Prepared in the Interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Fred Miller was over to Percival, Iowa, where he was assisting in a ball game there.

Thomas Mason was a visitor in Lincoln, not going to play ball, but to see a very dear friend.

W. H. Virgin and wife of Murray were in attendance at the funeral of the late Wm. M. Tucker last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cunningham were at Plattsmouth last Sunday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. D. O. Dwyer.

John Frans was a visitor in Union last Sunday afternoon, being a guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. Belle Frans.

E. M. Griffin and W. B. Dale were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Saturday, driving up in the latter's car.

R. B. Stone and family spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hall, of Nebraska City, making the trip in their auto.

W. O. Troop and son Robert were looking after some business matters in South Omaha last Monday and also took up two loads of hogs.

C. D. St. John was a visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. E. Hitt, of Plattsmouth, and went up to see little Richard Hitt, his nephew.

J. H. Buteon of Murray has been visiting at the home of his son, Mark Buteon for the past week, and both father and son have enjoyed the visit.

Mrs. Z. W. Shrader, who has been sick for the past week, is now able up and about again and Uncle Zach has gone up to the farm to assist in the work.

Since the beginning of school, Mrs. John Frans has been working as a relief operator at the Nehawka telephone exchange and is doing excellent work.

Raymond Berger, who is in the army, will receive his discharge on the 27th of this month and will then return to Nehawka, having had enuf army service to suit him.

The Gooch Milling and Bakery company of Lincoln began running a truck through Nehawka last Monday and will supply bread to their patrons in this way in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Todd and daughter, Louise, of Imperial, arrived in Nehawka one day this week and are visiting with relatives and friends, being guests at the home of George Sheldon and wife.

W. B. Dale, who has been located at Broken Bow, where he has been working in the capacity of game warden, arrived at home a few days since and will spend some time here, returning to the west in October.

Mrs. Louisa Conard and Emma Burdick, of Omaha, were spending last Sunday at the home of Nick Klaurens and wife, Miss Hester Conard of near Avoca was also a guest at the Klaurens home at the same time.

Justin Sturm and wife, who have been spending the past ten days at the home of A. F. Sturm and wife, departed last Saturday for their future home in Chicago and will also visit at the home of the parents of Mr. Sturm.

Mr. Sterling Ingwersen, who is a member of the pig club, and had a number of fine hogs on exhibit at the state fair last Monday shipped two of his herd, both boars, to Bennington and Cedar Bluffs, which he had sold while at the fair.

Grandmother St. John slipped and fell last Wednesday and sustained a fracture of her shoulder which caused her much pain and which has been reduced by the physician, with the result that while it gives much pain, it is getting along nicely at this time.

Without any chains and the road slippery, the representative of the Journal slipped into the ditch just north of H. P. Sturm's last Monday, and wrestled in the mud for some time, and wish to thank Mr. Ed Shumaker for his assistance in getting out again.

Last Monday Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Stone were visiting in Omaha, going in their auto to take Mrs. Flora Hall to Omaha to catch the Overland train for the coast, where she is returning to her home at Duval, Washington, after having visited here for the past three months with her sister, Mrs. Stone.

Marvin Reed, who formerly was employed with Nelson Berger, before the war, and who served during the war and a time since, was discharged a few days since and returned to Nehawka for a visit, and has been spending a short time at the Berger home as well as visiting with his many friends here.

Lester Wunderlich was a visitor in Nehawka last Sunday and remained for a day or two longer. Of course we admire the love that a young man has for his home and wife and visit so often, but some one has whispered that it was not alone members of his own home that was the attraction, but probably some body's sister as well.

APPLES FOR SALE

Fine picked Wealthy cooking apples, 50c per bushel in orchard.—Elba Dodson, 1 1/4 miles northwest of Nehawka. a28-7

Sweaters! Sweaters!

Look out next week for a new ad for the Sheldon store. They are receiving a large invoice of sweaters that embody the newest styles in the knit goods line, and which will be on sale next week. See the announcement which will give further particulars and be among the early buyers so as to get the choice of this excellent stock of goods at the extremely attractive prices at which they are to be sold.

Legion Will Give Dance

The Nehawka American Legion is to give a dance at the Auditorium on Friday night of this week. That the boys will have a good time goes without saying. Then a crowd of American Legion boys get together, they sure know how to put bells on the feet of time. Better make it a point to be there and enjoy the evening.

Will Remain for Another Year

At the conference of the ministers of the Methodist church which met at Omaha a week or more ago, the consensus of opinion was that the Rev. E. O. Johnson, pastor of the Nehawka church, had been doing work very satisfactory to the conference and the good people of Nehawka and therefore he was returned to Nehawka, where he has made many friends during his stay here. He with the family and the members of the church are much better prepared to work for the better interests of Nehawka than a year ago.

Near Serious Accident

Last week while Henry Ost, of Memphis, who has been visiting at the Berger home, was visiting in Nehawka, and was just stopping his car, it was noticed that Little Preston Dale was directly in front of the car. Mr. Ost stopped the car instantly with the result that the little boy was knocked down, but not injured. Bystanders, of whom his father was one, ran to the car just as the little fellow was crawling out from under the car, uninjured.

School Notes

Twenty-two beginners are keeping Miss Graft very busy.

Mr. and Mrs. Burby entertained the high school teachers at lunch Thursday evening.

The senior class has chosen Mr. Burby as their sponsor and the juniors have chosen Miss Wright.

There are 15 in the agricultural class this year, the subject being animal husbandry and shop work.

A new set of physiology books and silent readers have been secured which will no doubt prove valuable to the fifth and sixth grade classes.

The first grade has had the story of the Three Bears and are making bear books for handwork. The children have also learned a number of new songs.

There were 35 enrolled in the primary room, 31 in the third and fourth grade room, 25 in the fifth and sixth and 23 in the seventh and eighth grades.

The juniors have selected officers which are as follows: Velma Munn, president; Genevieve Stone, vice president; Clarice Switzer, secretary, and Lucian Carper, treasurer.

There is a rather small class in home economics this year, but a very interesting and valuable course in sewing is being planned by Miss Nuernberger, the instructor.

School opened Monday with considerable increase in the enrollment. Sixty-two were registered in the high school and one hundred and sixteen in the grades. It was necessary to install some old seats in the high school as the new ones have been delayed.
