THOMAS WATSON, GEORGIA SENATOR, DIES SUDDENLY

Won National Attention by Charges of Hangings in A. E. F.—Bitter Opponent of Wilson.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Another powerful and picturesque figure passed from public life in the death today of Senator Thomas E. Watson of Georgia. His death, which occurred at 2:30 this morning, was sudden and unexpected, according to physicians, resulting from an attack of asthma.

The senator has been a sufferer for several weeks from the disease and only last Sunday experienced an acute attack. Two physicians and a nurse were at the bedside when the end came but the widow, who is in ill health, and other relatives were at the home in Thomson, Ga., for which Mr. Watson had planned to depart today for the congressional recess.

Active in Politics

For 40 years Senator Watson had been active in politics, a national as well as a state figure. He was nominated by the populist party for president in 1904 after receiving its vice presidential nomination in 1896. He was a populist member of the house of representatives in 1891-1893. In 1920, he was elected senator, as he said on an "anti-Wilson, anti-league of nations and anti-war measures" platform, defeating former Senator Hoke Smith and former Governor Dorsey. He was 66 September 5, last, and his senatorial term would have expired March 3, 1927. The funeral will be held at Thomson, Ga., either next Thursday afternoon or Friday morning. Senate officials are in charge and the funeral party will leave here tomorrow at 3:15 for Thomson.

No Indication

During the first year and a half of his term in the senate, Senator Watson gave no indication of any impairment of the vigor and activity which had marked his long career in politics and as a publisher. In his last speech in the senate, delivered only a week ago last Wednesday, the Georgia senator severely criticized the administration for its course in connection with the rail strike situation. His previous attacks on the administration and most notably his charges of illegal hangings in the American expeditionary forces, the subject of exhaustive investigation by a senate committee had made him a conspicuous figure in the senate body during his brief service there.

ST. MARY'S GUILD HAS VERY PLEASANT MEETING

Miss Verna Leonard Entertains Very Charming Members of Guild at Her Home Yesterday.

The ladies of the St. Mary's Guild of St. Luke's church were very pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. V. B. Leonard with Miss Verna Leonard as hostess and from a social standpoint the meeting was one of the most delightful held for some time by the ladies.

Speaking of political conditions, the members of the guild who have been urging Mrs. W. D. Smith to accept the position of president of the society were deeply gratified at the meeting by the acceptance of the position by Mrs. Smith. To head the department of fancy work for the Christmas shop, Mrs. Frank Dunbar was named and J. A. Donelan as assistant and the work of preparing for the shop will be pushed from now until the holiday season by the ladies.

During the course of the afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Kittle C. Roberts and J. A. Donelan and Miss Dora Fricke, served very dainty and delicious refreshments.

WILL GIVE TALK ON JAPAN AND LIFE OF ITS PEOPLE

Mrs. Oscar Lowe of Lincoln, Formerly Miss Rachel Stander of Louisville, Will Speak.

On next Sunday evening at the Methodist church the Plattsmouth people will have the opportunity of hearing first hand of the life and habits of the people of Japan and the work of the Christian missionaries among the residents of the island empire.

Mrs. Oscar Lowe of Lincoln, formerly Miss Rachel Stander of Louisville, who spent two years in the missionary work in that country, will be here and tell of her experiences and observations of the Japanese and in her residence there as a missionary and teacher came in touch with the work of the Christian teachers and the people of the country.

To add interest to the lecture there will be slides shown of the scenes in the cherry blossom land and what the Christian churches are accomplishing in the way of education and training among the residents of the country.

This will be one of the best things of its kind ever offered here and one that will be interesting to the general public as well as those who have made a study of the missionary and educational work in the far east.

BRIDAL COUPLE HERE

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. G. Leslie Hall arrived in the city to spend a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam G. Stone, parents of Mrs. Hall. The young people are enjoying their honeymoon, having been married at Lincoln on Saturday afternoon, last. The bride was formerly Miss Orpha Stone and one of the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Stone, and a young lady highly esteemed by those who have the pleasure of knowing her. The groom is a son of George Hall of this city and has for the past few months been residing in Omaha. Mr. Hall was formerly in the army of occupation in Germany.

SHAYLER RETURNS FROM THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION

Bishop Finds Spirit of Revolt in Northwest Against Standpat Republican Policies.

Decided criticism of the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill prevails throughout Washington and Oregon, according to Bishop Shaylor of the Episcopal diocese of Nebraska, who has just returned from the triennial convention of the Episcopal church in Portland.

Speaking of political conditions, Bishop Shaylor said: "There is a strong tendency among progressive thinkers every where to break away from the standpat policies of the republican party. Expressions were heard everywhere that democratic successes will be prevalent in many states at the November election."

