NOTICE---To my old and new patients!

Owing to my rush of business in my Omaha office, for the month of July and August, I will be in Union in Dr. Race's office every two weeks beginning Aug. 25, from 9:30 till the rest of the day.

Don't forget---August 25 1923, Dr. Race's Office.

ing the Old Settlers reunion and also guests at the home of L. G. Todd and family as well as many other of their friends.

Nels Martin, who has been making his home at Lincoln for the past two years, was a visitor at the Old Settlers reunion, and with his many friends in an about Union, returning to his home at the state capital last Sunday afternoon.

W. O. Gillespie and wife and Miss Viola Everett, of Murdock, were in attendance at the Old Settlers' reunion last Saturday, and by the way this city of Murdock at their Ford day manifesting the real spirit of the town when they all worked together to bring about a real good time for all.

Mrs. W. A. Harding and baby, W. A. Jr., and son Vella and daughter Aneta, of Bethany, came over last Thursday to visit with Mr. Harding and attend the Old Settlers' reunion and remained until Saturday night, when they were accompanied home by Mr. Harding, who visited there over Sunday.

Earl Upton, of Burwell, accompanied by the family, arrived in Union last Sunday and are visiting for some time at the home of his parents and at the home of L. R. Upton, his brother. Mr. Upton is carrying the mail from his town to Ord, which is twenty miles away, but is taking a layoff just now for a short time.

Ira Clark, the barber, Fred Clark, the true sportsman and farmer living north of Union and G. L. Brinton, the Master Mason and plasterer of Elmwood are spending a week on the Missouri river hunting and fishing. Just what they will do with their game and fish is not at this time definitely known, but they will enjoy the occasion to the limit, that is a sure thing.

Mrs. S. M. Taylor who has been visiting for some time past at Sheridan, Mo., with relatives, returned home last Sunday evening and was accompanied by Mrs. E. S. Rowe and family, comprising her daughter, Miss Lena and son Otis, who are visiting for the week at the Taylor home. In company with the family, they were calling at Murray on last Monday evening, where they had some business matters to look after.

Edward Dowler was busy hauling hogs and cattle to the stock markets this week and on Tuesday made a pick-up load, beginning with some for H. A. Chilcott and making the rounds, getting some at Art Pearsley's and the rest at Carter Albini's and getting the load to South Omaha in time for the day's market at that. In the afternoon he took some cattle to the market for Art Crunk and brought home a load of sheep, which Mr. Crunk will feed.

Wanted: A sales lady who knows drygoods and can take charge of that department in a department store. One having worked in a small town preferred. Address P. O. Box 245, Plattsmouth, Neb.

Methodist Church Notes

There will be a picnic at the Corner Grove on Thursday of this week.

Wheat Stacks Burn
George H. Shrader suffered a severe loss last Sunday evening during the wind storm and rain, when the lightning struck and burned three stacks of wheat which he had ready for threshing, consuming them and causing an entire loss. Mr. Shrader had just returned from a business trip which had taken him to the western part of the state and was preparing to have the grain threshed. Even with the prices of wheat so low, he is sustaining a very severe loss.

This is a Good Move
After having tried the matter for years of keeping their business houses open on Sunday morning, which means until noon and in many cases a good deal after, the merchants of Union have awakened to the fact that there is nothing in the practice and have signed an agreement to keep their business houses closed on Sunday morning in the future, beginning with the first Sunday in September.

The Marrying Parson
The Rev. C. W. Savage of Omaha, a unique character in the Lord's vineyard, but with a most earnest worker, was one of the speakers on the program at the Old Settlers' reunion last Friday and delivered an address which went to the hearts of the people and was filled with wit and illustrated with many an amusing human interest story. This address was well received by all who were privileged to hear it.

Rev. Savage has the unique record of having united in marriage 5,670 couples and officiated at the funeral rites of 2,676 people, and his life has truly been one of service to the people among whom he has lived and labored. His church, located in the heart of Omaha's downtown district is very popular and is attended by a large number of people each week.

