

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the interests of the People of Nebraska and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

WHEN YOU GO TO SWEEP AND CLEAN THE HOUSE

Do not forget that we sell The Hoover Electric Sweeper, the best on the market. Call on us for a demonstration. We are Selling Tires and Tubes at a Marked Reduction for a Limited Time — Buy Now!

The Lundberg Garage

Nehawka, Nebraska

J. W. Magney and Ernest Kropp were attending the picnic at Union last Saturday.
C. M. Christweisser was looking after some business matters in Murray on last Thursday.
J. M. Johnson was looking after some business matters in Omaha last week, making the trip in one of his autos.

A. C. Anderson and Wm. Ost were looking after some business matters in Omaha last Thursday, driving over in their auto.

F. H. Johnson and family northeast of Weeping Water were visiting for Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Pollard.

Mrs. T. E. Fulton departed Tuesday of this week for Wayside, where she went to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Stoll and family.

Frank McConnell and the family were enjoying the Old Settlers picnic last Saturday and found many friends there as well as having an excellent time.

When it comes to painting and varnishing, Herman L. Thomas is some artist as we can testify, for we saw him in the act at the Missouri Pacific station.

Mr. Doll, the log man, with the assistance of H. H. Stoll and Ray and Nick Klarens, loaded a car of walnut logs for shipment to Des Moines last Monday morning.

Glen Whiteman and wife, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Whiteman, were visiting with their many friends while taking in the Old Settlers' reunion at Union last Saturday.

The Pollard Brothers, Hall and Merritt, received forty head of feeding cattle from South Omaha last Monday which they will put on feed and return to the market when they are ready.

L. C. Todd and daughter, Mrs. Lyle Bonner and her son, Master Leonard Todd Bonner arrived in Union, where they are visiting with friends. They made the trip with their auto and report the country looking very fine.

The new home of J. M. Palmer, which has been under construction for the past few months, is held up again for some time awaiting the arrival of mill work. But he is hopeful of getting it in readiness for the coming winter when it will be most appreciated.

The horseback riding practice is growing much in interest with the girls who are making the practice one of the adjuncts of good health. The girls about Nehawka are very healthful anyway and the excellent exercise is adding much to their beauty as well as their good health.

Postmaster Will S. Smith, of Murray, was looking after some business in Nehawka last Monday and was accompanied to his town of Murray by the representative of the Journal, whose car was enjoying a slight indisposition, which the doctor said was of such a magnitude as to keep it home for the day.

At the funeral of Grandma St. John, which was held on last Monday, her relatives who selected the pall bearers, they being A. C. Munn, Warren Munn, Silas Munn of near Nehawka, Wm. Kropp of Wyoming and Richard Deles Dornier of Elmwood. Burial took place in the Wyoming cemetery.

Walter J. Wunderlich and wife and Mrs. D. C. West, also little Bobbie were visiting and looking after some business matters in Omaha on last Monday, making the trip in their car. They were accompanied by Mr. Glen Rutledge, publisher of the Nehawka Enterprise, who was looking after some business matters for the day.

Nels Anderson and wife have returned from their extended visit at their former home in Massachusetts, where they spent the last four weeks and where they surely enjoyed the occasion. They had not been there for some sixteen years and found the little ones whom they had known as children grown to men's and women's estate. They arrived home on last Friday.

Julius Rheuman was a business visitor at Charlton, Iowa, last week, where he purchased two of as fine Jacks as could be found in the entire country. The animals weigh respectively 1,000 and 1,100 pounds, are both black and are named Chief Mammoth and Big Bone Jumbo. Mr. Rheuman returned home last Thursday and says that the crops in Iowa are looking fine with the single exception of the corn, which is blown over some.

Hon. E. M. Pollard and wife entertained at their home last Sunday a number of friends, where all enjoyed the atmosphere of hospitality and friendliness which is characteristic of this home. There were present on the occasion, Wm. Roney and wife, Kenneth Finlayson and wife, Edwin Gray, Sr. and wife, all the ladies being sisters of Mrs. Pollard, and Frank Waterman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Waterman being parents of Mrs. Pollard. The occasion was one of much pleasure to all who were present.

