TURN FROM SOUND DOCTRINE

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, and they shall turn away their ears from the truth.—II Timothy iv, 3 and 4.

A new bride, also, sweeps clean.

Never lose your health. It is so hard to find.

The hardest thing about anything is finishing it.

It is dangerous business for one faction in a party to drive out another faction on account of a different sentiment. You can't do it with success, as has been proved in the past.
One hears much these days of gland operations for the retention of youth, there is a way that beats that and is not half so expensive: Live right, eat right, sleep right and leave other people's affairs alone, and youth will be a long time in departing.
Spring itself brings to the surface the irresponsible spirit of youth. Consider the man who enters his garden highly resolved to "spad" it and make it ready for planting. The first forkful of earth reveals enough fish worms to bait his hook for an entire afternoon.

The Commoner, paper established by W. J. Bryan 23 years ago, is no more. Mr. Bryan gives several very good reasons why suspension was necessary. As an exponent of democracy through the United States it has proved a great success in the past and we regret to see it shut down but its memory for good work will remain in the hearts of those millions of democratic friends of the Great Commoner himself.

NOTICE
