CHAIRMEN ALLEN SCORES LINCOLN BUSINESS MEN

Takes a Shot at McKelvie Effort to Keep Charles W. Bryan Out of the State House.

T. S. Allen, chairman of the democratic state central committee, yesterday gave out the following statement:

"My attention has been called to the dinner given Tuesday noon by Elmer Stephenson, president of the City National Bank of Lincoln to Governor McKelvie, and such eminent republican bankers as W. A. Sellick, president of the Lincoln State Bank and C. C. Carlson of the Lincoln Trust company, D. E. Thompson, H. K. Burkett, Harry Granger, Doctor Ladd, Mark Woods, C. D. Malten, E. H. P. Perry, chairman of the republicans state central committee, and others.

"I am told that Governor McKelvie expressed alarm, lest Charles W. Bryan break into the state house, and it was announced by W. A. Sellick, president of the Lincoln State bank that $25,000 must be raised at once by the big interests of Lincoln and Omaha to defeat Mr. Bryan. A collection was taken up and over $2,000 was raised.

"It is interesting to see Governor McKelvie so frantic, the bankers' plunderbund so anxious, and big business so interested as the time draws near when Mr. Bryan will be governor and relief comes from the intolerable tax burden of Governor McKelvie's administration. It will take more than a bankers' Belshazzar feast and a slush fund to convince the common tax payer that a banker should be elected governor to perpetuate the McKelvie code system with its army of tax eaters. It looks like the republican party has joined hands with big business to introduce Newberyism into the campaign."

NO CERTAINTY OF A RAILROAD MERGER

Bankers Deny Consolidation of Burlington, Great Northern and Northern Pacific Effected

New York, Oct. 19.—Representatives of banks identified with railroad interest were present at an informal conference here today of leaders in the movement to merge the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Burlington railroads into one big railroad system. A member of a prominent banking firm denied that any discussion had taken place so far on the financial problems involved in combining the three big roads.

"The merger has been under discussion for many months," he said, "but any assertion that the merger plans have been completed is without foundation. It is not so close at hand as some persons think."

Plans for the merger when completed will be presented to the interstate commerce commission at Washington, November 17. The commission has already announced tentative consolidation plans for the roads involved, but which do not meet with their approval.

Under those plans, the Great Northern would be joined with the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad and the Northern Pacific coupled with the Burlington. The promoters of the proposed three-cornered merger deny that the St. Paul system is included in their considerations.

Theodore F. Merseles of Chicago, was elected a director of the Northern Pacific railroad company's meeting yesterday to fill a vacancy.

VERY PLEASANT SHOWER FOR KATHERINE EAGAN

Last evening the home of Mrs. Ed Creamer was the scene of a very pleasant kitchen shower in honor of Miss Katherine Eagan, one of the season's brides, and a number of the close friends of the bride elect were present. Mrs. Creamer was assisted in entertaining by Misses Edith and Judith Johnson.

The evening was spent in games and musical numbers while at an appropriate hour the bride was presented with a large array of handsome and useful presents that will be cherished by her in the years to come.

At the close of the evening the guests were treated to a most dainty and delicious two-course luncheon which was most thoroughly enjoyed. Those in attendance were: Misses Katherine Eagan, Honor Seybert, Merril Berthold, Ruth Roman, Edith Kelly, Rose Schloss, Alice Johnson, Edith Johnson, Judith Johnson, Clara Koukal, Madames James Maury, John A. Koukal, Earl Newland and Ed Creamer.

IRELAND WONDERS WHO WILL SUCCEED CHURCHILL

Secretary for the Colonies of More Direct Moment Than British Premier to Ireland.

Dublin, Oct. 20.—The Irish seem to take only an academic interest in the passing of Lloyd George. In general the feeling in Ireland is that England's cabinet change will have no palpable effect on Irish relations.

What Ireland is most interested in is the personality of the man who will succeed Winston S. Churchill as secretary of the colonies. Since the Anglo-Irish peace treaty was signed, Churchill has been the connecting link between Britain and Erin, and all difficulties that arose were discussed with him.

In the south the republicans represented him as a dictator to the provisional government, but the free state officials have had no serious friction with him. In the north his dealings with the Ulster government were gratefully acknowledged by Sir James Craig, the Belfast premier.

It is regarded as important in Dublin that Churchill's successor should stand by his acts and show the same spirit in carrying on the administration of affairs affecting Ireland.

Dublin feels no apprehension of any possible danger to the treaty because of the change of governments in London.

ENDORSEMENT MISPLACED, SAYS SENATOR HITCHCOCK

Tells A. A. P. A. that he Will Vote Against Any Amendment that Weakens Volstead Act.

Kearney, Neb., Oct. 19.—United States Senator G. M. Hitchcock today told the "Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, Incorporated," that he would vote against any amendment that would weaken the Volstead prohibition enforcement act.

In a telegram addressed to the association's headquarters at Washington the senator said:

"In various newspapers I notice announcements that your association indorses me for re-election as United States senator. If you are doing this in the belief that my election would aid in amending the Volstead act you are mistaken. I shall vote against any amendment that would weaken the act, and particularly any that would permit the sale of wines and beers. I have made this pledge publicly to the people of Nebraska."

