JACOB DECEIVES ISAAC

And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy first born; I have done according as thou badest me; arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.—Genesis xxvii, 19.

The administration bill for control and distribution of coal during the mining and transportation emergency passed the house, 214 to 61, and sent to the senate with assurances of early consideration.

A LIBERAL EDUCATION

That man, I think, has had a liberal education who has been so trained in youth that his body is the ready servant of his will, and does with ease and pleasure all the work that, as a mechanism, it is capable of; whose intellect is a clear, cold, logic engine, with all its parts of equal strength and smooth working order; ready, like a steam engine, to be turned to any kind of work, and spin the gossamers as well as forge the anchors of the mind; whose mind is stored with knowledge of the great fundamental truths of nature and of the laws of her operations; on who, no stunted ascetic, is full of life and fire, but whose passions are trained to come to heel by a vigorous will, the servant of a tender conscience; who has learned to love all beauty, whether of nature or of art, to hate all villainy, and to respect others as himself.

—T. H. Huxley.

Another reason some loafers oppose modern improvements like cement walks is that it takes three or four hours after sundown for a cement curb on the street to cool off sufficiently for sitting purposes.

A big potato crop is being gathered in Wisconsin, and the correspondent says "a low price is feared." Yes, we consumers are very much alarmed over the threatened low price of potatoes. And coal.

Lord Northcliffe was a man apart from most of his fellows. While he lived by virtue of his achievements, it appears he rose no higher than the common level in his ability to write a will that suited everybody concerned.

Rents have been reduced in Kansas City, 15 per cent., but of course we can't all live in Kansas City. And besides, you have to be an old resident to identify the 15 per cent reduction, which, like the new long skirt, is going about largely incognito.

The administration, it is now said, rather inclines to the policy of allowing the railroads and the striking shopmen to fight it out if it takes all winter. Probably that is an exaggeration. What the administration means, more likely, is to let them fight it out until after the election.

EASY MONEY

Easy money coming for somebody. Industrial corporations in September will distribute over $37,000,000 in dividends, against 42,000,000 in July, 1919, when money grew on trees.

After all, is it easy money? At the source, dividends originate in savings in installments, instead of having the thrill of blowing the principal all in at one time.

The dividends system does not please all Americans, but at least the picking is open to anyone willing to scripp and save.

LABOR MAKING GREAT STRIDES

Secretary of Labor Davis Says Marked Progress Has Been Made in the Past Year.

Mooschart, Ill., Sept. 4.—American labor has made great strides in the past year, Secretary Davis of the labor department, declared today in a Labor day address. In spite of unemployment, he declared, it has fought off all attempts to decrease wage levels set up during the war and safely passed a war crisis. Workmen, "grown accustomed to comforts in life not tasted before," he added, "will now find them preserved."

Despite the pressure of a tremendous mass of unemployed, despite the efforts of a few reactionary employers who selfishly sought to take advantage of the distress of labor and the nation we have kept the general level of wages up," he declared. "I am safe in saying the average compensation of the man who toils is within a few per cent of what it was a year ago and some have received an increase."

Continuation of high wage levels, Mr. Davis predicted would bring prosperity in the United States, because it would increase the nation's consuming power. There have been industrial conflicts, he said, referring to the mines, rail and textile strikes, which have meant "incalculable loss," and less that "will reach every man, woman and child in America."

"One great prerequisite there is to continued progress on the path of prosperity," he said, "that is industrial peace. Employers and workers must join forces if the campaign is to be completely successful."

CALLS FOR MILITANT ACTION

Omaha, Sept. 5.—The Nebraska federation of labor today adopted a resolution asking a general strike of all organized labor in the United States in support of the railroad shopmen, against whom a federal injunction was issued in Chicago last Friday. It also appointed a committee to suggest plan to "place the moral and financial support of union labor" behind the striking shopmen. T. J. Conboy called on the men to become militant. He characterized them as being "chloroformed," and referred to Attorney General Daugherty as being a "peanut," acting for a "rubber stamp" president.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT LARGE

The enrollment of the city schools while not fully complete indicates that the number of scholars will be much greater than the year past. In the grades there are 800 children registered and in the high school, 255, a gain of over 45 since 1921. The freshman class numbers 92, which is the largest freshman class ever admitted to the high school. A part of the classes of the high school will be seated on the stage of the auditorium as the seating capacity of the room is very crowded.

Your ad will carry punch if you write it as a plain "selling talk" instead of trying to fuss it up with frills and exaggerations.
