

New York, June 6.-Alfred Mar-iano, called the head of the vast Concentration of Battle Ships at counterfeiting plot broken up by

For

is arrest with twelve alleged ac-Despite the bad weather condicomplices last night, was held in tastefully arranged in decoration of tions there were a large number in $10,500 bail today when he pleaded the handsome peonies and whose attendance and looking over the new bright colors added to the beauty of and well arranged store. not guilty to a charge of counternent revenue stamps, whiskey and champagne labels, with the plates from which they were printed, were seized in two raids conducted by Jo-seph A. Paima, chief secret service operative. operative.

Voulo, alleged go-betweens, were held in $2,500 bail each, and Bar-band, was held in $1,000 bail. Others were paroled in custody of their

A nation-wide plot to withdraw liquor through bogus permits, and

The counterfeiters, it was said.

worked in several groups, one of the flooding of the country with imitation liquor in bottles bearing the

been broken up by the raid.

attorney.

Vine street. The home was arranged watched the men. The arrests came Seattle Ordered-Many Now Along the East Coast.

Washington, June 8.-President Harding will review the United following dispatch to Rear Admiral

MOUNT'S MURDER The Executive Committee of the Church Service League was to have held a meeting, but a quorum not being present a formal meeting was Declares Two Students Overpowered done away with and the Rev. Mr. Youth While Third Filled His Hyde, chairman of the League, gave Mouth Full Of Sand. a very clear and concise outline of the purposes of the League and the way it had worked and the way he Chicago, Ill., June 6 .- John Strom, The first deanery meeting of the hoped to have it work in this dio-outh Eastern deanery was opened to have it work in this dio-totage by Mrs. W. This dio-totage by the Chicage Daily Journal to the bers would be really unfair to the search one was a gem in itself. South Eastern deanery was opened at St. Mary's Episcopal church, with S. Leets, president of the Woman's as declaring he saw a boy resembling an ordination service yesterday morn- Auxiliary of the Diocese, who out- Leighton Mount, Northwestern uni-

words, expressed his delight at having been able to visit this parish.

from which, he said, some of the best

students of the University had come.

PAGE'SIX

Charles Daniel Herring was orly after which the Rev. Lowis D. hold in reverence the order of dea-the Church Periodical Club, by Mrs. ton said Strom had told unusual Reichstadt; ery came to a close. to the fact that by preaching the word of God had the Apostles and the outlying towns being present, ing said he was fishing on that garet Engelkemeier; "Told at Twi-Christ Himself turned many to a Miss Augusta Robb, of Union, being morning, and saw and heard three light," Katherine Harris; "Gipsy better life. That only by setting on present from Christ church, Wyomfire the souls of the people and turn- ing. and representatives from all the made better and not by preaching those who came from Omaha and chicken house. pet theories and popular subjects. Plattsmouth.-Nebraska City Press. which, said the Bishop, was so much in vogue in our day.

DEANERY MEETING

Rev. and Mrs. Leete and Madam

Leete of This City All Have

Parts on Program.

AT NEBRASKA CITY

Rev. S. P. Jones, of St. Paul's church, From Saturday's Daily. Omaha, presented the candidate to Yesterday was the seventy-fourth the Bishop for ordination. After the birthday anniversary of Mrs. W. L. questions were answered affirmative- Street and in honor of the occasion ly the Litany was read by Dean Ar- the family was entertained at dinthur P. S. Hyde, rector of Trinity ner at the home last evening. This church, Lincoln. The Epistle was read by the Rev. W. S. Leete, rector B. Martin, who is also celebrating He was fighting for all he was worth, Index fighting f church, Lincoln. The Epistle was of St. Luke's, Plattsmouth, who is her seventy-fourth birthday, are enalso Chaplain to the Bishop. After tertaining at the home of Mrs. Marstepped inside the sanctuary and read the Gospel. At the administering of the communion the Bishop administered the paten and the Rev. B. E. Diggs, missionary south of the Platte, the chalice.

of Plattsmouth, well improved. 160 After the ordination service the acres at $225 per acre; 135 acres visitors and others repaired to the with two sets of improvements at open his mouth and stuffed it full Guild room where a bountiful lunch- $200 per acre. Also one modern of sand. Then the boy stopped con had been provided by the ladies house and eight other residences in of St. Mary's. Twenty-six sat down Plattsmouth for sale. Cass county to luncheon after which the Bishop land for sale-207 acres at $125 an called upon the only minister who acre; 200 acres at $100 per acre. had not had some part in the service to thank the parish and the ladies

F. G. EGENBERGER,

BE OFFERED AT AUCTION ON

Saturday, June 16th,

at MYNARD, NEBRASKA-

Those wishing to purchase some good tools, now is your time to get them. Sale begins at one o'clock p. m.