Rev. Savage will speak at the Murray community picnic this week and later will visit at the home of Frank Schlichtemeier and preach at Nehawka on the coming Sunday.

Proved an Excellent Nurse
Coming just at the time of the very serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Nettie Stanton, Miss Mary E. Foster was able to render service which was real in the nursing back to health of her sister, during her vacation. Miss Mary Foster, who is a teacher in the Omaha schools has been enjoying her annual vacation, and this time came just at the opportune time to render the assistance to the home which she so dearly loves. Of course this robbed her of some of her much needed vacation, for the work with which she is entrusted in Omaha is exacting and arduous and the rest would have been a boon to her, but she is feeling better for the duty which she performed.

Miss Mary returned to her work at Omaha last Monday morning and has proven herself an excellent nurse.

Had a Family Reunion

Last Sunday at the home of D. B. Lynde was gathered the family of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Lynde, and the circle was represented by C. B. Lynde, of Dallas, Texas, D. R. Lynde and wife of Kansas City, Mrs. Frank Friesberger of Bern, Kansas, Mrs. Charles McIntyre, of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Upton and family of Union. To say that they all had a most pleasant time would be putting it mildly.

They sure enjoyed every minute of the time and returned to their homes to take up their work again with the realization of an excellent time spent together.

Death of Infant
The stork visited the home of Albert Wilson and wife and left with them a little baby girl recently, but the little one was not destined to remain long with them and passed away on Sunday morning, August 25th.

Another little lamb has gone To dwell with Him who gave;
Another little darling babe Is sheltered in the grave.

God needed one more Angel child Amidst his shining band,
And so He bent with loving smile And clasped our darling's hand.

Card of Thanks
We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kind offerings to help at the time of the death of our babe and sister. We especially thank those who kindly did the work at the cemetery.—Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wilson and Relatives.

Miss Mata Ruge of Clay Center, Nebraska, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Shrader and family, returned this morning to her home.

R. L. Propst and Ed Wilcox returned home last night from Mitchell South Dakota, where they have been visiting the daughter of Mr. Propst at the Test home in that place.

J. A. King of Ashland, formerly a resident of near South Bend, was here today looking after some business.

Vacation Bible School Closes
The Daily Vacation Bible school at the Alvo Brethren church closed on Friday, August 17th. The closing program was given in the evening. The exhibit room, which was opened at 7:30, was soon crowded with parents and friends of the children who have been taking this training.

An attractive feature was the splendid electric maps made by the older boys who were under the supervision of Mr. Orville Quellhorst. The journeys of the life of Paul were traced on the maps.

The individuality of the older girls was shown in their carefully prepared note books, which told of the development of the early church as told in the book of Acts and in the framed picture.

The puzzle map of Palestine and animals were made by the junior boys. Ask them how they enjoyed the scroll saw work. Their teachers were Miss Minnie Harsh, of Lincoln, and Mrs. Susan Roelofs.

It was the Junior girls who made the Puzzle Bible Libraries. This class was taught by Miss Della Sutton and Mrs. Vida Miller.

The primaries taught by Miss Emma Jordan and the beginners taught by Mrs. Lois Briggs and Miss Ruby Wood, displayed their handiwork in various ways. The posters spoke of the spirit of their work.

The program illustrated a day of the school. Some interesting features were the songs and stories given by the younger children and the Bible dramas given by the older ones.

The junior boys gave "The Good Samaritan" and the older girls gave "The Ten Virgins." Mrs. Brobst directed the last named and assisted the girls in making the lamps which were used. The girls were dressed as Oriental maidens and the effectiveness of the play was increased by the song sung by Miss Lois Keefer.

At the close an offering of over $18 was taken for the expense of the school.

The total enrollment was sixty-two and the average attendance forty-six—twenty-four boys and twenty-two girls.

Much of the success of the school depended upon the co-operation of teachers and parents and the never-failing support of Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Stair, who assisted in every detail of the work. Miss Jessie Breen, the director left Saturday morning for her home in Kansas.

Best wishes for another successful school next year.
