Here Is Where You Save Money!

See A. L. Becker for some of the best bargains of the year. He has some excellent goods just purchased, as well as the stock which he must close to reduce the stock to a certain amount. Do not fail to see and enjoy these bargains. You will find Mr. Becker, and he will have the goods for you. He will get out of the business. If he is not at his old stand, find him somewhere else, and you will have money on what you are needing.

Exceptional Bargains—Don't Miss Them

Going Out of Business!

Yes, that is a fact. I have traded my business property here for a farm in Merrick county, and must make a reduction of the stock here to the extent of three thousand dollars.

To do this, I must offer some exceptional bargains. All goods carried will be sold at actual cost, with the exception of the grocery stock, which must be kept up.

We have a line of hardware, work clothes, auto tires, shoes in endless variety, as well as rubber goods, and in fact all the stock which we are carrying, which includes some Reo cars and Rumley separators and tractors.

We will save you money on anything which you may desire. See us at the stand on the corner, as we are going to reduce this stock in a rush.

UNION, NEBRASKA

Miss Ina LaRue has been temporarily assisting in the matter of book-keeping and other clerical work at the Propst garage.

Rae Becker was shelling corn at the home of Hugh Warden last Monday which was being delivered at the Union elevators.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Propst were visiting in Plattsmouth last Friday and Mr. Propst was also looking after some business matters.

Little Marjorie Hoback following the closing of school, has gone to live with her parents, Charles Hoback and wife on the farm.

Will Ott shipped a car load of hogs to the South Omaha market on last Tuesday which brought near the top prices, for they were excellent animals.

W. B. Banning has been keeping himself very busy since his return from Lincoln looking after the orchard which he has just in the edge of Union.

John Becker, with the new Reo truck which Mr. A. L. Becker recently purchased, took a load of calves to the South Omaha market last Monday.

A new firm, Algaard and Pardue, of Auburn, have purchased the hotel and restaurant on lower Main street, and are conducting it in a most satisfactory manner.

Last Monday E. H. Becker departed for Chapman where he plans to plant one hundred acres of corn on the farm which Mr. A. L. Becker has recently purchased.

Joe Banning and family and Superintendent of the Union Schools C. E. Severson were enjoying a picnic last Sunday afternoon at the Morton park in Nebraska City.

Rural Carrier D. B. Lynde is having a furnace placed in his dwelling. L. J. Austin and Chas. Hathaway are making the necessary excavations for the purpose.

C. E. Severson departed last Monday for his home at Schuyler, where he will remain for a short time, and will later depart for Lincoln, where he will attend summer school.

Robert Eaton was a visitor at Nebraska City last Saturday, where he was attending the festivities of the street carnival being held there and also was a visitor with friends.

Miss Mary Becker was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lynn on last Monday for dinner at their hospitable home and declares that she never ate a better dinner in her life.

Harry Royal, who has been visiting here for a short time, also went to Plattsmouth last Sunday, where he visited the cemetery and looked after the resting place of his parents.

L. G. Larson of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Union for a number of days during the fore part of last week, being engaged in doing some carpenter work at the home of R. E. Foster.

R. E. Foster shipped to the South Omaha market last Monday three loads of cattle which he had fed in his yard for some time, and were all of them. They should bring about top prices on the market.

Mr. and Mrs. Rev. Planck were pleasantly entertained Tuesday in the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bates in Nehawka. Grandpa Bates joined the circle for dinner and a lovely time was enjoyed by all.

Keep in mind that the first Baptist church of Union is preparing a splendid children's program to be given Sunday evening, June 10th, at 8 o'clock. Begin now to make plans to attend. It will be worth while.

Last Sunday, both the Baptist and Methodist church Memorial services were observed, with the local pastors delivering the addresses and very telling ones at that, filled with patriotism, Christianity and good advice.

The Baptist church has instituted a regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting service which is being very well attended and all the members of the church and those interested otherwise, are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sheeley, of North Bend, who have purchased the Becker store, have moved to Union and are occupying the Mrs. M. L. Van Cleve property, formerly known as the Miss Jessie Todd property.

Both the Methodist and Baptist churches of Union will celebrate Children's day on the coming Sunday and will present a very nice program to which they are extending an invitation to all to come and hear and also enjoy.

Thomas McQuinn nearly got the joke on J. D. Cross last week in a flour deal which would have put Mr. McQuinn much to the good, but not wanting to take advantage of the slip of the tongue, he allowed the salesman to rectify the error.

Misses Vera Upton, Alma Frans and Cleone Farris were passengers to Lincoln last Monday, where they went to meet with the Sewing club of the state university, they being members and representatives of the domestic science class of the Union schools.

Miss Mary E. Foster, who is making her home in Omaha was a visitor over Sunday at the home of her parents, and enjoyed as well the company of her many friends. A Miss Estine, teacher in the Omaha public schools, accompanied her here for the brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Marquis de Lafayette Van Cleve, of Omaha, were spending last Sunday with friends and relatives in Union, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Todd, of Union. They were accompanied by a friend, Mr. C. A. Jones, of Omaha, who was also visiting here.

