PRESIDENT SETS FIRE PREVENTION DAY, OCT. 9

Washington, Sept. 21.—President Harding in a proclamation issued today, called upon the country to set aside Monday, October 9, as fire prevention day, and to observe it in such a manner as to impress upon the people the "importance of precautionary measures for the avoidance of fires."

That's why when tailors and others advertise that the immediate passage of the tariff bill is to be a signal for a general price advance on all woolen goods, buncing in a large measure of the public. For present prices are based on the after war surplus and the fact that the emergency tariff has practically been an embargo to help use those surpluses up.

One of the most uninteresting devices we can think of is an alarm clock that insists on ringing at the usual hour regardless of the time a fellow wants to get up.

MERCHANTS WIN GAME FROM CEDAR CREEK SUNDAY

Score of 6 to 3 is Result of Battle—Locals Have One Bad Inning that Piles up Score.

Yesterday afternoon Manager Bob Stivers and his warriors from Cedar Creek motored down to mix it up with the local baseball team and as a result of the meeting the Cedar Creek team returned home defeated by the score of 6 to 3.

The first blood was drew by the locals in the third inning. Herold opened with a fly to left field and was followed by O'Donnell who tried to force a sacrifice but flew out to short. Werden laid down a clean bunt that advanced Pete to the second station and when Shepherd rapped a two bager to second, Pete scored.

In the fourth frame the locals made their second score. Joe McCarthy, the village Waite Hoyt, hit one of Rudolph's slants to the center field and advanced when William Harvey Mason placed a real bunt into the diamond that the visitors could not handle and which left both players safe. Sprecher was out on a grounder to Meisinger. Frank Gradoville, the clever young shortstop, made possible the first score with a rap to center on which McCarthy scored. Herold closed the inning on an infield drive to second.

Another was chalked up for the Plattsouth boys in the sixth when Ed Gradoville, who did the backstopping, was hit in the ribs and given his base and advanced when McCarthy placed a hot one through the pitcher. When Frank Gradoville hit to right garden Ed scored in a hot race for the plate and Koop, the visitors' catcher who was blocking the line, was threw for a five yard loss by Gradoville.

The fatal seventh inning saw the visitors come from behind and tie the score our sterling had been piling up. Shinn was hit on the heel by McCarthy and sent to first and Harold Koop followed and was safe when Werden failed to hold his grounder and both men registered when Reichart hit to center. On the infield hit McCarthy failed to hold. Reichart scored and the hopes of the visitors' rose to fever heat with the prospects of victory, but they were soon dashed as the locals in their half of the inning came back and hung up two safe ones for a lead. O'Donnell hit to right field and was able to score on the grounder of Werden to short. Ed Gradoville secured a hit through short and while it was only good for one base by the time the rival team had jazzed the ball around the diamond Gradoville had registered at the plate.

The last run of the locals came in the eighth when Mason was hit by Meisinger, sacrificed by Frank Gradoville and registered when Herold hit to center for a safety.

The visitors have a good and clean organization of ball players as can be found in any place of the same size of Cedar Creek and certainly have reason to be well pleased with their showing this season on the diamond.

Th tabulated score of the game is as follows:

A SAD DEATH

Nellie, the little seven year old daughter of Mrs. Henderson, died at Alvo of diphtheria.

She was brought here for burial in Oakwood cemetery on Saturday afternoon. The funeral was private. Nellie Henderson was born at Alvo, Neb., May 14, 1915, and died at the same place, September 14, 1922, age 7 years and 4 months.

She had gone to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Speth before school started and took sick and was unable to return home.

She leaves her mother, two sisters and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Speth to mourn her loss.

Short services were held at the cemetery at 2:30 p. m., Saturday, conducted by Rev. C. I. Rose, pastor of the Methodist church.—Weeping Water Republican.

BODY OF FESSELL IS HIDDEN BY RECENT CAVE-IN

Miner Who Burned Farewell Message of Doomed Miners on Rock Wall Missing.

Jackson, Cal., Sept. 21.—One body was missing today among those of the forty-seven gold miners who perished from gas in the Argonaut shaft. By a whim of fate it was the body of William Fessell, the man who wrote on the rock with the smoke of his miner's lamp a farewell message for all the doomed forty-seven.

It was believed possible that he—evidently a leader of the stricken shift—had crept from the chamber of death to a higher level, hoping to find some means of escape for his comrades. The men from the bureau of mines were certain, however, that they counted forty-seven bodies last Monday night. They considered it most Fessell that Fessell's body was removed by a cave-in since the work of removal began.

The state industrial accident commission has been instructed to cut away and preserve that portion of the stone in the mine drift on which Fessell burned with his lamp the only message left by the miners. Clarence E. Jarvis, member of the state board of control, said the stone would be kept by the state in memory of the victims.

The words written on the stone, Jarvis said, were: "Gas getting bad, 3 o'clock." Below the figure "4" had been burned and a portion of the letter "O." Fessell is believed to have succumbed to the gas at that point.

DAKOTA LEAGUER OFFERS PLAN OF MERGER IN 1923

Suggests Consolidation of His Organization with the Nebraska Loop—No Reply Given.

Mike Cantillion, president of the Dakota league, which comprises four cities in South Dakota and a similar number in North Dakota, is anxious to interest magnates of the Nebraska league in a scheme to organize a new Nebraska-Dakota loop. President Mike, known to Lincoln by reason of his former ownership of the Des Moines club of the Western league sixteen years ago, has written several Nebraska league owners proposing that the four best towns of the Dakota circuit be linked with the four best cities of the Nebraska loop in forming the new organization.