"Upon inquiry I found that Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock is held in high esteem throughout the west, and many expressed themselves as very hopeful of his re-election this fall."

Asked about striking out the word "obey" from the marriage service, Bishop Shaylor said: "We did eliminate two of those obsolete terms, 'obey' and 'with as my lordly good I thee endow.' We obtained revision and enrichment of the book of common prayer, the intention of this action being to remove obsolete expressions that are not commonly understood by the common man. It was always meant, just as the marriage ceremony is, that the husband should honor and obey according to God's holy ordinance. That does not at all mean that the wife must submit to all the whims of a husband in the little things of life. I believe in perfect equality of the man and wife in property, personal opinion and the like."

"The convention reaffirmed its stand on the divorce evil, one man for one woman until death do them part. This may work a hardship on innocent persons sometimes, but we must stand for the ideals of the home," said the bishop.

The Rev. John Albert Williams, rector of the Church of St. Philip the Deacon, was nominated by Bishop Shaylor to be elected bishop of Haiti. "The Rev. Mr. Williams had many friends in the convention, and he a capable man, but the vote finally went to a bishop of the white race, since the church in Haiti has for years been in charge of a white bishop," explained Bishop Shaylor.

Bishop Shaylor introduced into the house of deputies a prayer for adjustment of the railway men's strike.

GET OUT YOUR HORSE SHOES

Numerous inquiries have been received in the last few weeks from nearby towns asking as to the prospects for a horseshoe tournament or matches with a team from this city, and as this game seems to be one of the popular sports of the day, brings up the question, Why not have a horseshoe pitchers' team?

With the growing revival of this old sport there certainly should be some steps taken to try out the old veterans of the game as well as the younger residents of the city that have had experience with the sport. It seems to be fascinating where it has been in vogue and with our tournaments and pinchole tournaments there seems no reason why the sport of old time horseshoe pitching should not be revived. Such veterans as Leslie Niel, F. J. Warren, C. O. York are here and should form the basis of a team that could assist in the promotion of the sport, which does not require any elaborate preparations to start with. What say, you horseshoe pitchers?

OPENING DAY OF CASS COUNTY FAIR BESPEAKS SUCCESS

Large Number of Exhibits in All Lines—Ideal Weather Should Bring Large Crowds.

The Cass county fair at Weeping Water opened on Wednesday of this week with a large number of exhibits of a character which demonstrates that this county, notwithstanding the severe setback occasioned by the disastrous hail storm and the dry weather has come through with colors flying and will produce its full quota of crops.

Officials of the Cass county Fair Bureau, comprising B. Wolph, Nehawka; W. B. Banning, Union; S. S. Davis, Murray; C. E. Noyes, Louisville; Earl Towle and L. R. Snipes, Weeping Water, met at the office of the county agent on the opening day to give their attention to matters pertaining to the fair.

At the Auditorium

At the auditorium there was displayed a large number of exhibits from the different schools of the county, consisting of maps, penmanship specimens, manual training and other articles, the handwork of Cass county students. The exhibit from Manley was particularly interesting and attracted a great deal of attention as did all the other displays.

A large and interesting array of fruits and vegetables was on display, including corn, potatoes, watermelons, pumpkins, squash and an almost unlimited supply of canned and preserved fruits. In this department were displayed two stands of bees working behind glass shields. James Warga, of south of Plattsmouth, and J. R. C. Gregory provided these exhibits, which attracted much attention.

Mrs. J. A. Wilson of Murray, who has a most unique and worthwhile invention in the form of a pressure colander on which she has recently received a patent, was present demonstrating the usefulness of this article, which is now being placed on the market.

The Model Farm

A model farm has been worked out in miniature, consisting of a quarter section with the house, barn and other outbuildings all of proportionate size. To increase the educational advantage of the exhibit, the farm has been divided into different crops, raising sections to include wheat, 30 acres; oats, 20 acres; corn, 60 acres; pasture, 20 acres; sweet clover, 5 acres; alfalfa, 10 acres; timothy and clover, 15 acres. The house and outbuildings occupy a small plot.

The look of the model farm consists of eight cows, twelve head of other cattle, six work horses, one colt, twelve brood sows, fifteen head of sheep and one hundred laying hens.

Another exhibit that attracts attention is the display of fine lumber, mostly from the native grown walnut lumber, and shown by Peter Johnson, of Weeping Water.

In the culinary line there are bakery goods a plenty and some fine exhibits of the prowess of Cass county women with the kitchen range.

Better Baby Contest

At the congregational church is being held the better baby contest. This was one of the big features of the fair last year and promises to be equally as popular this year. Here is also shown the display of fancy needlework which is likewise proving very popular with the ladies.