Mrs. Colvin Very Sick
Mrs. Rachel Colvin, mother of Mrs. A. F. Murdoch has been very sick at the home of her son for the past week, and while everything possible is being done for the patient, there has been but very little improvement to date.

Dr. Davis of Omaha was down to see the good lady and her son, Oliver Murdoch and wife of Furnas county, have arrived to assist in her care. C. M. Christweisser and wife and Z. W. Shrader and wife were up last Sunday to see the patient.

Two Shorthorn Bulls
I have two Shorthorn Bulls, both excellent individuals, for sale. One six months old and one two years old. Anyone wanting a good bull had better write, phone or come and see them.—Harry Knabe, Nehawka, Neb.

Chautauqua a Great Success
The people of Nehawka are to be congratulated on the success of their Chautauqua, when it is considered that there were all the time other attractions which were a drawing card at no great distance. Like the rebuilding of the walls of Jerusalem under the direction of Nehemiah, all had a mind to work. The carpenter assisted the brick layer, while the blacksmith helped the painter and the work went forward and the Chautauqua was a great success.

Those who did the most, said that it was the combined work of a loyal people to one of the best little towns in the state.

The Ball Game Last Sunday
Last Sunday the Sun Printers of Omaha came to Nehawka and one of the best ball games was played here that it has been the good fortune of the people of this vicinity to see in a long time, when they were defeat-

BEING thicker, the famous Good-year All-Weather Tread carries you farther than other treads. And it carries you in greater safety, too. The big tough sharp-edged blocks cut deep and grip tight on any surface. They are the best tire insurance against skidding you can buy.

As Good-year Service Station Dealers we sell and recommend the best Good-year Cords with the bested All-Weather Tread. Treat your tires with us with standard Good-year Service.

PLATTSMOUTH MOTOR CO.
A. O. Ault.....Cedar Creek
A. D. Baake.....Murray
W. T. Richardson.....Mynard
Union Auto Co.....Union

ed by the local team to the tune of 3 to 2. McConnell and Griffin did the work in the delivering and receiving end of the game, McConnell giving the strangers something to guess about and they only found him for two hits while our boys hit their crack pitcher five times.

There were seven strike outs for each side. Mr. Griffin, our catcher, did excellent work behind the bat as well. The battery for the visitors was Ferris and Montague. There will be a game at Nehawka on this coming Sunday between the Nehawka and Union teams.

A Letter to Parents

School will start September 10th, thus allowing all who wish, an opportunity to attend the state fair. The building is being put in fine shape, the old portion of the building being casomined and the walls repaired. The building has thus been made much lighter and more wholesome. A water fountain has been installed in the east entry and the well cleaned out.

There will be four new teachers next year. The faculty will be as follows:

L. W. Burby, superintendent and instructor in Agriculture.

Miss Helen Owen, who taught English last year, will be back and will be principal.

Miss Dorothy Greenhalgh will be the new teacher in Home Economics and Science. She graduated from the University in the mid-year and has been working for the Red Cross at Ashland. She is well prepared for her position and these taking work under her should get a good understanding of the subjects.

Miss Kathryn Reyman, who also graduated from the University last year, will teach Latin and Mathematics. She is well prepared and in addition to her scholastic work is considerable of an athlete. She will coach the girls' basket ball team.

In the grades, Miss Esther Albert will take the primary room. As she has taught here before, many people are already acquainted with her. She has taken more work, preparing her especially for the primary grades.

Miss Nellie Dickinson, who graduated from Peru last spring will teach the Third and Fourth grades. She has taken special work and should make us a good teacher.

TWO EXCELLENT JACKS

I have just purchased two excellent Jacks, weighing 1,000 and 1,100 pounds respectively, 4 and 5 years old — both black. I will keep them at Nehawka for service. Prices right and all care exercised to prevent accidents.

JULIUS RHEUMAN,
Nehawka, Nebraska

Miss Grace Steinhilber will be back to teach the Fifth and Sixth grades as will Miss Hazel Scott for the Seventh and Eighth.

Prospects are bright for an exceptionally good school year, and the cooperation of the parents is greatly desired. The first day there will be but a half session so that the teachers may get their work in order.

