HOPE FOR THE WICKED

If the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.—Ezekiel xviii, 21.

"The sultan and Senator Newberry have resigned."

A soft drink turneth away wrath, but not where the voters are "wet."

What the automobile needs is fewer miles per hour and more per gallon.

Fortunately the 18th amendment does not prohibit football with a kick in it.

The only sure way to become wealthy is to quit wishing you were and work harder.

Self determination is a much safer tonic when mixed with equal parts of self control.

The coal companies seem still hopeful of educating the American people to accept a piece at any price.

It must be awful to be a highbrow and keep forever on one's guard to avoid seeming interest in anything.

Those who think America can prevent massacres in Turkey forget that we can't even prevent massacres in Illinois.

Russia wants a voice at the Lausanne conference, but everything seems to show there are too many voices there now.

Let every football collegian remember that after he gets through playing with his feet he may need his head to fall back on.

Turkey, it is reported from Lausanne, wants to make a treaty with the United States. How much does she want to borrow?

It's only a question of time until the really modern office will employ some one to take care of the telephone calls for the office girl.

Statistics show that 4,353 were killed by gas last year. Sixteen inhaled it, 43 threw lighted matches in it, and 4,300 stepped on it.

When the unspeakable Turk meets the unpronounceable Greek, the thoughts they think would not look nice in a Sunday school lesson.

How to torture your wife: Let it be hinted around the household that you are considering giving her a complete set of O. Henry for Christmas.

The makers of "compacts" have figured out that the women use five times as much powder as rouge. Science reaches some surprising conclusions some times.

The man or woman who successfully dodges automobiles ought to be able to do the same with the income tax collector. Agility is required for these outdoor and indoor sports.

No suggestions for the pre-Yuletide torture of husbands will be considered by this department. Any suggestion on that topic to the artistic sex would be superfluous, if not indeed fatuous.

There are many curious things in this life. It is all very well to learn something each day, but it is also well to forget a lot. Our "forgettery" is a mighty good thing to have around sometimes.

Weather is the most popular conversational topic in the world, always was and probably always will be. In the first chapter of Genesis, the weather report was not omitted first in the radio reports.

France and America, the two liberty-lovingest nations among the great powers, have always maintained a sort of telepathetic sympathy. Their longings and tribulations have been exchanged mysteriously but undeniably, since the two revelations—by radio, you might say. The radio is still working, no doubt, with Clemenceau acting as a "loud speaker."

Journal want ads pay. Try them.

Twenty days until Christmas.

Don't forget the poor on Christmas day.

A week from tomorrow is Bargain Wednesday.

Where there's a will there's usually an inheritance tax.

The third party movement so far has failed to materialize.

Too many people are discussing religion instead of trying it.

Christmas comes but once a year, so help everybody to be of good cheer.

The bad thing about steam heat is that you can't light your pipe at the radiator.

Many a married man stays at home at night because he has the house all to himself.

The well to do can take care of themselves but what about the poor on Christmas?

A great opportunity is awaiting some one who can invent a typewriter that can spell.

Congress is up to its eyes with ship subsidy and yet the bill hasn't passed the senate.

Just when women were doing nicely in politics some one springs the report it makes them fat.

Did you ever give your waste basket credit for relieving you of a lot of petty nuisances of life?

What makes the cartoonists all think the dog gets the turkey bones the day after Thanksgiving?

Lenine is reported better, but he's naturally a little weak from the number of times he has died.

If a man is industrious and frugal he may acquire considerable money—without knowing much else.

The people of western Thrace are acting as though they had lost confidence in the Lausanne conference.

Decide what you want and do your Christmas shopping early—it will save the clerks a great deal of trouble.

We shudder to think of the comment that would be made on the official acts of an American named Bonar.

A Chicago girl is going to sue a barber who in bobbing her hair cut it unevenly. We suspect that the barber will be able to show at the trial that the girl was fidgety and would not hold her head still.

An Englishman says we shouldn't kick about our income tax because it is so much lighter than the English one. That's like telling a hungry kid to think about all the poor little beggar boys.

The policy of taking reckless motorists through hospitals to be shown the results of their own work, while it has its limitations, is an idea that might be elaborated with benefit. For instance, why not let proprietors of slippery-stool restaurants drop in and eat a piece of their own pie?

"The women in this town do their Christmas shopping early all right, all right," a tired clerk said yesterday as she wearily straightened out bolts of cloth and put them back on the shelves. "What they need now is to be educated up to buying before the afternoon of the last day."

A careless eastern autoist crashed into another car (no one hurt fortunately) and in sixty-five minutes thereafter began serving his 30-day sentence for reckless driving. As the judge who imposed the penalty said, swift justice means slow and careful driving. How long does the court take in your town?

"Men like happy women," says a writer, explaining that women who wish to hold their husbands should always present an appearance of happiness. Men can help out this ideal situation occasionally, too, by permitting themselves to get caught at something. Women are never so happy as when they think they have caught their husbands at something.

CENSORED PICTURES

The people do not always agree with the lawmakers. In Massachusetts the legislature passed an act providing for censorship of movies. The people, in a referendum, vote 545,919 against censorship, and only 207,476 for, a majority of 338,443 against.

The vote against censorship, by the way, was greater than cast for any candidate for any office on any ticket during the general elections held in Massachusetts at the same time.

The moving picture industry is elated at the referendum that knocked out movie censorship in Massachusetts.

The wiser among the movie makers probably recognize that this referendum is a challenge to them, the people putting it squarely up to the movie magnates to provide clean pictures.

If they neglect their obvious public duty and fail to make good on their responsibility, the reaction will come in another referendum reversing the 1922 vote.

