NATURELAND NEWS

Block A

"I'm going to read aloud the latest copy of 'Natureland News,' " said Witty Witch. And all the Fairies and Gnomes, Brownies and Eives, Oaf Family and Bogey Family and old Mr. Glant sat about Witty Witch's cave and listened, This is what she read.

"As the cool weather is beginning 13.80 to be felt, Mr. and Mrs. Meadowlark have decided to join the other Meadowlarks and they will all travel about together.

"During the summer Mr. and Mrs. Meadowlark have been by themselves in their own nest and have had no visitors in their part of the meadow. They have gone grasshopper hunting by themselves too and have been most successful.

"They have had insect birthday parties for each other. These parties have been given very often for they have said they thought they might as well have birthdays all the time and $ 44.58 that they were doing a good work eating the insects,

"Then," Witty Witch continued, "I see that they have discovered some-$ 24.19 thing that is going to make chestnut trees stronger-growing them in a certain fashion. Chestnut trees have had hard luck in being hit by blights and they need all the help they can get.

* 8.67 "Yes, for everyona loves chestnuts and the Grey Squirrel Family say that half or a quarter or a sixteenth at least of their interest in life is gone when there are no chestnuts in the

"This year Jack Frost expects to give his party for the Squirrels tomorrow evening. He has partly opened the great burrs which are so very prickly-but not too prickly for chestnut lovers!

"And he has ripened the nuts so they will be good to eat.

"Ah, yes, Jack Frost is sending out word that while the Squirrels are to be invited for the party tomorrow evening he will invite the children the following day. He will not be on hand, he says, but the nuts will, and that is most important of all.

"He thinks a good way for boys and girls to open chestnuts is by cracking them open with a stone, using another stone to put them on when doing this $ 54.59 so as not to get the burrs in their 92 fingers.

Amt.

17.74 "Then I also see that it is said that 7.45 the oldest chestnut tree in another part of the world is known to be over a thousand years old.

"And here is quite an interesting account in the 'Natureland News,' " Wit-38,51 11,41 ty Witch went on, "about the red of trees and plants during the spring of the year and how the red gathers more heat from the sun than any other color and that that is the way these plants and trees store up plenty of heat and strength.

"Oh, dear me," said Witty Witch, "I see here a list of the important birds flying down South soon for the winter. "Yes, here is a great list of the travelers. But I see that there is a list given too of those who are coming to spend the winter here.

"Where will be the Nuthatch Family, and the Song Sparrows and some Sea-Ducks and Loons, and the Woodpecker family. I read that they will be arriving very soon now.

"It also says in the 'Natureland News' that a good many of the birds will not leave until later, among them are Mr. and Mrs. Chippy Sparrow, 39.75 Mr. and Mrs. Vesper Sparrow, Mr. 9.14 and Mrs. Finch and Mr. and Mrs. Swamp Sparrow,

"A good many of the insect birds left as soon as Jack Frost had arrived for 59.79 his frolicsome visits.

"Well," Witty Witch added, "I think 206.08 | it is nice to hear of the different creatures traveling, for we know how much we get about and see the world and how much we enjoy it too. "And it is fun to tell you all what

"We love hearing what is in the 'Natureland News,'" all the Fairyland people said.
