The place is covered by large trees which would afford shade for the bathers and make the taking of the swim more enjoyable.

Found it a Long Road

Two of the young men of Nehawka who were fortunate enough to receive visits from two young ladies of Lincoln with whom they went to Omaha with to enjoy the day in the parks of the city on their return home were not familiar with the road leading from Omaha to Lincoln where they desired to take the young ladies and finally found themselves in Fremont and attempting to correct their route they again missed the goal and when they found where they were the next time it was at North Bend and just sixty miles from their destination. From there they were able to make the road to the capital city and then home to Nehawka arriving here at 7:00 a. m. The road was a long one but happy as they were accompanied by two

Hear of Death of Relative
Last Monday a message came telling of the death of Mr. Frank Pepple of Latonia, Ohio, who is an uncle of Mrs. H. M. Pollard and the Switzer boys. Mr. Pepple is a man well advanced in years and has made his home in Ohio for most of his life. The funeral and burial will be at the Ohio town today (Thursday). The relatives here will not find it possible to attend the burial of the aged relative.

Will Play Sunday
Arrangements have been made for a game of ball at Nehawka when the team of Hamburg, Ia., will come over to the city where entertainment of visitors is one of their main pastimes and an excellent game of ball is promised for all who care for this particular sport.

Brother Much Better
When Mr. D. D. Adams, our esteemed fellow citizen arrived at the home of his brother John Adams near overton he found the brother pretty badly tramped and bruised by the horse but not so dangerous as the earlier reports would signify. Mr. Adams is, however, very sore and quite badly injured, but is getting along nicely. Mr. D. D. Adams arrived home last Friday and was rejoiced that his brother was getting along so well.

The Oil Proposition
The matter of drilling for oil which is to begin in shortly in this neighborhood is now in shape for the shipping of the machinery which it is expected will be arranged for in a short time. It is hoped that their efforts will be successful and that they will find a gusher which will make of Nehawka the metropolis of Cass county if not of the state of Nebraska.

Some Substantial Improvements
Olaf Lundberg, proprietor of the Lundberg garage, is not waiting for the oil boom to develop but is making the improvements which will place him in a better position to look after the needs of his customers. He has had Messrs. Miller & Gruber making a concrete driveway in the front of his place of business with a gutter the entire length of his front. With the addition of a new filling pump and the free water and air service he will be up to date in his business and this will be appreciated by the traveling public.

Play Ball at Manley
The Nehawka ball team on last Sunday with a number of their friends of this city went to Manley where they had a most enjoyable game at that city of the ball fans and good players. The game resulted in a victory for the Nehawka team by the score of 7 to 4. However, the game was a good one and enjoyed by all who witnessed the contest as well as by those who participated in it.

Masons Install Officers
On Wednesday of this week the Masonic lodge of Nehawka installed at their regular session the officers elected for the ensuing term. The Masonic lodge of Nehawka is very prosperous and has been doing some very good work and have from time to time added a number of very good members which has strengthened their already strong organization. The officers elected and which have been installed are: Robert H. Chapman, worshipful master; Herman L. Swanson, senior warden; E. A. Nutzman, junior warden; D. C. West, treasurer; H. L. Thomas, secretary; A. C. Anderson, senior deacon; Charles Swan, junior deacon; J. G. Wunderlich and J. M. Palmer, stewards; W. B. Banning, tyler.

LINCOLN LADIES HAVE A PICNIC AT NEHAWKA HOME

Womans Relief Corps of the Capital City Entertain at Home of V. P. Sheldon and Wife.

On Thursday of last week the members of the Farragut Corps of the W. R. C., No. 110, as is the custom, went out into the country for a picnic, and on this occasion, accepted the invitation of Mrs. V. P. Sheldon, who is a daughter of one of their members, Mrs. J. F. Stout, and held their annual picnic in Nehawka, holding their gathering on the beautiful lawn of Mayor and Mrs. V. P. Sheldon and were entertained by Mrs. Sheldon and her sister, Mrs. R. C. Alford, as well as the mother, Mrs. Stout.

At the noon hour, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Sheldon provided a sumptuous dinner of fried chicken and other delicacies for the sixty-two members who came for the occasion. There were five auto loads, besides a bus which brought twenty-nine of the capital city ladies.

They were provided with an excellent program, which they carried out and which was enjoyed by all those who were privileged to be present. The porch and lawn had been decorated with flags and bunting for the occasion and presented a very patriotic appearance.

Addresses of welcome were made by Mayor Sheldon and wife, which were responded to by the president of the Relief Corps, Mrs. Laura Olsen, followed by one by Mrs. Maude Kelek, department president. These ladies spoke regarding the work of the order and their aims and what they expected to do in the future.

Mrs. Mary Wakeley, department secretary, in her address, told of the doings of the Relief Corps at Lincoln and was followed by Mrs. Minnie Bills, department advisor. In each of the addresses was expressed a feeling of friendship and thankfulness for the courtesies shown by the genial host and hostess.

There were other short addresses, with a mandolin solo by Mrs. Alford of Lincoln. Mrs. R. C. Alford, of Elmwood, gave two very interesting and entertaining readings; Miss Isadore Stone gave a reading, "The Woman Behind the Man," which was so admirably rendered that an encore gave the assemblage another reading which was also greatly enjoyed. By request, Mrs. Florence White, of Lincoln, rendered very adeptly "Your Flag and My Flag," which was applauded lustily. Mrs. A. E. Kirkpatrick entertained the assemblage with an army song and a humorous reading.

Punch was served during the afternoon and about four in the evening the picnickers returned to their homes in Lincoln well pleased with the day's enjoyment and thanking the good people of Nehawka, and especially Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon for providing the pleasant occasion.

FAMILY REUNION SUNDAY

Last Sunday at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Thomas at Nehawka was held a reunion of the members of the family of Mrs. Thomas, with the exception of her brother, Ensign Cedrick Eaton, who is at present an officer on active duty in the United States navy.

The day was most pleasantly spent at the Thomas home, where all enjoyed the company of the others, and also were entertained by music, songs and social conversation.

The cats were not forgotten, as an abundance of the good things of the land was provided those present. Among the relatives to take part in this delightful gathering were Mrs. J. Forsythe, of Lincoln, the great-grandmother of Mrs. Thomas; her three children, A. C. Adams and family and Oliver Adams and family of Lincoln; D. V. Stephen and wife; M. L. Keefer and wife and daughter Doris, also of Lincoln; J. W. Gamble and wife and Joe Eaton and wife, of Omaha.

MARRIED AT LORTON

At Lorton was celebrated on last Sunday the wedding of Miss Ella Steffens, sister of J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson, of Nehawka, when she was joined in holy wedlock with Mr. Frank Schroeder of near Lorton, where the groom is a prosperous farmer of that vicinity.

The ceremony was of the ring variety, the ring being borne by little Vern Steffens, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Steffens. The Rev. C. Eller pronounced the magic words which made this couple man and wife.

The bride, Miss Ella Steffens, who is a teacher, has been in charge of the public schools at Hallam for the past two years. The newly wedded couple will make their home on a farm near Lorton, where the home has been prepared by the groom for the coming of his bride.