The executive of the Dakota league has heard rumblings of Sioux City's retirement from the Western league and hints that Sioux town would be a desirable acquisition for his proposed N-D loop. He suggests that Lincoln also might wish to retire from the Nebraska league to take membership in the new circuit. Grand Island and Norfolk of the Nebraska league are mentioned by Cantillion as possible members, while Council Bluffs, he says, also might be taken into the fold.

Owners of the Lincoln franchise in the Nebraska league said today that they were not in position to give the Dakota league president a definite reply. Negotiations for the sale of Landis field to a syndicate of Lincoln men who aspire to place the Nebraska capital city in the Western league may come to a head within the near future. The syndicate will ask the local magnates to put a price on their park, both on a rental and outright basis, and in case the price is right the deal may be closed at an early date. In that event, Lincoln would step back into the western league.—Lincoln Star.

MILLIONS LOANED ON FARMING LAND

Joint Stock Land Bank Floats Big Bond Issue—to Run 20 Years and Redeemed After 5.

Two and a half million dollars of new 5 per cent bonds issued by the Lincoln Joint Stock Land bank, as the basis of an equal amount of prospective loans to be made in the near future have just been sold to a syndicate comprising three of the largest bond and investment houses in the middle west.

The sale was made on Monday to the Harris Trust & Savings bank of Chicago, the firm of Halsey, Stuart & Co., of the same city, and the W. R. Compton Co., of St. Louis. These concerns will resell the bonds to their customers. The issue is made to run twenty years, but an optional clause permits the Joint Stock Land bank to redeem them at any time after five years.

Including the two and a half million just sold, the Lincoln institution now has outstanding $22,665,000 of bonds. From the proceeds of the new sale and other income, loans have been made amounting to $20,359,000, and to this sum will soon be added the $2,500,000 realized from the transaction just consummated.

During the first nine months of 1922, the Lincoln Joint Stock Land bank has loaned more than $11,000,000 on farm land security in Nebraska and Iowa. All loans have been made at 6 per cent.

HURRAH! LESS SALUTING IN THE ARMY IN FUTURE

Regulations to be Amended to Do Away with Nuisance that was Unpopular with All.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Army regulations are soon to be amended to do away with much of the exchange of salutes between officers and men in public places.

Experience during the war, when large numbers of officers were in Washington and other centers of military effort has convinced war department officials that strict adherence to existing regulations made the required exchange of salutes upon every meeting a nuisance, and led to a general disregard of the regulations among officers by common consent.

The revised regulations will restrict the exchange of salutes for both officers and men to military reservations, except where they may address one another while in uniform on the streets or in other public places.

SHOP FORCES ARE NEAR NORMAL, SAY EXECUTIVES

Washington, Sept. 21.—Shop forces of the railroads of the country are now approximately 80 per cent of normal, the Association of Railway Executives announced today.

On September 19 the increase in shop workers totaled 7,974 over the previous day, the largest increase since the railroad strike began. This increase was attributed to the Chicago agreement.

A Motor That Actually Thrives on Carbon

Most people think of "carbon" in terms of trouble. It means lost power, reduced compression and expensive repairs in most motors. But here is a motor that actually thrives on carbon. The Willys-Knight Motor improves with use because accumulated carbon helps to tighten compression. Quiet—powerful—smooth-running—it is entirely free from the usual motor repair costs. And the motor is as simple and understandable as it is economical. The valve mechanism—for instance—just two sleeves sliding smoothly on a film of oil, instead of noisy, rapid-wearing poppet valves and springs. The Willys-Knight is not only beautiful, graceful, easy-riding; it has been built to last and match the quiet motor.

EPISCOPAL PRAYER TO THE VIRGIN MARY ADOPTED

House of Deputies Overrules Emphatic Protest by Delegate From Virginia.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 22.—The session of the house of deputies last night was enlivened by an attack by Roswell Page of Beaver Dam, Va., upon a proposed new prayer in the communion service. "You have introduced into this, the most sacred of all our services," he said, "new prayers and new ceremonies, distasteful to many of us. You pray to the blessed Virgin Mary. I don't care what the people of Boston, or New York, or Milwaukee think, I represent the people of old Virginia and know what they think. I protest, sir, against this prayer."

The protest was unavailing. The whole service as revised was adopted. A change was made in a prayer which read: "Have mercy on all Jews, Turks, infidels and heretics." The words of the new prayer are: "Have mercy on all who know Thee not."

In proposing the change the Rev. Dr. C. L. Slattery of New York, secretary of the prayer book revision commission, stated: "I think, as Christians, that we should show a spirit of charity to Christianity to the Jewish people. This prayer is an insult to them. By removing it we are extending the hand of Christian fellowship to them."

Seek to Revive Healing Ministry The Protestant Episcopal church in the United States was formally placed on record in recognition of the ministry of healing by the action of the house of bishops last night, the house of deputies already having taken action along the same line at the general convention here. The bishops' action authorizes clergy and lay members who believe they possess powers of healing, to prepare themselves "by care and prayer and theological and medical study, for their proper and safe exercise." Provision is made that wherever this ministry is specialized those who exercise it shall do so only with the written approval "after due consideration of their bishop and in sympathetic conference with qualified Christian physicians."

A commission to consider the matter of healing further was named.

UNION PACIFIC OFFICIALS INSPECT ALTON PROPERTY

Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 21.—Escorted by Chief Operating Officer A. P. Titus, Superintendent G. W. Seidel of the motive power department and Chief Engineer H. T. Douglas, a party of Union Pacific officials made an inspection of the local Chicago & Alton plant here yesterday. The visiting officials, four in number, representing the mechanical and engineering department of that company, arrived here at noon, accompanied by Mr. Titus and Mr. Douglas.

The coming of the party was unheralded and was a surprise to local officials. Nothing was given out concerning the object of the inspection, and the presence of the visitors revived rumors about the absorption of the Alton by the Union Pacific.
