WITH THINE ADVERSARY

Agree with thine adversary quickly, whilts thou art in the way with him.—Matthew v. 25.

Turkeys will soon begin to roost high. Thanksgiving only five weeks away.

The footpad we still have with us; also a supply of flivverpads and their regular motordraps.

Some commit a crime in fear and trembling, while others buy a saxophone with joy and gladness.

Was the Standard Oil company in the habit of cutting any 200 per cent. meters before the trust was busted.

Tax receipts are the all-absorbing subject nowadays. Keep them in your pockets and refer to them occasionally.

The cars that come from the Ford plant seem to run pretty well, but the rumors that emanate from up there make more speed.

It is really wonderful the way the farmers turn out to hear Senator Hitchcock and Charles Bryan. Great crowds greet them everywhere.

Senator Banning should be elected. His reputation, and his influence is very greatly felt in the U. S. senate. He is always alive to the interests of the people of Nebraska.

The uncertain date of the British elections is one feature of their system Americans cannot understand. How can parliament tell when to start in making stump speeches?

Household suggestion from the Atchison Globe: "It is a good idea to have a dictionary about the house. It will settle many a dispute and convert an ordinary chair into a high chair."

That was a wonderful meeting at the auditorium in Omaha Monday night, crowded to the dome, and many could not get any nearer than the entrance. McAdoo made a great speech.

They are still trying to beat trains to the railroad crossings, and the autos always get the worst of it. Not a day passes but what people are killed in trying to beat trains to the crossings.

Generally speaking, a literary critic is a man who is qualified to speak for the public on book matters by virtue of having read the first, tenth and last chapters of more books than the average man in the street.

Men who speak of business as being heartless—strong taking from the weak—know little of the business of making a newspaper. It is essentially a business of faith and mutual trust. No man makes a success in it without, at some time, becoming richly indebted to the helpfulness of older and more experienced men, and no man can get far on the road to success without the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens.

THE CANDIDATE

The candidate sings loud and long Of how he loves the nation. But what the singer really loves Is more than the nomination.

A woman may love the hair on your head, but not the one on your shoulder.

Men running for office are nice to women. Most women control a vote and a voter.

Too many people's idea of a good time is too many people's idea of a wicked time.

Some thief stole a famous Scotch comedian's golf clothes. Doctors say he will recover.

The election will soon be over and the people will rest in peace for another two years.

A statesman's idea of a thin time is to visit in a town where nobody knows who he is.

Mirrors take the conceit out of sensible people and put the conceit into foolish people.

Now is the time to let your whiskers grow as preparedness against Christmas neckties.

Only a few more weeks in which to do something to be thankful for this Thanksgiving.

The depth of despair—Texas oil driller says he went down 28,000 feet without success.

Only safe place for a speeder is the Sahara desert, where roads are wide as they are long.

Smyrna is said to be the birthplace of bridge whist, but that isn't why the town was buried.

John H. Morehead will be a great credit to the people of the First district in congress. You all know he made a popular governor, because he went for matters that were in the interests of the people, and he will do the same as a member of congress.

It is the easiest thing in the world to underestimate the work of a conscientious school teacher. Like potter's clay, the plastic minds of children can be shaped, unconsciously perhaps, to reflect for life the traits of those who had their early training in charge.

Senator Banning should be elected, because he is a man among men. No man in Nebraska wielded a greater influence in both the terms he served, and he will do his duty as he did then. It is a great thing to have a man of his ability and reputation in the state senate.

Billy Puls is making a thorough canvass of the county, and is meeting up with many republicans who will vote for him for representative. He is honest and will give honest service to the people of Cass county. He has the experience of one term in that body and he made a good record.

The merchants of Plattsmouth have surpassed all former efforts to please their patrons this year. The stocks of autumn and winter goods are unusually large and well-chosen and the prices are reasonable, in fact you can't do better anywhere than right in your own home town when it comes to trading.

Football as a smaller boy's game was practically unthought of a few years ago but now every normal boy living in the cities where football can be seen has dreams of some day playing the game and begins playing it after a fashion almost as soon as he enters school. The result should be that practically all of the boys of today will be physically fit.

