

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Joseph West, of Crete, a brother of Mr. F. C. West, of Nehawka, is visiting here for the present. Fred Rose shipped a car load of wood to Lincoln last week, which he has been having cut from his place near Nehawka.

C. W. Stone and family were visiting in Omaha last Saturday and also were looking after some business matters as well.

Horace Griffin is working at the Pollard farms and assisting in the work which just at this time is very plentiful on the farm.

Louis Plybon and family were visiting with relatives and looking after some business matters both in Plattsburgh and Omaha.

Lester Shirader, who does not dislike the National game, was a visitor at Sunnyside last Sunday, where he was playing ball with the fans.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Rockwell and daughter Miss Maxine have been spending the past two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Palmer.

Mr. W. A. Hicka has just completed a new well at the home of Henry M. Pollard, which is a very profitable addition to the property of Mr. Pollard.

Nick Klarens has been placing a new roof on the parsonage of the United Brethren church, which is occupied by Mr. John Frans as a residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Waddick, who have been visiting for the past few weeks in Kansas, returned home on last Friday and report having had a most excellent time.

Miss Ruth Davidson of Weeping Water and Miss Gladys August of Nehawka were visiting last week for a few days with friends and relatives at Villisca, Iowa, and returned home last Friday.

Lester Wunderlich and Clyde H. Switzer, who are engaged in the battery business at Villisca, Iowa, were spending last Sunday at Nehawka, and were accompanied by their friend, M. R. Barber.

Charles Hall and family were at the Hall family reunion last Sunday, which was held at Douglas at the home of one of the members of the family. There was a large crowd present and a most enjoyable time was had.

Troy Shirader and Ben Martin sheared their lambs one day last week. These are the ones which they are feeding and after taking in charge the sheep they are now in its place, thus reaping two crops from the same investment.

Clarence Peck is driving the school bus, the only one which is being run at this time, as the other route is covered by cars. Besides the matter of driving the bus, Clarence is also looking after things at the home of Jack Douglas, while he is away.

Jack Douglas departed a few days since for Rochester, Minn., where he went to consult the Mayo Brothers regarding an affection on his neck, which has been giving him some trouble for some time past, and which he desired to have an expert opinion regarding.

E. R. Kinslow, the new jeweler and wife, were spending their Sunday at the home of their folks at Syracuse. By the way Mr. Kinslow is an excellent workman in his line, getting a nice business in Nehawka, which is adding to the better serving of the trade which come to Nehawka.

Mark Burton, who has been living for the past year or more in the country north of Nehawka, on the farm of Leo Switzer and occupying the building formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Feltes, which was vacated when they moved into the house which was before occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Rutledge.

Mrs. Vilas Sheldon and children, who have been visiting in the west for a number of months and spending the heated season in the mountains, returned home last Friday, and the children are now going to school again and are able to push their studies after the excellent vacation which they have had.

Rev. John Simpkins, pastor of the United Brethren church is away to the conference of their church this week, which is being held at Hastings. Mr. A. B. Rutledge is also a delegate, and with instructions from the two congregations that he use every means in his power to have Rev. Simpkins returned to the two churches here.

John S. Chappell and wife of north of Nehawka, and C. M. Whithead and wife of Roselle, who has been visiting in the east and who have spent some two weeks with the home folks, for they formerly lived there, arrived via their auto at Nehawka last Friday and declare they had a most pleasant trip and enjoyed the visit there to the best.

F. W. Kloppping and wife, Jesse Lawthers, wife and son, James, of near Coleridge, the ladies daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Norris, formerly living a few miles north of Nehawka, were visiting for a short time during the fore part of last week and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Norris, also visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Fulton.

Some excitement was caused last week when the barn of the Rev. E. O. Johnson was consumed by fire, the origin of which is not known. It was very fortunate that the neighbors were able to control the flames, which could have easily been carried to other portions of the town. Rev. Johnson was at Omaha, in attendance at the conference of the Methodist church at the time.

Are Visiting Here for a Time
Mr. and Mrs. Justin Sturm, who have been spending some time in Europe since their marriage during the early summer, arrived in Omaha last Saturday and visited for a short time at the home of the sister of Mr. Sturm, Mrs. John O. Yeiser, Jr., and with Mr. and Mrs. Yeiser, came to Nehawka last Sunday and are spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Sturm. Mr. Yeiser spent the day and evening here, returning to his work in Omaha, while Mrs. Yeiser is visiting here for a few days.

Nehawka Wins Another Bout
Last Sunday at the local ball park, the Nehawka team put it over on the North Omaha Ramblers in a game which looked very much like sport and the taking away from a baby of its candy. It came so easily. The game drew a good crowd, but in the summing up of the matter at the close of the game, it showed that Nehawka had passed over the home plate ten times to two for the visitors. However, the game was not so bad after all.

Uncle Wm. Tucker Very Low
Uncle Wm. Tucker, who has been in very poor health for a long time, has been very sick for the past few weeks, and for the past week has not been conscious, but sleeps most of the time. He is receiving the best of care and everything is being done for his comfort. He is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Magney.

The Nehawka Schools Open

With the commencement of the present school year, there is a better showing in regard to the enrollment and also in the interest which the students are displaying in their work. There are 22 beginners and with those who have dropped out since last year, this leaves a net gain in all the schools of some 25, the high school alone having from fifteen to seventeen more than last year. This year the high school has an enrollment of some 64 members. This speaks well also for the for the faculty, which have worked hard for the success of the school.

Seconds Also Play Ball

Last Sunday the second team of Weeping Water came to Nehawka to trim the younger lads of this burg, but were disappointed as when the dust and smoke of the contest had been blown from the ball park, it was found that Nehawka had three runs to a goose egg marked up against the team from Weeping Water.

Had Best Exhibit in State

The breeders of the Spotted Poland China hogs in Nehawka, R. B. Stone and Sons, are feeling pretty good and well should they, as they had according to the judgment of those in charge of the state fair, the best display of four hogs of this class in the state. They were awarded a silver cup, which is on display at the jewelry store of E. R. Kendle. The hogs to win the cup are Revolution and Stone's Foundation, they being fall pigs of 1921, and two sons of Nebraska's Pride, they being spring pigs. Mr. Stone and sons will hold a sale of pigs on October 18th, at which time he will offer a large number of this excellent line of hogs for sale.

APPLES FOR SALE

Fine picked Wealthy cooking apples, 50c per bushel in orchard.—Ella Dodson, 1 1/4 miles northwest of Nehawka. a28-7

A Nice Lot of Hogs

We chanced to be out at the home of Hon. E. M. Pollard last week, when he was selecting a number of pigs to put into the feeding lot and from a drove of spring pigs he selected some ninety, the oldest of which was born in March, which weighed on an average of about 160 pounds, and which made one of the prettiest droves of hogs which it has been our lot to see in many a day. These hogs are of the famous Hampshire breed, which is so extensively bred by the breeders of Nehawka and vicinity.

RAIL OFFICIALS CENSURED FOR BUNKHOUSE TRAGEDY

Pittsburg, Sept. 12.—A coroner's jury, investigating the fire which destroyed a Pennsylvania railroad bunkhouse here September 3, with a loss of seven lives, tonight returned a verdict censuring officials and employees of the company for the condition of the building and holding that the blaze was accidental.

The jury held that the bunkhouse converted from a repair shop, was used to store inflammable material, that the city laws governing alterations of buildings was violated, that exits were inadequate and that the railroad fire fighting equipment was useless because of inefficient organization.