When the people vote against un-American censorship, they are not voting for abandon—for films unfit for children and easily swayed moral weaklings among grown ups.

INCOME SHORTAGE

Income and profit taxes paid to Uncle Sam from July 1 to November 11 total only $374 for each $690 received during the corresponding period a year ago.

The complete figures, if you want them, are $274,345,601 against $690,298,336.

However, you have not heard that congress has been spending only $374 for each $690 spent a year ago. Congress may have an attack of heart failure when it balances the books at the end of the present fiscal year.

Mrs. H. H. Planck was visiting for a few days during the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dysart.

Mrs. Lillian Sheffield was a visitor in Omaha last Friday for a short time making the trip via the bus line.

Miss Leona Almond of Nebraska City was a guest at the home of her friend, Miss Margaret Garrios for the past week.

Mrs. A. L. Becker and daughters, Misses Mary and Ethel were visiting with friends in Nebraska City last Saturday afternoon.

Orville Hathaway and sister, Miss Eva, were visiting at Omaha and Plattsmouth last Wednesday, making the trip in their auto.

Mrs. Nettie Stanton was a visitor in Omaha last week from Thursday until Saturday and was a guest of her sister, Miss Mary E. Foster.

Misses Dorothy and Louise Foster were spending Thanksgiving at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Larson of Plattsmouth.

D. C. West of Nehawka where he is the banker, was a visitor in Union between trains here last Monday while on his way to Omaha on business.

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor and Daniel Lynn were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Friday making the trip in Mr. Taylor's auto.

If you never saw a real English lord—don't fail to see Lord John Matthews of Lynnwood Hall, England in "Putting it up to Patty" at the M. W. A. Hall, Dec. 9th.

Messrs. Raymond Dye, Harley Morton and Leo Roddy were visiting in Plattsmouth last Monday, where they were looking after some business matters for a few hours.

W. B. Banning has been in Lincoln most of the week where he has been looking after some matters of public interest and also having some business of his own to look after as well.

Henry H. Becker shelled corn last Monday for Ern Carroll which was delivered to the Union elevators. He also shelled during the week for Rue Frans, David Kendall and Mrs. Fletcher.

Mrs. B. G. Watkins living north of Nehawka was a visitor a short time last Friday evening at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, they entertaining this excellent lady at a six o'clock.

Mrs. J. E. M. Carroll and daughter, Annie, and Mrs. Kate McCarroll and daughter Miss Katherine were visiting in Nebraska City last Saturday afternoon and also looking after some trading as well.

"Nobody ever feels sorry for Hillman, but Hilda."—Wonder why? Very interesting when you see them Saturday night at the M. W. A. hall, Union, December 9th, 8 p. m.

Mr. L. B. Porter who was for a time the faithful keeper of the peace in the shape of city marshal, has resigned his position which has been accepted by Mr. Jay Austin, who we are sure will also make an excellent officer.

A. L. Becker who knows says that he "has the best shoes," which he has just received during the past week from the east that are shown in Nebraska and also that they are beating the work for prices when the goods are considered.

Miss Fern Derriner, who suffered a fracture of one of the bones of her right arm on account of the kick of a vicious Ford, is getting along nicely now, but while the member is still giving some trouble she is well on the way to recovery.

Mr. J. E. Moore and family were enjoying a visit at the home of Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. Nancy Moore of Marysville, Mo., and also at the home of Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson of Barnard, Mo., and having a very pleasant Thanksgiving day.

There was a school during last Friday following Thanksgiving day which enabled the members of the faculty of the Union schools to visit their homes and enjoy a short vacation. This they all did and after the enjoyment of the short vacation returned to their work with added interest in the welfare of the students.

Last Monday evening after the work of the day had been completed the teachers of the Union schools held their weekly meeting, devising plans for the betterment of the school which it already at this time making excellent progress in the teaching of the large number of pupils which are members of this school.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church at Union will have a chicken pie supper also a bazaar in the M. W. A. hall on Thursday afternoon and evening, Dec. 14th with the following menu: chicken pie, mashed potatoes, salads, cranberries, rolls, butter, pickles, coffee, cake ice cream. Price, 35 cents. Everybody welcome.

Miss Elsie Taylor who has been visiting in the west and was for some time at Lea Malines, writes from there that she will shortly proceed to Long Beach where she will visit for some time before returning home.

Miss Elsie did not like the country at Lea Malines which is north of San Francisco as it was cold and damp there most of the time.

While the larger papers of the state are reporting more cars for slipping down the elevators at Union are finding them pretty scarce just at this time. The manager of the Farmers' elevator says he could just at this time ship some 60,000 bushels of corn if he were able to get the cars but no cars seem to be coming this way in large bunches.

F. H. McCarthy, manager of the elevator of the enterprising firm of McCarthy & Sturm is putting out some very nice calendars which is a fine advertisement for his elevator and also a help to those who wish to keep track of the expenditures and facts related to the making of their income tax report. Better get yours before they are all gone.

"Putting it up to Patty" That is the play which the Epworth League has been getting in condition to present to the public and which will be held on Saturday evening of this week. This is a play full of color and life and the cast which has gotten hold of the true sense and humor of the play will give all who attend an evening filled with mirth and laughter as well as some very worth while character delineations. Better make a date to be at this play.

Dined at Copenhagen's Last Sunday a number of the relatives and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Copenhagen, where is a home with truly Virginia hospitality and on which they place a good deal of satisfaction in this being, where they had a most palatial dinner. The dinner which was served was one fit for anyone. Those present and enjoying the occasion besides the hosts were W. H. Porter and daughter, Miss Leatha and Chas. Swan and wife.