MOREHEAD FOR CONGRESS

Four years as governor of Nebraska has fitted John H. Morehead to represent the First district in congress. It has given him a grasp on public questions that can be gained only through years of public experience, and the public can profit by electing him to congress now.

The cost of operating the state government during Governor Morehead's term, as compared with the present cost, is a reflection of his ability to serve the people in a business way. Here is the way the appropriations compare:

1913-14, under Morehead	$8,155,077
1915-16, under Morehead	7,273,701
Total, 4 year period	$15,428,701
And here are the appropriations for the past four years:
1919-20	$20,018,795
1921-22	30,271,533
Total, four year period	$50,290,328
Total under Morehead	$15,428,778
Increase past four years over Governor Morehead's four years	$34,861,550

And while the increase alone for the past four years is more than twice what the total appropriations were under Governor Morehead's entire term, it should be noted that at the beginning of his second term in 1915 there was a reduction in appropriations by the legislature of nearly a million dollars, this being the first and only reduction of any importance during the entire history of the state. And this reduction in appropriations was reflected in a corresponding reduction in state taxes when the levy was made in 1915.

Affairs at Washington make a revision just as much as do affairs in Nebraska. In 1916, before the war, there was a total of 438,000 employees on the federal payroll. This number has been increased to 560,000 at the present time, exclusive of those engaged in after war work. Congress must take a hand in making a revision, and John H. Morehead's experience in handling state affairs demonstrates that he has the qualifications to aid in making a revision at Washington.—World-Herald.

THE GREATER LOVE

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

So said John, and ever since man has glorified the hero who sacrificed his own life for another. History is full of examples, and peace as well as war shows many heroes. Sometimes the hero is not even a man, or a human being, but a humble animal; a dog, perhaps, whose love of his master is greater than his love of life.

A dog, so say the scientists, has only instinct. A dog, say the wise men does not think or reason; he does but react to his environment. Doubtless they know, but if a dog does not think or reason, what holds a dog to his master's side in the face of certain and painful death?

Trapped in the plant of the Long Island Waste company, John Bracken, watchman, died from fire and smoke. By his side died his bull pup. When they were found, after the smoke and flame had stilled the dog's barks for help, he was not at the barred door, or at the blocked window; he was found with his head upon his dead master. To make this true story the better one, let it be chronicled that John Derrick, friend, was so severely burned in a futile effort to rescue man and dog that he too, may die.

Probably dogs do not reason or think; the scientists are usually right. Probably John Derrick didn't think of anything but his love for his friends when he fought for their lives. Would that more of us could learn the lesson of brotherhood as these have learned it, man and dog. Perhaps the little hero pup did not die in vain, if his selfless heroism brings home to us who read, the lesson which John read to us so many years ago.

A New York man has been fined $5 for a remark he made on the street one day in reference to a young woman when a strong wind was blowing. We can't imagine what the remark could have been to displease the young woman, so, unless, perchance, she happened to be one of those who wore 'em long when the style was to wear 'em short.

Representative Fordney, one of the authors of the Fordney-McCumber tariff, said in Chicago, the other day in an address to manufacturers: "Any merchant who will state to the public that he is compelled to advance the price of his goods because of the increase duty provided in the new act (the Fordney-McCumber tariff) is dishonest and untruthful."

ALVO DEPARTMENT

Mrs. John Murty was in Lincoln Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Hillis of Syracuse spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dinges.

Pull bloated Barred Rock cackles, $1.50; pullets $1.00.—Mrs. Will Copple, Alvo, Neb. O15-Saw

Mrs. Arthur Dinges spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bray at Syracuse last week.

Miss Ruth Sutton went to Lincoln Friday to visit her sister, Miss Irene Sutton, who is convalescing at the hospital and expects to be home soon.

C. H. Godbey, of Mitchell, Neb., spent a couple of days with his brother, Charles Godbey and family. This was his first visit here in forty years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Havelock came in on No. 38 last Saturday to visit their mother, Mrs. G. F. Kahlor and sister, Mrs. Elbert Taylor and Mr. Taylor.

A number of political candidates have been in Alvo this week leaving cards, pictures and creeds and some have spoken to the small crowds assembled to hear them.