Mrs. George P. Barton of Falls City, with her daughter, Miss Daisy, were visiting with friends in Union for a few days during the past week and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Foster while here.

Miss Daisy is employed in the office of the register of deeds at Falls City. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrison and their daughter, Miss Margaret and so the former home of the groom as well. The young folks have known each other for some time when they both lived in the same town. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Morton, of Clarksburg, while the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ray, of Union, they both being excellent young people. They will make their home in Union, where Mr. Ray has secured the Osborn property, where they will make their home. Mr. Ray is an employe of the Missouri Pacific, working with his father on the tracks here. The Journal with their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes to this excellent young couple.

Memorial Services at Wyoming
Memorial services were held at the Episcopal church at Wyoming last Sunday, at which a large number of the members of the church there, as well as many others attended. In fact, it was said by those who had lived in the vicinity for many years that it was the largest crowd which had ever been at a gathering there. The Rev. Smith of the Episcopal church at Nebraska City, delivered the address which was one of much worth, filled with patriotic utterances.

Calls This Good Service
Last Monday A. L. Becker who was needing some flour, telephoned to both the mills at Nehawka and Avoca, and within two hours two truck loads of flour were delivered at his place of business. He calls this pretty good service, which looks so to us.

The Wheat Situation
There is much scare and considerable cause for it regarding the activities of the Hessian fly in the wheat. Many fields have been very critically examined and in many instances the fly has been found, although in a few no trace of its work was discovered. G. W. Cheney, Jess Crook and Dick Davis, because of the prevalence of the fly in their crop, and R. E. Foster, because of a very thin stand, have plowed up their wheat land and will replant to corn. Others are considering taking the same action.

Union School Notes

UNION SCHOOLS CLOSE FOR SUMMER VACATION

Very Pleasing Exercises Held at the School Auditorium on Friday Evening, May 25th.

Last week completed the school year of the Union high school, and sent one-half dozen young people out into the world to make for themselves a niche in the hall of fame. The exercises closing this past school year was celebrated by the following very agreeable program. The teachers of the school can well feel a degree of satisfaction over the material progress the students have made during the past year. Most of the instructors have been asked to remain with the school for the coming year, but only three have so far signified their intention of doing so. The commencement exercises were initiated by an invocation pronounced by the Rev. George A. Wash, pastor of the Methodist church, in a very impressive manner. Then followed the introductory musical number by Miss Vera Upton, a piano number known as Ballet Russe. This was a most enjoyable number and rendered perfect as a day in June by the young player. "The Call of Spring," by the quartet of Union, consisting of Mrs. Harold Frans, soprano, Miss Beattie LaRue, alto, Mr. Ray Frans, tenor and Mr. James Simmons, bass, while Miss Augusta Robb accompanied on the piano. Next was a violin number, Hungarian Dance Souvenir, by Matthew Shoemaker, accompanied by Mrs. Edwin Shoemaker. Then came a vocal solo, "The Spring Has Come," by Mrs. Harold Frans, accompanied by Miss Augusta Robb.

The address was delivered by N. C. Abbott, superintendent of the school for the Union at Nebraska City, who chose for the subject of his address "The Measurement of Time,"

Announcing!

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP OF THE ELMWOOD MILL AND ELEVATOR COMPANY

The entire interest of the mill and elevator has been acquired by Messrs Boyd and Schlanker, and many new bits of machinery added which makes it possible to produce the celebrated brands of "Golden Gate" and "Calla Lily" if possible more perfectly than before.

The mill has been entirely repaired and put in the best condition. The mill is now running full time and grinding the best of Colorado hard wheat. The mill will be open for business from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m., and the farmer can exchange his wheat for the best of flour on most equitable terms.

Every sack of our flour, either the "Golden Gate" or "Calla Lily" is fully guaranteed and every customer must be absolutely satisfied or money refunded.

FLOUR, FEED, MEAL AND CHOPS Elmwood Mill and Elevator Co. Elmwood, Nebraska

This was a very able address and was appreciated by all who heard it. At the conclusion of the address the diplomas were presented to the young ladies and one young man comprising the class, by State Senator W. B. Banning, closing with the benediction by Rev. W. A. Taylor.

The six graduates are Misses Alma Cleo Frans, Yada LaVon Frans, Virginia Margaret Frans, Beulah Mae Pell, Mary Cordelia Roddy and Master George H. Reike. The highest honors of the class went to Miss Mary Cordelia Roddy and the second highest to Miss Virginia Margaret Harris.

CEDAR CREEK WINS ANOTHER.

Last Sunday the hustling Cedar Creek baseball team added their third straight victory when they defeated Richfield by the score of 10 to 9, in a close and exciting battle that showed the mettle of both teams and some effective stick work on the part of both teams. Cedar Creek has four games at home in the next few weeks, Nehawka, June 3rd, Union, June 10th; Wabash, June 17th, and Richfield on June 24th.