L. W. BURBY, Sup't.

PASSING OF A HIGHLY ESTEEMED NEHAWKA LADY

Mrs. Jane Elizabeth St. John, Resident of State Since 1874, is Called to Her Reward.

Gently, and at a ripe old age of eighty-three years of age, Mrs. Jane Elizabeth St. John, passed away Sunday, August 26th, 1923, at the home of her son, C. D. St. John at Nehawka. Her going removed from the community one of the most highly esteemed members and from the family circle a loved member.

Jane Elizabeth Munn was born December 10, 1840, in Wayne county Ohio, where she spent her younger years. She united with the Baptist church in her home at an early day. While attending an academy at Seville, Ohio, she met Howell Francis St. John, whom she married on March 16, 1859.

Of their five children three preceded both mother and father namely Arvilla, who died at the age of three months; Mortimer and Clarence, both of whom were twenty-eight years of age at the time of their death.

With her family she moved to Nebraska in 1874 where she lived on a farm for many years. With her husband she spent several winters in Florida and in 1906 they moved to Bellingham, Washington, where they lived for five years. It was while there they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Their return to Nebraska was due to the illness of Mr. St. John, which continued poorly until his death on March 1, 1918.

The death of Mrs. St. John at the home of her son, C. D. St. John, took a mother from Charles Day St. John, of Nehawka, and Genia De Bark-her in Weeping Water; a sister from Arvilla Campbell of California and Warren Munn of Nehawka; a grandmother from eight grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

The funeral services were held on Monday at p. m. from the St. John home in Nehawka and very largely attended by old friends and neighbors. Mrs. Harold Betts and Mrs. Bell Bouck, accompanied by Miss Hazel Carper, sang "Under His Wing," "Abide With Me," and "Lead Me Gently Home, Father." Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union conducted the services in his usual impressive manner. The body was laid to rest in the Wyoming cemetery near Wyoming, Nebraska.

DRAWS DOWN FINE

From Tuesday's Daily.
The County Attorney A. G. Cole was the one lively spot in the county court house today as Justice William Weber was staging a session of his court there and the hearing of a complaint charging Virgel Kirtrell with assault on the person of Archibald Towle was the well under discussion. Mr. Kirtrell, it is alleged, did strike Mr. Towle as the result of an argument arising when Mr. Kirtrell charged that Towle had aided his father in getting something to drink from the well of a well known one-half of one per cent that Mr. Volstead has made so unpopular. The argument waxed hotter and hotter and it was charged that Mr. Kirtrell smote Mr. Towle a mighty blow on the nose that resulted in the member being badly sprained and the calling of the law into the affair. After hearing the evidence in the case Justice Weber handed down a decision fining Mr. Kirtrell the sum of $10 and costs. The case attracted a large number from the vicinity of South Bend where the parties reside.

VISITS FRIENDS HERE

From Tuesday's Daily.
This morning Mrs. J. H. Salsbury and son, Russell of Lyons, Nebraska, departed for their home in the north state after a few days visit here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rawls. Mrs. Salsbury and son were accompanied as far as Omaha by the Rev. J. H. Salsbury, but who was called onto New York by the news of the illness of his father there. Russell, who was a very small boy when his parents were residents here, where Dr. Salsbury was pastor of the Presbyterian church is now a young man and a student at the state university. The old friends of the family were very much pleased to enjoy a visit with Mrs. Salsbury and son.

HAS HAND INJURED.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Yesterday afternoon Mrs. W. A. Fight, residing near Mynard had the misfortune to suffer a very badly injured hand as the result of getting the first finger of her left hand caught in a power ring and it was quite badly injured before she could reverse the wringer and get the injured member out of the machinery. She was brought on to this city and the injured member dressed by a surgeon and she then returned home suffering more or less pain from the injury.

FEEL languid, weak, run down? Headache? Stomach "off"? A good remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters. Ask your druggist. Price, $1.25.

Advise your wants in the Journal for results.

Let Us Serve You!

There's not a man in this community who doesn't need the service a good, strong bank has to offer.

The Farmers State Bank is a strong, conservative institution, and we have an earnest desire to serve you.

Call on us at any time with your financial problems and it will be a pleasure to try and help you solve them.

