Nehawka, Nebraska

J. W. Magney was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Tuesday.

Mrs. Eliza Baker was visiting with friends in Weeping Water for over Sunday of last week.

Warren Mann who has been sick for some time past with the grippe, is again able to be out and looking after his work.

Mr. D. C. West was looking after business matters in both the state capital and at Omaha during the latter part of last week.

Walter Wunderlich was clerking the sale last Monday at Roy Prince's where they had an excellent sale and a large crowd to buy.

C. R. Troop and A. G. Cisney shipped a couple of cars of stock from the Murray station to the South Omaha market last Monday.

Miss Ruth Hinton was a guest at her home in Lincoln for over Sunday a visitor with her family, returning to her work on Monday morning.

Louis Young shelled and delivered at the Farmers' elevator in Nehawka last week some 2,500 bushels of corn which he raised last year.

Earl Troop trucked a load of goods to the station at Cedar Creek last Thursday for J. J. Lohnes, who is moving to Grant where he is to live in the future.

Mrs. Charles Stone was a visitor in Auburn for a few days during last week when she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. R. Pierson of that place and also visiting with other friends.

Thomas E. Fulton, who has been sick for some time past with the flu, is now snowed under with work which has piled up on him and has Harold Meyer assisting in getting the work caught up.

L. W. Burby, superintendent of the Nehawka schools, was sick at home with the grippe for a few days during the week. Mrs. Burby had been sick but had gotten somewhat over the malady before Mr. Burby took it.

R. B. Stone was a visitor at Auburn last Monday where he went to attend a sale of the justly renowned Spotted Poland China hogs and of which he has a herd himself in company with his two sons, James and Chester.

The farmers about this vicinity are much pleased over the fact that the federal land banks have been privileged to make loans now as high as $25,000 while heretofore they were restricted to a loan to one person of $10,000.

Mr. Z. W. Shrader and wife have been kept at home for some days past on account of their both having the flu and confined to their beds. Their son, Roy, was looking after them and it is hoped that they will soon be all right again.

Last Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Anderson at their home in Nehawka entertained the members of the 500 club of which they are members themselves and a most pleasant evening was had by all who were present.

Little Bobbie and Jack Wunderlich who have been having a time with the grippe, have vanquished their enemy and are now feeling pretty well again, thank you. They are improving and will soon be their old selves again.

Miss Maybelle Troop was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Saturday where she was arranging for instructions in music with Miss Gass of that place.

John Kettlebut was moving last week to the Countryman farm where he will work this year.

The boys and girls teams of basketball came over from One last Friday and tried it out with the Nehawka teams with the results that the girls team of Nehawka won out by a score of 21 to 12 while the boys lost by a score of 12 to 24.

Mrs. J. J. Lohnes and daughter, Elsie are visiting for a few days at the home of Mrs. Robert Troop while the car which contains their household goods is going to their new home at Grant, Neb., and the goods are gotten to the farm so they can again go to housekeeping.

Mrs. Leo Switzer who was taken to the hospital for a short time on Saturday following the flu, is making very good progress and was well enough to return to her home here on Wednesday of this week and considering the seriousness of her case she had done remarkably well.

Herold Meyer who has been driving a school bus for a short time, was compelled on last Monday morning to shovel snow for about an hour and a half in order to get through the road being drifted. As it was he was late at the school, notwithstanding his efforts to get there.

See Henry Wessel's ad for his Monarch stoves and ranges in this issue of this paper and better investigate before going somewhere else to make your purchases. Mr. Wessel has lived in Nehawka long enough for all to know he treats you all fair in a deal. Better look his stock over!

Ford Gets For a Buick

George E. Sheldon, who has been looking after some business matters in Denver and the west, stopped in York last week on his way home and there met James Kuykendall, who is manager of the electric lights of that stirring city, and there found Mr. Kuykendall busy as usual and with plenty to do. He has disposed of his Ford which has served him while at Plattsmouth and secured a Buick in its place and a bobby turnout at that, it being a sedan.

Purchased Some Excellent Stock

Last week, Harry Knabe received four of as fine sows as grow in Nebraska, they being the celebrated Hampshire which he is breeding. Harry was out after fine hogs for his herd and was not sparing of the money which it required to make his purchases. He secured them from the celebrated herds at Battle Creek and Wisner where good hogs are bred and grown.

Moving to Ashland

Clarence Peck and family are moving to Ashland where they will work the coming year and last Friday evening before they had departed, their neighbors got together and surprised them, going to their home with well laden baskets and made a most pleasant evening for the friends who were so soon to depart.

A New Girl Arrives

A dainty, little, blue-eyed baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Pollard last Saturday and is making herself at home with her happy parents. The grandfather at Union, Mr. C. F. Harris, is also feeling pretty good, thank you, over the arrival.

church records 269,685 non-resident names.

Perhaps it might be of interest to know that there are 20,517 preachers in the Methodist Episcopal church and serving 29,429 churches and 36,597 Sunday schools with 498,998 officers and teachers and 4,848,991 pupils in all departments. Fine!

M. E. Church Notes

The blizzard of Saturday and Sunday sure made a telling upon the attendance at both the morning and evening services of the church. Nevertheless, we had a good time and held claim to the Bible promises just the same. Since we did not get very far with the preaching services, we announced the same topic for next Sunday morning: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." At the close of the preaching we will call for your opinion on keeping this day holy. Please get ready and help the man in the pulpit divide the word as it should be. By the way, don't forget to read these Bible references: Gen. 2:3; Ex. 20:8, 31:15-17; Lev. 23:3; St. Luke 24:1.

Sure enough the ladies of the aid met last Wednesday afternoon and made an extensive program of activities enough to last all summer. One of these is "A Trip Around the World." My! My! What those ladies can't think out isn't worth while for others to try. We are looking forward to every number for we know they are full of the very best entertainment.

The meeting of the official board is set off until another date on account of the storm and muddy roads. Owing to the slim attendance at the Sunday school we did not challenge any of the classes on "An Opening Service" for our school.

The prayer meeting was held at the parsonage last Thursday night and we had about sixteen adults present. Study Thes. chapter 2 for next lesson and be sure to bring your Bible.

Who knows anything about the ladies quartet? Also the male quartet? We hope the flu will soon let up so these voices may be heard again in the regular services.

Dr. Oliver S. Baketel, editor of the Methodist year book, tells us that while our church had a net gain of 119,000 members in 1922, thus bringing the membership of the church up to 4,593,540, that there is on our
