A. L. BECKER,

"THE STORE OF SERVICE"

UNION NEBRASKA

On account of the quietness at the elevators in the grain receiving line, the extra help has been dispensed with.

W. L. Taylor, of Omaha, was a visitor in Union over Sunday, spending the time at the home of relatives here.

Isaac Dye, from east of Union, was delivering his last summer's wheat crop to the Farmers elevator on last Monday.

Mrs. Emma Nickles and Mrs. John Becker from near Murray were visiting with friends in Union on last Thursday.

W. E. Propst, of Plattsmouth, was looking after some business matters in Union last Monday, coming down in his auto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hansel were called to Iowa by the death of a niece of Mrs. Hansel, which occurred a few days ago.

J. V. Davis, the well man, has commenced the sinking of a well for L. G. Todd and is getting along very nicely with it.

W. W. Stokes, the house mover, has been working in Nebraska City during the week and was moving some houses there.

Prof. I. Meil was a visitor at his home in Auburn for over last Sunday and back to his work teaching on Monday morning.

W. A. Harding, manager of the Farmers elevator of Union, was a visitor at his home in Bethany for over Sunday last week.

Miss Gladys Hall, one of the teachers of the Union schools, was a visitor at the home of her parents in Plattsmouth last Sunday.

W. B. Banning, who is just now rounding out the present term of the state legislature, was a visitor at home over last Sunday.

The quarterly all-day basket dinner meeting of the Methodist church at Wyoming will be held at that place on April 22nd, Sunday next.

Misses Mary Donnelly Robb and Margaret Cheney were visiting with friends in Omaha last Saturday and enjoyed the trip very much.

Earl Merrit and family were visiting in Plattsmouth last Sunday, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lewis while there.

Misses Nettie and Angie McCarrall, who are attending the state university at Lincoln were spending last Sunday at the home of their parents.

Mrs. W. H. Rainey of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Union last Monday between trains looking after some business matters during her visit here.

Ray Becker and Walter L. Haven-

ridge were visiting and looking after some business matters in Omaha last Monday, they making the trip in the car of Ray Becker.

Al Eaton and Fred Tigner have gotten the "O" street road in pretty good condition and the thoroughfare is being extensively used by tourists as well as local travel.

Ellis LaRue, who has been working in the Burlington shops at Plattsmouth for some time, was a visitor at home for a short time during the fore part of the week.

Our friend, Mr. U. S. Towne, who has been feeling quite poorly for some time, is now confined to his bed and it is the desire of his many friends that he may be able to be out again in the near future.

Last Monday there attended the sale north of Murray a number of people from Union, among them being J. W. Woodard, A. W. Propst, J. C. Roddy, Frank Eaton, Charles Moore and the Dowler Brothers.

Mrs. W. L. Stine was visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Keene at Falls City, going down Wednesday and back Saturday. Mrs. Keene was not feeling very well, but was able to come home with her mother Saturday.

Frank Houghson, shelled and delivered his corn to the Farmers elevator in Union last week. Mrs. Houghson, who has been very poorly was compelled to return to the hospital in Omaha for further treatment.

The Rev. W. A. Taylor was at Wabash last Sunday, where he held services, and under his preaching there were three good confessions made by young people at Wabash, with the hopes of other additions to the church.

While moving his well machine from Earl Merrit's, J. V. Davis had the misfortune to let the machine gain an advantage over him while going down the alley and but for the matter of running into a telephone pole might have ran into the home of Al Eaton with disastrous results.

See the ad of Dr. Thomas P. Cogan, of Omaha, where he is practicing his dental profession, and has many good recommendations on the quality of his work. Dr. Cogan will come to Murray every Saturday and will office with Dr. Race, arriving at nine in the morning and being there the balance of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Propst entertained for last Sunday at their home in Union, C. S. Johnson, father of Mrs. Propst; Robert Propst, father of Mr. Propst and the latter's daughters, Misses Roberta and Mayola, also Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Propst of Florida, the latter couple departing for Chicago for a visit with relatives before they shall return to their home in the south June 1st.

Business Good, Thank You
Yes, that is just what Mr. A. L. Becker, the merchant says, and he also says the reason is because he is selling the right goods and making the prices right. He is duly appreciative of the excellent business that comes his way and therefore says "Thank you." This store handled 600 dozen eggs last Saturday, besides doing much other business.

Officers Elected
The Junior league of the Methodist church at their recent meeting held an election of officers for the coming term, the following being selected: Miss Mary Donnelly Robb, president; Elden Moore, first vice president; Lucian LaRue, second vice president; Jane Robb, third vice president; Cecil Niday, fourth vice president; Neal Wash, secretary and Midge Cheney, treasurer.

Union School Notes
The XI Algebra class is struggling with logarithms.

The class in Latin II has completed Book III in Caesar.

The Seniors have ordered their commencement invitations.

Joseph Lindsey and Earl Niday were absent from high school because of sickness.

A few of the girls of the Reviews class took the teachers' examinations last Saturday.

The class sermon will be given by Rev. Plank at the Baptist church on the evening of May 20th.

