Will Have Sale Soon

Harry Knabe, who is a real breeder of real genuine swine, the Hampshires, will in a few weeks put on a sale of this excellent variety of hogs. Harry has made a success of the pure bred hog business and others can do the same. Watch for the announcement of the sale which will be held in the near future.

School Notes

The town basketball team is practicing for their game with the high school which will be played on the 19th. They will give the high school a hard game.

The grade children through the 6th-8th grades are organizing teams for basketball, both boys and girls. Miss Scott and Miss Steinmeyer are taking charge of the girls while Mr. E. C. Pollard is giving the boys some practice.

The Nehawka school put on a moving picture show Tuesday, January 16, for the purpose of raising money to purchase some new books. The title of the picture was "Treasure Island," and which proved very interesting to both the children and old folks. The funny was a kid picture entitled "Kids is Kids."

The Parent-Teachers' meeting was held at the school house January 9, having been postponed from the 2nd. Miss Wright lead the meeting in the absence of the president and read a paper for Mrs. E. M. Pollard who could not be present. Miss Scott read a paper and several numbers were given by the Nehawka orchestra. The remainder of the evening was given over to a social time and refreshments were served by the hosts who were Mr. and Mrs. William Stoll, Mr. and Mrs. J. Knabe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Troy Shrader.

LOCAL NEWS

From Monday's Daily
Charles S. Stone of Nehawka was here Saturday afternoon visiting with his many friends.

Robert Shrader of near Murray was among the visitors in the city today for a few hours looking after some trading with the merchants.

T. H. Pollock and wife departed this morning for California where they will visit for a few months, enjoying the sights of the coast country.

Carl Ohlslager, wife and little babe arrived here Saturday afternoon from Aberdeen, South Dakota, and will make their home here in the future at the Hotel Perkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Elva Barker and Mrs. Barker, Sr., of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Del Pickett and family of Kimball, Nebraska, and Miss Winnie Pickett of Auburn were here yesterday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Pickett.

From Tuesday's Daily
T. J. Brendel of Murray was in the city for a few hours today looking after some matters at the art house in which he was interested.

Mrs. E. J. Sheehan of Rushville, Nebraska, who has been here for a short visit with relatives and friends, returned this morning to her home in the west.

Mrs. A. L. Smith of Fort Crook was here today for a few hours en route to Tabor, Iowa, where she will visit for a few days with relatives in that locality.

W. F. Diers and G. H. Wood of Louisville were here yesterday for a few hours and while here were callers at the Journal office for a few minutes and Mr. Diers renewed his subscription to the semi-weekly for the ensuing year. While the visit of these two live wires from Louisville was of necessity short it was much enjoyed.

GOES TO REFORM SCHOOL

From Wednesday's Daily
This morning Hazel Wilbur, aged 12, from the vicinity of Murray was taken to Omaha and where he will be placed in a school for training until he reaches more mature years as the result of an inquiry into his case by the county authorities. The matter was on before Judge Beeson yesterday afternoon and the lad seemed very desirous of being placed in the school for care and education and as this seemed the best for the boy he was ordered placed in the hands of the sheriff to be taken to school. The family has resided in the vicinity of Murray for some time.

BURTON IS NEW HEAD OF CHICAGO UNIVERSITY

Chicago, Jan. 16.—Dr. Ernest De Witt Burton will become president of the University of Chicago on February 10, succeeding Henry Pratt Judson, who will retire on that date.

Dr. Judson will resign on the sixteenth anniversary of his election to the presidency. He will retire, it was stated, today, so he can devote his time to "completing certain investigations in which he is deeply interested." He will remain at the university, the title of president emeritus having been conferred upon him by the board of trustees.