Live Stock Exhibits

Attention of the men folks is attracted to the large tent where there are on display the swine and the barn which accommodates the cattle and horses.

In the swine department there are a large number of exhibits, including nearly every variety—large and small—and all good stuff. J. C. Gillespie has a large herd, including a black Poland China boar which will weigh about 900 pounds although only a year old. The animal stands 43 inches high, is 80 inches long and is very large boned. Schafer Bros., of west of Murray, have a herd of fine Durocs which are sure beauties, and look at them makes a person wish he was a farmer. A. H. Rauth's display consists of the Victoria breed of Big Type Poland Chinas raised on his farm near Washburn. Guy Adams and Esther Werbling, of Engle, and Elmer H. Johnson of Manley had some excellent Duroc Jersey hogs on display, which attracted the people as they passed, and are well worth stopping to look at.

C. W. Hoffman, owner of the Maple Grove farm at Alvo and C. L. Mayab, of Plattsmouth showed some excellent black Poland Chinas, one especially of Mr. Mayab's, "Omaha Queen," being an excellent individual and weighing over 700 pounds for three years old. Wm. Strabel, of Elmwood has a display of fine Duroc swine.

Norris Brothers of near Avoca are exhibiting some Oxford Down sheep that are surely beauties and could not be passed by anyone who admires this class of live stock.

Fred Caestern has four fine specimens of Short Horn cattle, while in this line Carl Way has a bull with the beam at 1,910 pounds, as well as some nice cows and calves. J. C. Rauth & Sons are among the other cattle exhibitors, their three-year-old herd bull weighing 1,700 pounds, while a senior yearling heifer, "Sultana," weight 1,000. A junior bull calf weighs 670 and another calf only eleven months old, 680. A. F. Rauth's bull calf weighed 715 and a red junior bull calf, 710. The herd bull, "Glauster," has not been over the scales lately, but is a fine, large animal. E. H. Norris has a fine roan Short Horn bull, which is classed as a senior yearling.

Poultry on Display

No fair would be complete without poultry exhibits and in this respect Weeping Water is well sup-

GIVE BIRTHDAY DANCING PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Stoehr West of City Entertain at Dancing Party Last Saturday.

The attractive country home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Stoehr in the vicinity of Cedar Creek was the scene of a very pleasant gathering on last Saturday evening in honor of the eighteenth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Miss Mildred. The anniversary was not to occur until September 25th but it was decided to have the occasion observed on Saturday to allow all the friends to attend.

There were some ninety-four in attendance and the occasion was one that will long be very delightfully remembered by all those fortunate enough to be there.

The evening was spent in dancing, the music being furnished by the father of the guest of honor with the violin and Mrs. Louis Born, an aunt, at the piano, and to this the jolly party danced to their hearts' content. In honor of the occasion, Miss Mildred received a large number of very beautiful gifts that she will treasure as remembrances of the old friends. There was a very delicious luncheon served at 11:30 at the home going hour to which all did ample justice.

Those in attendance were: Messrs. and Mesdames Clarence Busche, Philip Born, Henry Born and family, Louis Born and family, Will Hitz and family, Will Meisner and family, T. E. Todd and family, Grover Parriott and family, Philip Kehne, Henry Nolting, Fred Kehne, Jr., John Wehrlein and family, Ella, Esther and Raymond Lohnes, Fritz, Walter and Florence Fornoff, Elmer, Elmer, Otto and Ruben Meisinger, Alvin and Raymond Stull; Carl and Helen Meisinger, Edgar, Lester, Victor and Verner Meisinger; Roy, Elizabeth and Elmer Tschirren; Herman, Tommas, Louis Baumgart, Elmer Chamberlain, Chris True, Grace Norris, Edwin Dagendorfer, William Geo. and Tillie Halmes, Delta Leddy, Elmer, Clifford, Carl and Verner Stoehr, Helen Hill, Adella Tritsch, Carl Roessler, Henry Hyde, Johnnie Kaffenberger, Elmer Tritsch, Sam Rhoden.

QUEEN ESTHERS PICNIC

From Wednesday's Daily. The Queen Esther society of the Methodist church, composed of the young ladies who are members of the Sunday school class of Mrs. C. C. Wescott, accompanied by their teacher, journeyed down last evening to the vicinity of the Burlington bridge where they enjoyed a picnic party that will long be very pleasantly remembered. The time was spent in viewing the interesting sights along the river and in games until the appropriate time when the picnic luncheon was brought forth and the members of the party regaled with the good things that had been prepared for the event. It is needless to say that all of the party felt that they had one of the most delightful occasions that the class had had for some time.