Four of the Senior girls, Beulah Pell, Cordelia Roddy, LeVern Frans and Virginia Harris, substituted in Miss Hall's room Wednesday of last week.

STATION WOAW TO OBSERVE WEDNESDAY AS QUIET NIGHT
It was announced last night that Wednesday of each week will be quiet night for WOAW, broadcasting station of the Woodmen of the World. During the first two weeks of operation a vote was taken among listeners within a radius of one hundred miles of Omaha, with the result that Wednesday polled twice as many votes as its nearest competitor, Monday.

The program last night by the Knights Templar band of Omaha was one of the best given so far from the new station as attested by congratulatory telegrams from all parts of the United States and Canada.

With WOAW silent Wednesday nights, listeners-in here will have an opportunity of again hearing the fine 9:30 to 10:30 programs of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram which have been drowned out by the nearness of WOAW. For this Wednesday night, the Star-Telegram offers a concert of late dance music by Rex Maupin's Original Texas Hotel orchestra.

SPECIAL NOTICE
Owing to the fact that Mr. F. R. Gobelman was unable to purchase my stock of goods as agreed to, I will continue to do business in the same courteous manner as before. Don't forget the new location.

Yours Respectfully,

ARMY OFFICERS MAY ACT AS SCOUTMASTERS

Washington, April 16.—General Pershing has informed J. E. West, chief executive officer of the Boy Scouts of America, that the war department is willing to have army officers act as scout masters. Permission for them to do so was granted, it was announced today, in compliance with a request from Mr. West.

General Pershing in a letter said it was to be understood that the officers acting as scout masters would conduct themselves precisely in the same capacity as civil scout masters had since the organization was established.

27 Champions AND Prize Winners AT Chicago International Show, 1922 153 Champions AND Prize Winners AT Ill., Ia., Nebr., Kans. State Fairs 1922, Were Fed Acme Minerals

Acme Minerals are made according to the Complete Mineral Mixture formula as worked out by the Iowa Experimental Station, and made from NINE INGREDIENTS (including potassium iodide) and is fed in self feeders for 2 1/2 to 5¢ per month.

J. W. Whitchet, Ohio State University, says: "Ordinary rations are far from supplying the mineral requirements of hogs. None of the common grain feeds or their by-products contain a sufficient amount of mineral matter. The sooner hog feeders and breeders recognize that MINERALS ARE A FEED and not a fad or something extra which needs only to be fed occasionally, then we are going to have better toned hogs, fewer going down in the back and in their feet."

Corn is 200 per cent deficient in Calcium (lime) requires

Nine Mineral Elements for fattening hogs and growing pigs to supply the mineral elements which increase gains, reduce feed cost and grow the bone and frame and the Nine Mineral Elements are also required by the brood sow to farrow more and stronger pigs, with more bone and frame. A Mineral Mixture containing 9 ingredients only provides half of the mineral elements. We will sell you ACME MINERALS containing all the mineral elements for $2.00 to $5.00 per hundred pounds less than all others.

We will ship you ACME MINERALS mixed or will ship the 9 ingredients packed separately, and you can mix them your own way. This combination of ACME MINERALS gives the free intestinal worms successfully.

STUDENTS ENJOY A REUNION WITH AGED TEACHER

William Balfour, of Near Nehawka, Surrounded by Former Pupils, on His 78th Birthday.

One of the nicest affairs of the season was given by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Balfour, in honor of Carl's father, Mr. William Balfour's 78th birthday.

The most of the old students within driving distance of the Munn's school house, of which Mr. Balfour was teacher several terms, responded to an invitation to dine with him April 5th at a 12 o'clock dinner. All were invited to the dining room, where the table was most fittingly arranged. There were the best eats ever and lovely flowers and a large birthday cake—three tiers—and on each tier were arranged lighted candles tapering to the top—78 of them.

Mrs. Balfour was assisted in serving by Mesdames Ross, Ott and Kealey.

Mr. Balfour gave selections on the violin that were popular a quarter to a half century ago, to which all the pupils heartily applauded.

A tribute was given him by Luther Hall in the form of a poem touching upon his good works and his noble character which had the good influence in moulding the lives of many in this community. "It is the man who builds up the universe that we owe our appreciation, not to the man who disfigures it."

The following were present, the first four having gone to school to Mr. Balfour a half century ago:

Mrs. Walker, Dunbar; Mrs. John James, Nebraska City; Mrs. Easter, John Vantine, Wyoming; Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hall, Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. J. Balfour, Syracuse; Mrs. Carl Giles and son, Wyoming; Miss Lucille Walker, Dunbar; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. St. John, Mrs. R. B. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Robert James, Mr. and Mrs. R. Dallas, Elmwood; Mr. and Mrs. Kime; Mr. and Mrs. Nutzman.—Nehawka Enterprise.

GRAIN FUTURES ACT HELD VALID

U. S. Supreme Court Upholds Law On Trading—Objections Removed by Congress.

Washington, April 16.—The grain future trading act was declared valid and constitutional today by the supreme court.