Mr. Frank Sherman Wolfe and Mrs. Mary Skinner entertained at an oyster stew Tuesday evening at the latter's home in honor of her son, John's birthday. A very pleasant evening was spent.

Deputy Grand Master D. L. Devall of the A. O. U. W. of Nebraska and Philip Mauer, of Shelton, came on Monday evening on their way to Peru, Neb., where Mr. Devall will look after Workmen interests. They were present at a meeting of Alvo lodge No. 310 Monday evening when two new members were initiated. They left Tuesday forenoon for Peru.

School Notes

On Saturday night occurred the annual Freshman initiation.

Our basket ball goals are in place and we hope to begin practice soon.

The first grade pupils are taking great interest in their new readers.

Miss Dorothy Jackson, eighth grade student, is absent today, going to Lincoln for a music lesson.

The seventh and eighth grades are taking hand work this (Friday) afternoon, weaving baskets and making snap shot books.

We regret very much the crowded condition of the 5th and 6th grade room and hope the Board of Education will soon be able to solve the problem.

The five pupils in the 4th grade who received the highest grades for the first six weeks are Graie Frolich, Douglas Stevens, Clarence Frolich, Doris Kinney and Pearl Cozman. The two pupils in the 3rd grade were Mildred Sogard and Vernon Coon.

The Alvo Parent-Teachers' association was organized Wednesday night. The following officers were secretary: Mrs. Wentz, the state president; Mrs. Ahrends, president; Mrs. Ganz, vice president; Mr. Keefe, treasurer and W. W. Cozman, secretary. Mrs. Wentz, the state president was present and gave us much help along the line of work done by other associations.

M. E. Church Notes

Two services in the Alvo community M. E. church every Sunday. Hurry up, now!

Some one is asking: "What can the Sunday school do to rally all the pupils for a regular attendance?"

The S. S. class of Sister Edwards presented the church with a large portrait of "Jesus." Fine! Thank you!

The regular official board meeting will be held at the parsonage on Monday, November 6th, at 7:30 p. m. Members will please be there.

The Prayer meeting is still growing in interest and we have room for one more. Is that one you? Study

Eph. 4th chapter. Bring your Bibles with you.

Our Sunday morning service was somewhat irregular and the attendance was not very good, but the little rain was a much needed blessing. However, the evening service was well attended. It was gratifying to meet such a fine audience.

The Musical to be given by the church choir will be postponed for two weeks on account of the revival meetings in progress now at "The Brethren church." This will give a better opportunity for a fine program by that time. Sister Nickel is chorister.

Do you read the Central Christian Advocate? Why not this church have it read in every family of the entire church? Next Sunday we want as many as fifty subscriptions at $2 per year. This is a splendid weekly magazine worthy to be found in every Methodist home. May you be a subscriber this year.

The W. H. M. society will have charge of the evening service next Sunday, November 5th. They are working hard to put on a good program. The same program was put on in the Pittsburgh conference just a few days ago. Everybody is invited to attend this service. Mrs. Coon is directing the work.

The church-going habit largely depends on the value of the service instead of a personal duty so we think. At least we are trying to make every service one of mutual benefit to both the pupil and the pew. So friends, do your best to boost for your church and your Christ as well as your town and your country.

Sorry to have so many people miss that excellent program of our district superintendent, Mr. Clemens, which was given at Waverly on last Thursday. Nearly all the pastors of the Lincoln district were in attendance. This is characteristic of Brother Clemens. May we look forward to a date when we may hold another such convention.

A Remarkable Record

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for colds, croup and whooping cough for almost half a century and has constantly grown in favor and popularity as its good qualities became better known. It is the standard and most reliable for these diseases in thousands of homes. The facts that it can always be depended upon and is safe and pleasant to take are greatly in its favor when it is wanted for children. Weyrich & Hadraba.

ACCORDED NOISY RECEPTION

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening a large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walling, Jr., decided to give the newly weds a fitting reception on their return home from their honeymoon, the greater part of which they have spent on an auto tour, and accordingly they made a visit to the Mike Bajek home where Mr. and Mrs. Walling are staying and for a few minutes made enough noise to waken the dead. The friends were afterwards entertained by the bride and groom at the Morgan Sweet Shop to a treat.
