afford to miss the Sunday evening visit in the neighborhood, for if he did there would be two lonely people—he and the other one.

Dr. W. F. Ruce, who has been spending some time in Norfolk, Tilden, Fremont and Omaha for the past few weeks, returned to Union last week, and after the respite has taken up his practice again and is ready for all work, which he has heretofore made a specialty of. See his ad in another column of this paper.

Elect Two New Directors

The stockholders meeting of the Farmers' Elevator company of Union met last week at the Becker hall where they looked after the business which the closing of the year brought to them and with other things elected two new directors for the coming year, they being L. G. Todd and H. E. Warden.

Gave Minister Reception

Last Friday the members of the Methodist church and friends called upon the parsonage and greeted Rev. and Mrs. George Walsh with a most friendly reception when they also gave the minister and his good wife some substantial evidence of their appreciation of them as co-workers in the church in the way of gifts which go to lighten the burden of life. The evening was spent in a most pleasant manner, all declaring the minister and wife being most accomplished entertainers as well as church workers.

A New Enterprise

Frank Bauer, who is ever looking after the interests of Union and at all times on the job at that, has associated with him Mr. J. W. Simmons, they operating a picture show in the Woodmen hall, in this issue see their ad for a show which is to be on this Saturday evening. In the ventures which they have engaged in in the past they found it profitable and a very responsive appreciation by the public. Watch their ad for announcement for worth while entertainments for the people of Union and vicinity.

Union School Notes

The school has eleven new Victor records.

The school now has a sanitary drinking fountain.

Leora Paris from Murray visited the high school Friday.

Mr. Banning talked to the high school Friday afternoon.

The tenth grade Geometry class is studying problems in construction.

Rev. Wash visited the school on Thursday and talked in the various rooms.

Myrtle Wash and Beulah Clark were absent one day on account of illness.

The pupils of the primary room show much improvement in their writing.

A new pupil, Minnie Yost, makes a total of thirty-six scholars in the intermediate room.

The class in second year Latin has started to translate Book II in Caesar's Commentaries.

The third grade are completing their Eskimo type study and will make the Eskimo sand table scene next week.

The Home Economics class is studying Cream Soups at present. These recipes are also used in hot lunch work.

Pupils and teachers returned from their vacation and are again at their work and the same interest is manifested as usual.

The hot lunch work has progressed for about two weeks. During that time 197 servings have been given with a total cost of $4.94.

The sewing class is working on a very simple pattern of an apron and cap. These are to be used in the Foods laboratory when finished.

The class in Agriculture have finished work in their regular text books. Time left in this semester will be spent in supplementary and review work.

A short time ago the American Literature class composed of the tenth and twelfth grades, held a contest to see which class could reproduce the quotations learned this year with the least number of errors. The Seniors won.

Members of the tenth English class have been interested the last few days in oral book reports. A book report has been prepared by each pupil and orally before the class he discusses the author's life, plot, climax, date of story and other important points.

The Junior class held a meeting Friday evening at which they decided upon their play, "Ruth in a Rough." This is full of interest and action. The parts have been sent for and work will begin in earnest after the semester examinations.

MONTANA GOVERNOR MAY SUCCEED FALL

Washington, Jan. 7. — Governor Joseph M. Dixon of Montana is being seriously considered by President Harding for secretary of the interior to succeed Mr. Fall, who has resigned and will retire from office March 4.

The governor has served in both the house and the senate from Montana and has been prominent politically for years. He is a Roosevelt republican, having served as chairman of the progressive national committee in 1912. He was delegate-at-large from Montana to the republican national conventions in 1904 and 1916 and is now serving as governor of Montana for the four year term beginning in 1921.

NEW SENATE BILL DRIVES AT SALARIES OF OFFICIALS

Provides for Reduction in Pay of the Governor, Judges and Other Officers of the State.

Lincoln, Jan. 9.—The supreme court, representing the supreme judicial arm of the state governmental authority; the governor, representing the supreme executive authority, and the provisions of the constitution, specifying that only the governor may call a special session of the legislature, would all be made subservient to the legislative power, if a salary bill introduced in the senate today by Senator Rickard of Guide Rock, were enacted into law.

The bill provides for the reduction of the salaries of the governor, the chief justice and associate justices of the supreme court, all district judges and for the raising of the salary of the lieutenant governor to $1,000 a year. The governor would be reduced from $7,500 to $5,000; the justices of the supreme court from $7,500 to $4,500 and district judges and all other constitutional officers to $3,000.

The bill also provides that in case it were enacted into law and declared unconstitutional by the supreme court, the governor should be required to call a special session of the legislature for the purpose of investigating the reasons upon which the court would base its decision, and that, in case the governor should refuse to call the session, the legislature should convene on its own call, without the convocation of the chief executive as provided by the constitution.

Former Lieutenant Governor Barrow's old controversy with Governor McKelvie over the salary which he says he is entitled to receive in compensation for the time he spent as acting governor while the governor was out of the state, is also anticipated in the bill which provides that the lieutenant governor shall receive a salary of $10 a day whenever he is acting governor.

