A NOTABLE MASON

George W. Vallery of Denver, grand generalissimo of the Knights Templar of the United States, is visiting at Omaha the present week attending the meeting of the grand commandery of Nebraska and incidentally enjoying a visit with his relatives. Mr. Vallery is a Plattsmouth man and one of the many early residents of this city who have grown to positions of distinction in the world. He has for a great many years been a resident of Denver and has been with the Burlington railroad and the Colorado Southern since locating in the Colorado city. He has not only been a successful figure in the railroad world but is also one of the most distinguished Masons in the United States and is the second ranking officer of the Knights Templar in the country. He is a brother of Mrs. F. E. White of Omaha and Mesdames T. P. Livingston, W. J. Streight and Katherine Minor of this city. Mr. Vallery is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. White while in Omaha.