It was the second time the court had passed on the validity of a grain future trading law, a previous statute based on the taxing power of the federal government having been held unconstitutional. The law upheld today was based on the right to control interstate commerce.

Chief Justice Taft, in delivering the opinion, said the decision in the former grain futures case was an argument in favor of the constitutionality of the present law, because in the latter congress met the objections which the court had pointed out as having rendered it invalid.

It is impossible, the court said, to distinguish between transactions in cash grain and in grain to arrive from stock shipments which the court had held to be interstate commerce. The grain exchange, the court said, was merely the gateway thru which the grain flowed in its course from the west to the east and to Europe.

Sales on the Chicago Board of Trade are as necessary to the continuity of this flow of grain, the court held, as are stockyards sales in the movement of cattle. It was added that the evidence showed that future trading does have an effect on the price of grain.

The fact that corners in grain have been brought about by dealing in futures evidenced, the decision said, the relations between future dealings and cash grain.

The Chicago Board of Trade, the court concluded, is engaged in a business, which makes it subject to national regulation.

Justice McReynolds and Sutherland dissented.

HENRY FORD THROWS HIS HOSPITAL OPEN TO VETS

Detroit, April 16.—Henry Ford slashed through the maze of red tape that kept 200 to 300 wounded war veterans of Michigan from government hospitalization today by throwing open the doors of his big hospital here to every disabled ex-service man and woman in the state.

Ford's action came after a conference with Alvin M. Owsley of Texas, national commander of the American Legion. Owsley told Ford of the fight the Michigan veterans were making because the government had not seen fit to cut the formal procedure thru which applicants for government aid are forced to go.

After hearing the story Henry Ford reached for a telephone and instructed the superintendent of the Henry Ford hospital to take in, at once, any man in need of hospital treatment who had papers showing war service.

OBITUARY

William Leesley was born of good old English ancestors who emigrated to this country in the early fifties to make a home for themselves and their children. He was one of the pioneers of western Cass county, coming here when a young man. In the early days he made trips with Joe Gilmore across the plains to Denver, freighting with ox teams when the Indians were massacring and terrorizing the early settlers.

Mr. Leesley has endured all the hardships of the early pioneer, hewing for himself a good home and by hard work, amassing enough to care for him in his declining days. He was honest, conscientious and square with his fellowmen, leaving this world owing no obligations to any man.

He was a kind husband and father and always good to his family. He was a true friend and always faithful to those associated with him. Mr. Leesley was afflicted with deafness most of his life and on that account was unable to derive any benefit from attending the church meetings. However, he was always a contributor to the good of the church, and often remarked to his closest friends he would love to attend meetings if he could hear.

William Leesley departed this life April 7, 1923, aged 72 years. He leaves to mourn his loss, a widow, Dora Leesley, one son, Harry Leesley of Greenwood, one daughter, Gertrude Lapham of Hyannis, seventeen grandchildren. Also two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Reese and Mrs. Hattie King.

He is a charter member of the Greenwood lodge No. 98, I. O. O. F., becoming a member when the charter was granted in 1882, and has always been faithful to the tenets of the order.

He is also a member of the Greenwood M. W. A. lodge, joining in 1885 and always took a great interest in lodge work, adding many members to the order by his faithful service.

At the Funeral
Those from a distance who were here in attendance at the Leesley funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Walt Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jeary, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Carnes, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Weidman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schroeder, John Armstrong, Mrs. Anna Metcalf and son, Alden, and Miss Luther, all of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McPherson, Mrs. Grace Woodward, Mrs. John Leesley and Miss Mable Porter of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Oliver and Miss Elizabeth Hinton of Louisville, Mrs. Sherman of Cortland, Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff of Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. Chilt Laughlin and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Thompson of Ashland.—Greenwood Gazette.

LOCAL NEWS

From Wednesday's Daily
John Fight and wife were among those going to Omaha this morning to spend the day visiting with their daughter in that city.

John W. Falter of Falls City is here for a visit with his relatives and many friends and to join the rest of the family who have been here visiting for the past week.

Mrs. Mary E. Ragoss of Louisville was here today for a few hours attending to some matters of business and while here was a caller at the Journal for a short visit.

Henry A. Guthmann, who has been here visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. F. R. Guthmann, departed this morning for Omaha to receive treatment from the specialist there.

Mark White of Los Angeles arrived here Monday evening and will spend a short time here looking after his business interests and incidentally visiting with the old time friends and his relatives in this locality.

FIRST GAME FRIDAY

According to the expectations of the members of the high school baseball team, the first game of the season will be staged here on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock when the Weeping Water high school boys will be here to tangle with the locals. Practice has been on for the past few weeks with Athletic Coach Doolan putting the boys through their "stuff." On the hurling staff, Mullis, Weber and Art Hill are the prospects, with Mullis figured to do the dark stuff in the box. The tentative lineup of the team for the opener is given as follows: Harlan Gorder, catcher; Harold Mullis, pitcher; Forest Shrader, first base; Ray Lambert, second base; Frank Gradoville, shortstop; Joe Krejci, third base; Louis Svoboda, left field; Joe Weber, center field; Carl Keil, right field.