J. F. STRAUBE, Owner

REX YOUNG, Auctioneer.

Real Estate and Insurance.

FARMS FOR SALE

dained deacon. The service began at followed by the Rev. Mr. McMillin, early in the morning of September "Wake Up Little Daisies," by Ellsten forty-five with the processional who is chairman of the Religious 22, 1921, the date of Mount's disap-worth. hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy" immediate- Board of Education of the diocese. pearance after a class-rush. Strom's story, as related by the were: "Jack in the Pulpit," Dorothy He took for his subject two things Smith, Dean of the South Eastern that are important at this time-the Journal, was told for him by Harry Wooster; "Hallowe'en Revels," Ruth summer school at Sioux Falls, S. D., Cook, a chum of young Mount. Warga; "Grandfather's Fiddle," Robnal in which is set forth the necessi-ty of the three orders of the ministry ious education. After a talk on "The story to an Evanston policeman on Trively; "Jolly Darkies," Frances as held to in this church since the Girls' Friendly Society," by Mrs. that day and that no attention was Ghrist; "Pixie's Good Night Song," days of the Apostles. This was fol- Diggs, diocesan president, and Mrs. paid to it, testified recently in the Robert Wurl; "Country Dance," Irma lowed by a sermon by Bishop Shay- Lewis D. Smith, branch secretary, state's attorney's investigation, but Pitman; "Minuet in G," Ruth Mann;

WAS WITNESS TO

cons, as the first martyr of the church Joshua G. Leete, the first deanery stories at other times and little Libershal; "Misereri" from "Il Travowas a deacon, Stephen. In speaking meeting of the South Eastern Dean- credence was attached to his state- tore," Ethel Quinton; "Gavotte," ments. The weather prevented many from youths shouting and laughing on the beach. He said they told him they Wild Rose," Sarah Rector; ing them to good deeds was the world organizations of this parish, besides had another boy imprisoned in a in E," Florence Kaufmann; "Mediherence of speech.

to eat sand to keep healthy. but there were three of them and he didn't have a chance.

"They dragged him down to the TO CLOSE CLUB sand and threw him down and sat on him. He was fighting and struggling all the time. I thought it was all fun, and didn't interfere. Two good farms four miles south "Then the two smaller ones held him down while the taller one pulled struggling and lay still. I asked them if they had hurt him, and they told me to mind my own business." Strom insisted he saw the trio place the still form under a pier after prying up a plank. From Saturday's Daily. The skeleton believed by the authorities to be that of Mount was found under a pier on April 30, and

Fort Worth, Tex., June 8.-Three the Ku Klux Klan, an organization this period. During the time the When General Pau visited San Fran-BLACKSMITH TOOLS AND SOME STOCK WILL which tonight was officially recog- rooms are closed the furniture will cisco in 1918, "Grandpa" Chaudeur nized as the auxiliary to the Knights all be gone over and placed in the handed the French general his savof the Ku Klux Klan by Imperial best of condition for the re-opening ings to be used for France.

day from Dallas, Houston, Waco, with the needs of a growing mem-Austin and San Antonio in special bership. At the meeting it was also voted trains. that the post would sponsor the There were many special floats, including one which bore the in- forthcoming Plattsmouth radio conscription. "Wives and Sweethearts of cert from WOAW, Omaha, on the night of July 9th, when the Eagles the K. K. K.'s of the Sixties." band, together with a few soloists, will "tell the world" more about the Tenth United States Infantry. See F. G. Egenberger for real es- fine musical talent available in this tate and insurance. Office 7th and Vine street. Tel. 372. m9-tfd for Plattsmouth, for the Legion, for

When your letterheads, envelopes, statements or other printed forms behave more ready for you promptly. phone 389-J.

The program was opened by a trio by Robert Livingston, Jack Troop lined the work expected of the wom-en of the diocese this year. She was placed under a pier in Evanston gave as a solo, "Swing Song" and

Lillian Freeman was well filled by a

that was given. The rooms were that any comment as to their numbers would be really unfair to them.

the scene

large number of the parents and was remembered by a very handsome friends of the young people com- bouquet from the Plattsmouth State prising her piano pupils to enjoy bank on the opening day for which the exceptionally pleasing program they feel very appreciative.

Every one of the young people taking part did so exceptionally well ENTERTAIN AT A

M. Robertson Home is Scene of nett Mitchell, another member of the Delightful Kensington Yester-Other numbers on the program

"The Village Blacksmith," Dangard "The Tulip," Teressa in decorations of pink and white, when the agents were certain of pink roses being used very extens- seizing the counterfeit plates.