(Signed) G. M. HITCHCOCK.

William Rice and wife motored over yesterday to Weeping Water where they spent a few hours visiting with their daughter, Mrs. John Fitzpatrick and family. They report the country in need of rain with the fields very dry and dusty.

Frank M. Herold and wife, who have been here for the past few days visiting with their relatives at the A. L. Tidd and Henry Herold homes departed this morning for Lincoln, where Mrs. Herold will visit with her relatives there for a short time.

LEAGUE SOLD OUT TO 'POWERS' DE-CLARES BEEBE

Hot Time Develops at Norfolk-Townley Party "Broke" He Says—Meeting Plugged.

Norfolk, Neb., Oct. 20.—Nonpartisan league officials and adherents of H. B. Howell plugged the meeting of the progressive party which today opened its third district campaign in the Norfolk hall. The Rev. J. L. Beebe, Omaha, progressive candidate for United States senator, and John Haverkost, Hooper, Neb., candidate for congress, flayed both the republican and democratic parties, the Townley and nonpartisan league plan for balance of power, and declared the nonpartisan league was selling itself to the big political powers.

Beebe flayed the money power, made a vigorous attack on both Howell and Hitchcock, who he said were both the wettest of the wet.

He declared the nonpartisan league is "dead broke," that the New State is running in the hole and that Harry Lux, state manager of the league is long rolling for Howell, backed by Townley.

He stated the league has less than $25 in the treasury but has mysteriously secured enough money to circulate hundreds of thousands of pieces of literature.

Manager Harry Lux reached the hall before midnight and charges and denials were made on both sides.

Each side was cheered and a regular family row of friends of the nonpartisan league and the third party ticket resulted.

Manager Lux charged that Beebe unwittingly was cutting down Howell's votes by remaining in the race. Beebe charged the nonpartisan league with indorsing reactionary candidates. About 100 persons in the audience seemed bewildered at what the entire meeting was about.

"Howell is just as wet as Hitchcock," said Beebe.

W. N. Baird of Salida, Colo., came in yesterday afternoon for a short visit here with his mother, Mrs. J. T. Baird and his sisters.

NEBRASKA UNIVERSITY BOOSTS NEW STADIUM

Magnificent Structure to Cost $430,000 and Seating 40,000 Persons Planned for Uni.

The preliminary plans for the new University of Nebraska stadium have finally been completed and are now in the hands of the Nebraska stadium committee, according to a statement issued by that committee this week. The plans call for a magnificent structure which will cost $430,000 and which will have a seating capacity to begin with of 40,000 which may later be enlarged to 60,000 if the need arises. The drawings have been prepared by the firms of John Latenser & Sons of Omaha and Davis & Wilson of Lincoln, who have donated their services.

The proposed stadium will cover four square blocks and will occupy in addition to the present Nebraska field a space immediately to the north. The new field will be bounded by Tenth street on the west, Vine on the north, Twelfth on the east and T on the south. According to the committee, it should be possible to let the contract for the stadium on January 1. If present plans mature, the cornerstone will be laid on next charter day and efforts made to have the stadium completed in time for the 1923 football season. The plans call for a Roman aqueduct style of architecture in the building of the stadium. High, graceful arches will lend an atmosphere of a Caesarian arena.

But utility has not been sacrificed to atmosphere an effect in the new stadium. An indoor running track, eighteen feet wide and three laps the mile is to be sheltered by the building when completed. In addition, there are plans for indoor tennis courts, numerous indoor handball courts, shower baths, dressing rooms and rooms for both visiting and home teams.

The entire structure will be lighted with electricity and it will be possible to obtain brilliant electrical effects during pageants and other night festivities that may be staged there. There will be an outdoor running track surrounding the football gridiron. During the baseball season the field will contain an ideal baseball diamond. It is proposed to make this equipment the means for developing intramural contests of all sorts. The back of the stands, each of which will hold 20,000 spectators, will be six stories or seventy feet in height. The height of the lower circular walls on the north and south will be two stories or about thirty feet.

According to the committee, twenty-six universities and colleges are now building or have completed war memorials. Nebraska is one of the last to undertake a similar project. The campaign to raise the balance of the $420,000 for the stadium will begin October 16, Homecoming week, when every student on the campus will be asked to pledge his share toward making possible the splendid structure which will fill so great a need in Nebraska.

BALANCE IN GASOLINE

MILE-AGE

HERE are some ways to get the most mileage and economy from your car:

Have your carburetor adjusted so that you will get a lean mixture. You don't need a rich mixture of Red Crown even in cold weather.

Do not idle the motor for long periods to keep it warm. Red Crown Gasoline is quick-starting and you won't drain out the battery by any reasonable number of stops and starts per day.

Get into high gear as soon as possible after the car has been started. Habitually running 50 or 100 feet in "first" and "second" is a needless waste of gasoline.

Coast down the hills except when using the motor as an auxiliary braking power.

You will always get full measure and prompt courteous service from a dealer displaying the Red Crown Sign. He stands behind Red Crown Gasoline and Polarine and we stand behind him. They must be dependable!
