Paige sedan.

Alex Landholm, who is working in Omaha as a visitor here for a short time last week.

business matters in Lincoln last Wednesday and Thursday.

Wyoming arrived in Murdock for a short stay last Wednesday.

Victor Thimgan has been suffering from an attack of neuralgia which he is finding pretty hard to shake off.

Sidney James of Elmwood was looking after some business matters in Murdock a couple of days last week.

A little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baldin has been very sick with an attack of the grippe for the past number of days.

The fifth graders in the Murdock schools who are getting along nicely are taking up the mathematics of the sixth grade just at this time.

Miss Ella Gerbeling of the Murdock schools celebrated her birthday during the past week the scholars extending many congratulations.

John Gray

Farmers' Building, Murdock, Neb.

Cecil Gray of University Place was visiting at the home of his parents here for a week and on last Thursday returned to University Place.

The carpenters of Murdock are being encouraged over the outlook for the coming summer, as they are having many inquiries for work at this time.

Alex Munson who has been painting with Max Dusterhoff for some time past is visiting at the home of his parents at Red Oak, Iowa, for a few days.

Dr. Liston of Elmwood was a visitor in Murdock one day last week, coming to see Mrs. C. Guerr, who has been very sick but is reported as slightly improved.

The public sale which was to have been given by J. G. Scheel, was postponed two times on account of the weather and just at this time they are not knowing just when they will have it.

Max Dusterhoff was looking after some matters of business in Omaha for a few days during the past week, the roads were so bad that they could not get to Eagle to work and he took the occasion to look after the Omaha business.

Henry Thimgan, who but a short time since engaged with Louis Bor-nheimer for work for the summer, was a visitor at Lincoln last Wednesday and Thursday looking after some business matters and also was a guest of friends.

At the home of Henry Klimme the children have been having a time with the scarlet fever and while it has been very severe they are getting along. Mr. Klimme's family have been having much sickness during the winter and it would seem their full share.

On account of the almost impassable roads caused by the storms the routes could not be made for some four days but on Wednesday something like a partial return to normality was effected though with much hard work. The rural route could not be made for a few days as well but people are getting their mail again.

Notice the change in the ad of Mr.
E. W. Thimgan as it appears in this issue of the paper, touching tires, which have made some very substantial advances just recently and due for more raises soon. The manufacturers have tacked on an additional fifteen per cent to their price, but as Mr. Thimgan has a large stock he is selling them at the old price. Better serve yourself while the opportunity is at hand for getting the best at the old standard of prices.

Mr. M. R. Milton of Syracuse, N.
Y., was here during a portion of last week and purchased 32 horses which he shipped by express to Syracuse, and for which he paid the sum of $700 as express and which it seems is quite a lot for a car when one comes to consider the price per animal which is $21.87 it is not so much. Gust Gakemeier, Henry Gake-meier, Gust Wendt and E. H. Miller sold horses which went east, and many others near here of whom we did not learn the names.

Eggs For Hatching

Pure bred single comb Rhode Island red eggs for hatching, 75c per setting of fifteen.—Charles Long, phone 19-C, Murdock. m19-tfw

See the change in the ad of Mr.
Jess Landholm, who is making a specialty of repairing and charging all makes of batteries as well as furnishing service for the Exide battery. He is also announcing auto livery service which he is prepared to furnish at very reasonable prices.

Charles Schaefer, the representative of the George Trunkenbolz Oil company for Murdock, has been giving his truck a good painting while the roads have been so bad that he could not get out. Max Dusterhoff will letter the truck when he gets home from Omaha, where he has been looking after some business matters.

While the north window of the Murdock Mercantile company store, which was dressed with the articles which E. W. Thimgan carries in his garage and which made an excellent showing, it was not better than the window which Mr. Thimgan has at the garage, which was dressed with exquisite taste, with the supplies and accessories which he carries. Just glance at the north window of the garage and see what you are needing in this line.

