BURLINGTON REPORTS MANY MEN WORKING Lincoln, Oct. 14.—Burlington reports of October 11, the latest at hand, show fifty more men filling shop jobs vacated by strikers than were employed on June 30, the day before the shop strike. At Havelock, 371 men are now employed in the strikers' places. The report shows that three or four old employees a day are coming back and that some of the latest additions to the shop forces are men most wanted, skilled mechanics acquainted with the work.

The Burlington has closed its eating houses at Hastings, Aurora, Red Cloud, Oxford, Brush, Denver and a few other places on the lines west. At other places it is now charging the men $1 a day for their meals. Officials of the road were surprised that they should have lost no men when the charge system was put in. It is said that not one man quit at Havelock and that the loss at all places was so small as to be insignificant. The dining rooms and kitchens at Havelock have been enlarged and made more convenient and the feeding of the men there is said to be satisfactory to all concerned.

NEHAWKA COUPLE TO OBSERVE 55TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Behrns Will Pass the Day at Their Home, Sunday, October 29th.

Nehawka, Oct. 14.—Fifty-five years ago on October 29, on a sunny autumn day, Mary Sturm and Henry Behrns were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. The happy event occurred on the old Andrew Sturm homestead a mile north of here. They immediately settled on a farm west of here, where their son Joe now lives. It was on this place that they had their joys and some hardships, too, such as are always prevalent in the life of a pioneer couple. Five children, Mrs. Alvin McKelley, Mrs. Norriston, Mrs. Von Aken, Rose and Henry Behrns blessed their life.

When asked what are the requirements for a happy married life, Grandma Behrns, now 71, who still has a twinkle in her blue eyes, replied:

"Well, we worked together. When a difficult problem came up, we talked it over. We pulled together and settled it. Of course we all have to give and take and it does seem so much easier to give than to take; but one can not always expect to have one's own way."

Grandpa Behrns at 77, is a self-possessed individual. He busies himself in his flower garden. He is an ardent lover of all nature. They are known to all the children as "Grandpa and Grandma." The youngsters in their neighborhood love to visit them—they in return are equally devoted to the wee folks. But to their patience and kindness they have won a place in the child heart of Nehawka.

And when the heavy shadows of twilight creep into the Behrns home, Grandpa and Grandma may be seen together eating their evening meal, reading or rocking silently back and forth, thanking the Almighty for his gracious goodness in permitting them to spend the days of their old age together.—Lincoln Star.

EX-CONGRESSMAN REAVIS IS COMING Will Speak in Plattsmouth on Monday Evening, Oct. 23rd, at Parmele.

Hon. C. F. Reavis will speak in Plattsmouth next Monday evening, Oct. 23, in order to accommodate as many as possible the Parmele theatre has been secured for this meeting. Mr. Reavis is one of the most able speakers of Nebraska and has represented the First district in congress for several years. Few of the representatives at the national capital are better able to discuss the political issues of the day than is Mr. Reavis. He was appointed by federal authorities to assist in prosecuting those guilty of defrauding the government during the period of the late war.

The Reavis meeting here will be the culmination of a big day's work in the interest of the candidates on the republican ticket, as it is next Monday that Walter Anderson and R. H. Thorpe, candidates for congress for the long and short terms, respectively, will make a tour of the county. They will be accompanied by the county candidates, officers of the county committee and others. A goodly number from other towns in the county have signified their intention to come to Plattsmouth to again hear Ex-Congressman Reavis.

stand against Attorney General Daugherty's government by injunction. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. was sent here by the reactionary forces to campaign for Howell, and he pleaded with the voters to support this man for United States senator. This action is entirely different than the stand the Harding administration has taken against Brookhart of Iowa.

"The reformers of the past have had sad experiences in 'Balance of Power' and 'Fusion' with the old Wall street parties and the laboring man and farmers have been defeated enough to have learned a lesson on how to vote and for whom to vote," concludes the letter.
