waldo is suffering from a carbuncle on one of his arms, which is putting him out of commission and also giving him some wakeful nights. However, the violence of the attack is over and the arm is getting better. Lester Wunderlich, who has been located at Villisca for some time, being associated with Clyde Switzer, was visiting at the home of Troy Shrader one day last week. Clyde was also visiting with friends here as well. Mr. A. M. Munn of St. Joseph, Mo., accompanied with his family and Mr. A. J. Munn, of Fayette, Mo., were guests during the past week with many friends and after a very short visit the friends they departed for their home in the south. The Rev. E. O. Johnson, pastor of the Methodist church, departed last Monday afternoon for Omaha, where he went to attend the conference of the Methodist church and was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Irene, who goes along for a visit and to have some dental work done. Among those from Nehawka who attended the ball game at Weeping Water last Saturday and enjoyed the excellent contest which was put up, were Charles Hall, Charles Adams, Edward Wood, Thomas Mason, Chas. Hemphill, Grover Hoback, Hennings and Albert Johnson, Harold Kemlin, Fred Miller and Everett Rutledge, and all pronounce this an excellent game. The Christian Endeavor of the United Brethren church north of Nehawka, gave an ice cream supper last Monday evening, which was attended by a large crowd of people from Nehawka and the surrounding community. The committee realized a neat sum from their effort, as well as providing a pleasant evening for the country side. Let another of these pleasant evenings be coming in the near future.

Are Attending the Baby Show Last Monday morning, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rough and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ross departed for Lincoln, where they were going to see the fair and especially that portion which is known as the baby show. They were interested to the extent that a child of Mr. and Mrs. Ross and the grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Rough was one of the competitors for the first prize. The little one is indeed a very pretty babe, and one of the healthiest and happiest little ones, and we are sure we would be pleased to have it win the prize.

Will Entertain the Youth W. H. Porter, who is superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school at Union, and who with Misses Nettie McCarroll and Elsie Taylor and Mrs. L. G. Todd, visited the International Sunday school convention at Kansas City a few weeks since, will entertain the Sunday school at Nehawka with a detailed report of the doings at the convention. Better come and hear this report. It will give you enlarged ideas of the Bible school work.

The Ball Game One of the best games which have been played on the Nehawka diamond was the one which was witnessed by the large and enthusiastic crowd of ball fans and the common people as well, last Sunday. The game was a snappy one from start to finish and was replete with many fine exhibitions of skill, and brought forth the admiration and applause of the interested auditors. The Omaha Printing company team and the Nehawka club went at the matter of winning the game in real earnest at the beginning and after with moky of the battle had cleared away it was found that the local team had maintained their honor and integrity and won the ten inning game by a score of 7 to 6.

That is the Mule for You You can always depend on a mule, that is to do the other thing, and in this case the mule surely did not disappoint its friends. A mule belonging to Henry P. Sturm, meandered over the rotted covering of a cess pool at the home of Mr. H. P. Sturm and as a consequence went through. When the animal was missed it was some time before he was located, but when the entire covering was removed, he like a cat jumped out of the mire, though standing in the contents nearly to his sides, and landed on solid terra firma again and with a whisk of his tail, departed for different pasture.

Mrs. E. Oaks, of near Lincoln, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Levi Rustenholts, for a few days. Mrs. A. F. Boedeker and son, Dewey, returned Thursday from a visit in Knox county. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Shopp, of Imperial, Neb., have been visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. E. J. Boedeker and family and other relatives and friends in Cass county for the last few days, after returning from a visit with her brother, E. A. Fitzpatrick, of Sioux City and also enjoying an auto outing thru Iowa. Mrs. Shopp was formerly Miss Adele Fitzpatrick.

RECORD CROWDS ARE ATTENDING NEBRASKA FAIR

Automobile Races Entertain Visitors—Large Displays of Agricultural Products Shown.

Lincoln, Sept. 4.—Following a heavy, cooling rain here on Sunday night, the 54th annual Nebraska state fair opened officially today with promises of record-breaking attendance. Sunday, admission was charged and the attendance of 16,260 exceeded any previous Sunday record.

There were automobile races today which will continue tomorrow. Bands from half a dozen towns in Nebraska played at various parts of the fair grounds. The exhibits of hogs, cattle, sheep, arts, needle and fancy work attracted hundreds.

As usual, the state exhibit of fish from the state hatchery at Gettysburg was probably the most popular place on the grounds. A life-sized cow made from butter was one of the big features.

A dozen traffic cops with helmets directed traffic to the grounds. This is the only week in the year Lincoln supports traffic cops.

County agricultural and industrial products were put on display by Carter, Kearney, Lincoln, Adams and a dozen other counties. Hundreds of families rented tents and pitched them on the grounds.

The attendance today as officially announced tonight was 51,276, beating the record of a year ago by nearly 2,000.

DEACONESSES INCREASE IN METHODIST CHURCH

Missoula, Mont., Sept. 3.—The growth in the Methodist Episcopal church from three deaconesses in 1890 to 1,023 deaconesses and probationers in 1922 was told today by Dr. D. W. Howe of Buffalo, N. Y., corresponding secretary of the General Deaconess board, speaking before the general conference of the board in session here.

"The value of the property under the direct auspices of the board increased from $238,908 in 1894 to $12,767,050 in 1922," he said. "The value in 1912 was $4,682,434, at which time the present form of the board was authorized.

"In Europe there are 907 deaconesses working throughout Switzerland, Germany, Denmark, Norway and Sweden. Property there is valued at $1,495,569."