It is reported from the hospital in Omaha, where Henry A. Guthmann is recovering following an operation for a mastoid abscess, that this excellent gentleman is getting along very nicely at this time and hopes are now entertained that he is well on the way to recovery. Mr. Guthmann has been very dangerously sick and the change in his condition is good news to his friends.

Hold School Caucus

The school district No. 7 held its caucus at the garage of E. W. Thimgan last Thursday when they placed in nomination for the coming election which occurs on April 3rd, the following nominees:

For the 3-year term (two to be elected)—Conrad Baumgartner, Henry Reickmann, O. C. Zink and Herman Kupke.

To fill vacancy caused by the resignation of Fred Tonack—August Panska and Fred Stock, Sr.

Why Not a Commercial Club

During the past year or so, four families from adjacent to Murdock have found themselves new homes in other cities, when their natural place would have been Murdock.
Why not a commercial club to look after the interests of the town, with all the people of Murdock working in unison and in accord. Many a proposition could be put across which would benefit the whole community.
But without some effort along this line the town will be no larger after another ten years than it is now.
The people of Murdock are entitled to have a larger town and also they should be willing to co-operate and work together for it.

Grandmother Zoz Passes Away

Miss Martha Webber was born in Germany some 87 years ago and came to this country 60 years ago and to last county and the present site of Murdock, which did not then exist, 40 years ago. Previous to this she had been united in marriage to Wm. Zoz at Springfield, Ohio.

Three children were born to this couple, all of whom survive the aged mother. They are Andrew Zoz and Frank Zoz, of Murdock, and Mrs.
Julia Friedrich, of Omaha. Mrs. Zoz died at the home of her son, Andrew, where she has been making her home for some time, on last Saturday, the funeral and burial being held at the St. Elizabeth church in Elmwood on Tuesday of last week. Grandmother Zoz had a large number of friends, who with the members of her family, are mourning her departure.

Royal Neighbors Hold Meeting

The members of the Royal Neighbors of Murdock met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. O. J. Pothast and were entertained by that lady and Mrs. A. R. Hornbeck, when they had a most enjoyable afternoon, as well as looking after the business matters which came before them.
The place cards which were used at the luncheon which the ladies gave, were of their own manufacture, and were made of colored egg shells with a ribbon passing through from end to end and which was a most unique souvenir as well as serving the purpose of place cards.

Purchased a Home

The "Fussy Wants a Corner" game which has been in progress among Murdock residents the past fortnight, has been continued with J. H.
Buck purchasing the Mrs. Martha King property in which the E. K.
Norton family have been living, and to which Mr. Buck will soon move, necessitating the Nortons finding other quarters. Just what will be done to solve the house shortage in this town is a question which is perplexing a number of people, and it is hoped some relief may be obtained with the opening up of the building season and the moderate prices of lumber and workmanship that will prevail this year.

Warned of the Blizzard

I. G. Hornbeck and Louis Hornbeck, the Rock Island employes at the depot here, posted notices all day Saturday giving warning of the coming of the blizzard and with the assistance of the telephone operator prepared the people for the weather condition that continued throughout Saturday night and the greater part of Sunday.

BEAUTIFUL WOMANHOOD

The March issue of Beautiful Womanhood is fascinating. It contains a wide variety of information on beauty and beauty culture. Among the contributors are Charlotte Perkins Gilman who writes "Do you know beauty when you see it?" Then there is an interview with D. V.
Griffith on "What is Beauty?" as told by Capitola W. Ashworth. Marie Rappold advises you "To Sing Your Way to Health," while Kitty Gordon thinks "Forty the Age of Supreme Beauty." These are only a few of the many interesting features in this superbly illustrated number. There are besides an article by Alice Mary Kimball on how to "Overcome Your Shyness—and Get a Husband," "How to be Happy Though Divorced" by Oursler, "Love Roads" by Richard Barry and the autobiography of a foot enticed "Once a Beautiful Foot But Now," an editorial by Bernarr Macfadden as only he can write it.

FAIRYLAND CIRCUS

"The circus is coming to Fairyland,
the circus is coming to Fairyland," said the Fairy Queen.