Another bill, introduced by Senator Robbins of Douglas county, would give the right to sue for damages for injuries suffered through the illegal sale of intoxicating liquor. The suit would be brought against the bootlegger who sold the liquor.

Another attack was made upon salaries in a bill introduced by Senator Wiltse of Falls City. He asks that the governor's salary be reduced to $6,000, that of justices of the supreme court to $5,500 and that of district judges to $4,000.

All amusement proprietors would be taxed through the provisions of a bill introduced by Representative Miner of Buffalo. The bill gives cities the second class to place a tax on all places of amusement and to "regulate and control" such places. This applies to all such places within one mile of the corporate limits of the cities.

WAGES WILL BE THE SAME

The board of county commissioners has decided that the rate of pay for road work this coming year will remain the same as it has in the past year and no cut in the rate of pay, which has been very reasonable, will be made. Overseers and the men doing dragging or other lines of work necessary to the maintaining of the excellent highways of the county have been receiving the best wages possible and have given the best of service and this decision not to make a slash in wages that might injure the efficiency of the road work is a good move on the part of the commissioners.

FATHER SHINE IS NAMED AS OFFICER

Elected as Vice President of State Historical Society in Which He Has Been Very Active.

Lincoln, Jan. 9.—Officers elected at the annual meeting of the Nebraska State Historical society here today were: President, Dr. H. B. Lowrey, Lincoln; second vice president, Michael Shine, Plattsmouth; treasurer, D. L. Love, Lincoln; board of directors: N. X. Snell and W. E. Hardy, Lincoln, James F. Hansen, Fremont.

Josiah Miner of Friend presented the society with a model log cabin miniature dimensions, made of walnut trees which he planted on his homestead nine miles southwest of Friend in 1872. He has offered to furnish walnut logs for the construction of a log cabin like the first ones in Nebraska as a memorial to Nebraska's pioneer days.

The most important of the historic sites to be marked is Fort Atkinson in Washington county, site of the first steamboat landing, first manufacturing, first school and first library in Nebraska. Henry Rohrer of Fort Calhoun announced $1,000 was now in bank for the construction of the memorial.

Some money has also been raised for the erection of monuments at Fort Kearney and Massacre canyon in Hitchcock county.

CAPPER IS FOR THE NEW PARLEY

World Economic Conference Urged By Kansas Senator—Declares Would Help Agriculture.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The administration was urged to call a world economic conference by Senator Capper, Kansas, in a speech in the senate today.

Capper declared such a conference would solve the economic problems of agriculture and other industries throughout the world and tend to stabilize prices. He presented petitions from half a dozen agriculture livestock organizations urging passage of the Borah economic conference proposal.

The Hughes plan for debt settlement, which is understood to have been forwarded to France by Secretary of State Hughes, also was sanctioned by Capper.

"The United States, in a world-wide economic conference, should be the most powerful influence for world-wide and especially European disarmament," Capper said.

METHODIST AID SOCIETY
The Methodist aid society will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon with Mesdames A. R. Noble, C. L. Beal, Frank R. Gobel, E. G. Shallenberger, Charles Carlson and George B. Mann as hostesses. Searl S. Davis will give a book review at 4:10 on "One of Ours," and for this feature the members of the high school have been invited to attend. The general public is also invited to be in attendance.

Mrs. J. H. Donnelly returned this afternoon to Omaha after a short visit here with her old time friends.

FUNERAL OF MRS. KNEE YESTERDAY

Held at Methodist Church and Very Largely Attended by the Old Friends of the Family.

From Wednesday's Daily.
Yesterday afternoon the funeral of the late Mrs. A. H. Knee was held at the Methodist church where in the years past she had so often worshipped and to pay tribute to her memory there was a large number of the friends present.

The Rev. Frank E. Pfontz, pastor of the church, conducted the services and spoke briefly of the life and work of Mrs. Knee and gave a pleasing tribute to her memory.

During the services a quartet composed of Jesse Perry, Don C. York, Mrs. E. H. Westcott and Mrs. Charles Schutz gave two numbers which had been often requested by the departed lady, "Shall We Gather at the River" and "Rock of Ages."

At the conclusion of the church services the body was conveyed to Oak Hill cemetery where it was laid to the last long rest, the pall bearers selected were from among the old friends, being: George Winscot, J. W. Crabill, Fred Heibel, C. C. Westcott, J. E. Wiles and Isaac Cecil.

CARD OF THANKS
We desire to express our appreciation of the many kindly acts and sympathy shown by the old friends in Plattsmouth at the time of the death of our dear mother, grandmother and sister, Mrs. A. H. Knee, and especially do we wish to thank those who assisted at the funeral.—The Family.

C. E. Butler of Weeping Water, one of the leading residents of that city, was here today attending to some business matters and visiting with friends.

Kelly Rhoden of Murray was among the visitors at the court house yesterday to look after some matters of importance for a few hours.

George Smith, one of the residents of Rock Bluffs, was here today looking after some matters of business.
