Has Excellent Entertainment
The fall festival which was held at the Baptist church by the Baptist Young People and the ladies of the church was one well worth attending and was a success in every particular. A worth while program was presented which was both entertaining and instructive and the feed was more than can be told of as it had to be tasted to get the excellence of the good things which were there to eat. The ladies netted about fifty dollars for the church.

Much Politics Here Today
Union is having her share of political speeches today, there having been in the early morning R. B. Howell, who is aspiring to the U. S. senatorship, Charles H. Randall, a candidate for governor. Ships at New York Stripped of Liquor Supply—British Ships May Transfer to Canada.

New York, Oct. 10.—Every bottle of liquor on four American passenger vessels in port were removed today under orders from the shipping board so that the dry agents and customs men will have nothing to do but check the inventory and cart the wine and whisky off to the army base in Brooklyn for storage. John D. Appleby, zone dry chief, said the cooperation given by the shipping board officials under the ruling is large a quantity from the President Roosevelt. Mr. Appleby said. The stocks aboard the President Arthur and Susquehanna also were removed.

British Boats May Transfer
London, Oct. 10.—The London morning newspapers give considerable prominence today to the ruling of Attorney General Daugherty, in Washington prohibiting liquor on vessels within American waters, printing interviews with shippers, reports of the general feeling in the shipping trade, details of liquor sales aboard liners, and speculations upon changing the ruling of destination in large a quantity from the President Roosevelt. Mr. Appleby said. The stocks aboard the President Arthur and Susquehanna also were removed.

The Daily Telegraph quotes an official of the Cunard liner in Liverpool as saying the British steamship operators stand to suffer a big loss if they are unable to sell liquor aboard their vessels, and that it would be better for them to divert some ships to Halifax or other northern ports than to lose the profits from the sale of intoxicants.

NOW DOING NICELY
The latest reports from the Mercy Hospital in Chicago state that Miss Helen Egenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Egenberger, who was operated on there some time ago for an acute attack of appendicitis is doing very nicely. Miss Egenberger, with Miss Betty Ptak, is at the Mercy hospital taking nurse training and while there only a short time, Miss Helen was taken sick.

HALLOWE'EN IS TIME OF MYSTIC IMPORT

Many of Our Modern Decorations and Games Come from Centuries of Superstition.

The one season of the year that is a reminder of the mysteries and superstition of the past ages is that of Halloween with its strange combination of the observance of the early Christian holiday and the pagan superstitions and which to the present day is made an important part of the observance of this occasion on October 30th.

To celebrate the passing of Halloween and the season preceding the present day residents of the United States have called all of the mystic emblems and devices to aid in making the occasion one of marked interest.

The black cats, witches and goblins have become very popular in the decorations for Halloween and in the late years masks and caps in keeping with the strange weird ceremonies have come into use. To assist the host or hostess in the decorations for the Halloween party the Journal has arranged for a large and very handsome stock of the newest designs in caps, masks, paper streamers in orange and black, fancy crepe paper in the designs of the season and special favor holders for the Halloween luncheon as well as the ornamental napkins bearing the proper designs. There can also be found here the pumpkin lanterns and the cut-out witches and black cats that are so popular in the decorations of the season.

Remember when you are arranging for the Halloween party to call and look over the stock here to secure the best and the latest that the market affords in the fancy designs in the paper lines.

RESOLUTIONS

As we gather together at the beginning of a new year's work, it is with a consciousness of the absence of one sister, Lelia Dwyer. She has answered her Master's summons and is now "at home" with Him. She was a sister who cherished the ideals of the P. E. O. Sisterhood and exemplified them in her own life.

Being for many years a member many of us will think of her as an older sister, and we will continue to miss her as we assemble as sisters, but her home-going will bring to us no shadow.

"Shadows! No need of shadows, When at last we lay life's burdens down; Shadows! No need of shadows, When at last we gain the victor's crown."

We the members of Chapter P. of the P. E. O. Sisterhood, extend to the sorrowing family, our deepest and sincerest sympathy, and as her sisters we join with them in the cherishing of her memory.

While we would so gladly lighten the burden of their sorrow, we can only commend them to the love of the One who has "prepared a place" for her and has now "taken her unto Himself."

"She fell asleep in Jesus— Ah, slumber sweet and blest! From which her spirit wakened In His dear smile to rest! Remember ye who loved her, And oft times for her weep— All they with Christ shall rise again Who in Him 'fall asleep'."

MARGARET M'CLUSKY, ELIZABETH H. TRAVIS, HALLIE P. DOVEY, Committee.

A GOOD BOOK IS A GOOD FRIEND

There is no entertainment that offers as varied a field to the lover of literature as does a good book, and there is no gift or remembrance that serves the purpose of a masterpiece of the minds of the world.

We have the best of the fiction fields on our shelves and at the low price that brings them within the reach of all.

James Oliver Curwood, master of the literature of the northland, is here with an array of his wonderful characters in "The Courage of Marge O'Doone," "Back to God's Country," "Nomads of the North," "The Golden Snare," "The River's End and 'Isobel'" and all of these are offered at 75c each.

Among the 75c specials that the Journal book store is offering at the time are the works of Thomas Dixon, "The Clansman," "Comrades," "The Foolish Virgin," "The Fall of a Nation," "The Leopard's Spots," "The Victim," "The Traitor."

MACCABEE LADIES MEET
From Wednesday's Daily.
The ladies of the Maccabees held a very pleasant meeting last evening at their lodge rooms and which was attended by a large representation of the membership of this rapidly growing ladies' fraternity. The earlier part of the evening was taken up in the work of the lodge, there being three candidates initiated into the order and the ceremony was one of great impressiveness as the officers of the local chapter administered the work.
Following the work the members of the lodge were entertained at a social hour in visiting and a general good time and at which refreshments were served by the committee.
Charles S. Stone was in the city yesterday from Nehawka to spend a few hours looking after some matters of business.
Robert Kroehler returned to Omaha this morning to resume his work there in the Nebraska state medical college.

DE MOLAYS HOLD ELECTION
From Wednesday's Daily.
Last evening Cass chapter, Order of De Molay, held their election of officers for the ensuing term and as master councillor, Fred J. Warren was elected for his third term to this position. The other officers elected were: Raymond Rehal, senior councillor, and Otto Trilety, junior councillor. With the coming of the cooler weather the members of the chapter are planning greater activities for the season. The other officers of the chapter will be appointed later by the master councillor.

VERY PLEASANT EVENT
Yesterday afternoon the ladies of the St. Mary's Guild of the St. Luke's church were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. E. A. Bates, and who was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. T. E. Bates. The very cozy home was filled by a large number of the members of the society and the time spent in the plying of the busy needle and social conversation. At a suitable hour a very delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses and which added to the pleasures of the afternoon.