Theresa Donat; "Barcarolle," Margaret Bauer; "On the Meadow," Mar-Rondo." Catherine Flynn; "To a

tation," Verna Meisinger; "The But- and the advertisement game by Miss "Then the three said they would terfly," Marie Meisinger; "Love's Hazel Dovey. At an appropriate hour get him and make him eat sand." Dream Waltz," Kathleen Troop; "The was served that added to the pleas-After singing another hymn, the PASSES HER 74TH BIRTHDAY Strom was quoted as having told Fountain," Helene Perry; "Song of was served that added to the pleasyoung Cook, who related the story Love," Charlotte Nielson; "Second ures of the occasion. The invited because of Strom's somewhat inco- Valse," Ruth Janda; "Arbutus," El- guests were: Misses Dora Fricke, sie Nielson; "Humoresque," Alice "I protested. 'The sand might get Lorenz; "Pas des Amphores," Helen Murphy; Mesdames E. H. Spangler, into his lungs and kill him,' I said, Clement; "Spring Song," Edith Quin- J. E. Wiles, L. L. Wiles, Elbert but they answered that we all had ton; "The Brownies," Helen Wurl; Wiles, G. E. DeWolf, J. W. Crabill,

HEATED SEASON

Will Re-Open in September with New

Equipment to Meet Needs of Growing Membership.

committee or the Auxiliary.

Mable White, Hazel Dovey, Mae "Hark, Hark, The Lark!" Olive Bon- F. R. Gobelman, W. A. Robertson, ge: "The Chase," Helen Wiles; "Pre- L. O. Minor, Searl S. Davis, W. S. Leete, F. E. Pfoutz, H. G. McClusky, William Baird, Allen J. Beeson, E. H. Wescott, Frank A. Cloidt, P. J. Flynn, A. Ghrist, James W. Holmes, Kittie Cummins Roberts, A. D. Caldwell, E. A. Wurl and A. G. Cole. ROOMS DURING THE

VERY PLEASANT

day Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Ray-

nond P. Westover, Miss Jessie M.

of friends at the cozy home of Mr.

ively in the color scheme and on the dining room table. During the afternoon a kensington was enjoyed and

two games also assisted in the diver-

From Saturday's Daily.

OLDEST MEXICAN WAR VETERAN CELEBRATES

San Francisco, June 8.-Urban Chaudeur, oldest surviving member of the Mexican war of 1846-48, on the pension rolls of the United States government, celebrated the 100th anniversary of his birth here today. "Grandpa" Chaudeur was born At the meeting of the Executive in Alsace-Lorraine on June 8, 1823. committee last night, it was voted to and came to the United States in close the club rooms of Hugh Kearns 1846. He fought for the United States post, American Legion, until the 1st of September, except for the holding in the battle of Buena Vista in the of meetings of the post, its executive Mexican war, when the slogan of the Americans was: "Remember the The coming months will be the Alamo." While he has been a resi-heated season of the year, and in dent of this country, since 1846. previous years it has been found the Chaudeur did not forget his motherhousand members of the Women of club rooms were little used during land in the world war crisis in 1918.

Wizard H. W. Evans, paraded thru the streets of the business district. Delegations arrived during the lat furniture purchesed to keep pace me:

"'You have taken care of your little Lorraine. I congratulate you in the name of France," said Mr. Chaudeur.

Mr. Chaudeur is one of the fifty Mexican war veterans, survivors of the 112,230 who fought for America. He was a private in Company B,

Those who are desiring to take a course of instruction in the Dennison the band, and for everyone concernart paper work, including baskets, flowers and all paper novelties, will gin to run low, call us up. We will Ed Schulhof, Piano Tuner. Tele- be accommodated at the Bates Stationery store, 5th and Main.

Jeff Conrad, who was charged S. S. Robinson, acting commander-inwith having designed the plates chief of the battle fleet: with Robert Timroth and Antonio

"In view of President's arrival at Seattle, department desires battle fleet itinerary modified so that all forces in Pudget Sound waters may be assembled off Seattle not later than July 26, prepared to be reviewed by the President of the United States July 27."

About fifty naval vessels will form the concentration, including the bat-Robertson and Mrs. Roy J. Fuller en- counterfeited stamps and labels, was tle ships, Texas, Oklahoma, Califortertained very delightfully a number declared by Chief Palma to have nia, Arizona, Nevada, Mississippi, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Tennessee and and Mrs. James M. Robertson on months secret service operatives had Maryland. The Maryland will have completed the calibration tests of her 16-inch batteries off the Virginia Capes barely in time to traverse the canal and join the fleet.

which manufactured illicit liquors. Advertise your wants in the Jouranother used counterfeit medical sion of the guests, the proverb game prescriptions to deplete the supply nal for results.

Modart Corsets

Always Front Laced

Come in to our corset department and let us show you a Modart Corset or Girdle. You will at once be impressed with it. We ocer Modarts in a wide variety of interesting models-in many materials-appropriate for any wardrobe and any figure type.

Prices are $3.50 and up.

Public Auction