A Friendly, Serviceable Bank

All Depositors are Protected by the Depositors Guaranty Fund of the State of Nebraska

Farmers State Bank

T. H. POLLOCK, President
Plattsmouth, Nebr.

LOCAL NEWS

From Monday's Daily.
L. R. Snipes, county agent was here from Weeping Water today looking after some matters of business.

Jennings Seybert was in Omaha today for a few hours attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

Bals Meisinger was a passenger this morning for Omaha to consult a specialist in regard to his health, which has been quite poorly of late. J. L. Meisinger and wife of Omaha are here to enjoy a short visit with the home folks while Mr. Meisinger is looking after some business matters.

County Commissioners Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water and C. F. Harris of Union were here today looking after some matters for the county.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Young, who are visiting in this county with their relatives and friends, departed this morning for Omaha where they will visit for a few days with friends there.

William Goehner and wife, of Seward, who were here spending a short time at the home of Mrs. Goehner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Dovey, returned this morning to their home.

Miss Mildred Snyder departed this afternoon for Seattle, Washington, where she will be engaged in teaching school the coming season. She was accompanied as far as Omaha by her father, George W. Snyder.

Everett Ward, of McCook, formerly a well known Plattsmouth young man, was here yesterday for a few hours visiting with friends and acquaintances and enjoying a short vacation before resuming his school work.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Emil J. Hill is spending a few days at home underwearer, having been on the sick list the past two days.

Frank H. Johnson of Weeping Water was in the city for a few hours today looking after some matters of business and visiting with old friends.

Roy Vickers, Fred and Arch Oberle and Kenneth Adams of Eagle were among the farm bureau boosters in the city this afternoon and were calling on their friends here.

Charles E. Heebner, former county commissioner, came up yesterday from his home to visit here for a short time with his many friends and to look after some matters of business.

T. E. Evans departed this morning for Omaha to visit for the day and will make arrangements for the departure of the family tomorrow for Wyoming where they expect to reside in the future as the health of Mrs. Evans has been very poorly of late.

J. A. Gardner, editor of the Eagle Beacon and the Pure Bred Stockman was here today with the farm boosters and while here was a pleasant caller at the Journal office for a fraternal call. Mr. Gardner has a very able farm paper and is a great booster for the pure bred stock of the county.

Cheapest accident insurance—Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. For burns, scalds, cuts and emergencies. All druggists sell it. 30c and 60c.

RECEIVES SAD MESSAGE.

From Tuesday's Daily.
This morning a message was received here by relatives announcing the sad news of the death of Bennett George, eight month old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Lamphere of Downers Grove, Illinois. The news came as a great sorrow to the relatives here and the many friends of the bereaved parents. The father of the little one is a son of George Lamphere of this city and the mother was formerly Miss Etta Hyde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Hyde. The funeral services will be held at Downers Grove.

Advertise your wants.

DR. H. C. LEOPOLD
Osteopathic Physician
Eyes Tested and Glasses Fitted
Union Block Phone 208
PLATTSMOUTH

QUALITY is not always measured by price. High prices may cover wasteful producing and selling methods; some prices are too low to provide good materials and tailoring.

You get a mighty good suit, at a big saving in price, when you buy Clothes Tailored to Measure by Born, because they are sold in great volume and produced under ideal conditions by an organization noted for its skill and efficiency.

F. P. SHELDON
Established 1888
PHONE NO. 14 NEHAWKA, NEB.

- Some Domesticity Exposed! -

"My dear," a wife said to her spouse,
"I think that we should build a house;
Of funds, I'm sure there is no lack—
We've lived too long in this old shack.
So let us plan what we shall do
To doff the old and done the new."

No time, to figure, then they lost;
They estimated close the cost—
The kind of windows and the doors,
The shingles, scantling and the floors.
And then they counted up their "tin"
And found that they could make her "skin."

When everything was settled pat,
They both arose from where they sat—
Her smiling "hub" she then embraced,
And kiss on kiss were rightly placed.
She whispered soft, he answered hard—
"You bet your life, at TIDBALL's yard."

Tidball Lumber Co.
When in a hurry, Call 40.
Plattsmouth -:- -:- Nebraska
Formerly Richey Lumber Yard.