And as she said this a band struck up, and what should be seen coming down through the wooded paths of Fairyland but a circus parade.

All the Fairies rushed about and perched themselves on the treetops and in the trees and upon the old stumps of trees, and some stood along the paths which would be the route the circus would take, so explained Effie Elf.

She seemed to know all about it.
Sometimes a Fairy would say:
"Are you sure, Effie Elf, that the circus will come along this way?" And Effie Elf made no mistakes.

Sometimes when the circus parade seemed to be going along another way it came back along the way Effie Elf said, for she had been told the route in advance.

And you know how nice it is to know a circus route in advance.

Even then you may be a little worried that the parade may not come down your street, even if you have been told it would, and how joyous it is when at last you see the parade coming down your street—even though you have followed it all about.

At the head of the parade was Old Mr. Giant. He was the drum-major.
When he threw a stick into the air

"Just Waiting to Be Eaten."

It seemed to go so far up in the air that it was hard to see it until it was seen coming down again.

For Mr. Giant was so tall himself to start with.

His stick was a handsome affair, decorated with red tassels.

Then came Witty Witch, and she was riding a make-believe camel.

The camel was really made up of Billie Brownie and Bennie Brownie and the Brownie Twins, and what a time they did have with their pillow-humps which Ollie Oaf had made for them.

The humps fell about in so curious a way.

Then there was a band wagon which they had first heard, and Eddy Elf led the band. They had fine costumes of red and the wagon was painted red, too.

It was pulled along by some of the members of the Oaf family, who wore plumes on their heads to make them look something like horses!

Then Eddy Elf looked like a lion.
In fact no one knew until afterward that it was Eddy who was the lion.
He roared splendidly.

Eddy marched along, roaring as he went.

He wore a big sign about his neck which read:

"This wild beast enjoys being fed.
Ice cream cones are particularly popular with him."

And as luck would have it, Princess Fairy Joy rushed to the Fairy Ice-Box and found an ice cream cone just waiting to be eaten—for it had melted a little about the sides, which showed it was waiting to be eaten.

Then the rest of the Brownies were clowns, and they went along making all sorts of funny remarks.

They spoke of the Fairyland people and made merry jokes about them—nice, friendly jokes.

Oh, it was a splendid parade.

And after the parade was all over they put up a tent and gave a magnificent circus performance. Those who were not performers took the parts of animals.

They jumped through hoops, they turned somersaults and they sold peanuts and popcorn and woodland lemonade and they charged only laughter for all of these things!

"Oh, what a surprise it was," said the Fairy Queen, when it was all over. "I didn't know a thing about it until Effie Elf spoke to me about it just before I called out that the circus was coming.

"Oh, you've given Fairyland a most beautiful treat."

And how pleased Old Mr. Giant was, for it had been his idea in the first place, while Witty Witch and the others had been only too glad to help him with it.

For it was such fun to give a circus for the Queen of the Fairies and her people. It was the greatest fun imaginable.

And the Fairy Queen said that she hadn't laughed so hard in ever so long, which greatlyattered and pleased the clowns.

OMAHA MEN UNABLE TO GIVE EXCUSE ARRESTED

Men without visible means of support in Omaha and those who refuse to work or are unable to give a satisfactory reason for not working are being arrested as "vags" by the "New Broom" police force of the metropolis.

Pool halls and soft drink places yielded a rich harvest yesterday when the police swooped down and began asking questions.

Omaha is trying to show the world, evidently, that the police department is still alive after a long and quiet sleep.

And Omaha police department's efforts to rid the city of undesirables might well be copied by smaller communities where vice and crime and "unrest" are always found among the voluntary jobless.

most complete line of Easter cards

King "Tut"

probably had no conception of the wealth his surroundings of art represent today.
If labor were as cheap now as in his time, we could all surround ourselves with the same exorbitant splendor. But—

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

Decorative Art today is on a commercial basis and it requires skill for a decorator to combine economy with the high standard of decorations people demand. It is our business to mould our individual artistic taste into applicable form that is economical, yet embraces the very highest quality of art.
