Men freely believe that which they desire.

The burden which is rightly carried becomes light.

The bath tub will not take its vacation until winter.

A cold snap is when the coal man snaps his fingers at you.

Magazine writers are working on their Christmas stories already.

Pride would be acknowledged victor before it has won the battle.

No human performance can arrive at perfection without simplicity.

Uncles are your parents' brothers who have promised to help you some day.

Autumn comes in like a cup of hot coffee and goes out like a saucer of ice cream.

Not half enough straw hats with colored bands have been sat on since last spring.

Flies swatted this summer, placed end to end, reach the conclusion it isn't enough.

Biggest liar since June was a fisherman with arms long enough to tell the biggest lie.

A Kansas farmer is using his son for failure to find a wife, instead of finding him one.

The greatest surprise of the summer came to a mosquito who lit on a man's wooden leg.

Practically every ant in the United States has enjoyed at least one picnic this summer.

Only one case of a woodpecker lighting on a camper's head has been reported all summer.

Great thing about cool weather is all these funny named new soft drinks will be gone.

September is upon us. First fall month. Melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year.

When a girl speaks of her trunks next year you will wonder if she means baggage or bathing.

Nephews are your brothers' sons who come to your house and just stay and stay on and on.

A Chicago woman lost a $14,000 necklace in Paris. She could have lost more than that at home.

The Bible says that the fathers ate sour grapes and the children's teeth were set on edge and we notice that John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has to pay an income tax of $6,000,000.

It must just naturally run in the family. Mr. Volstead's daughter parked the family automobile in front of a watering trough so that thirsty horses couldn't get a drink.

The fact that women are not fitted to do many of things that men do is demonstrated nearly every day. Only last week a Kansas woman tried smoking a cigarette in bed and was burned to death.

Senator Hiram Johnson admits writing a letter saying he would like to be president. It's a laudable ambition, but perhaps he wishes he had worded it differently, so as to create the impression that he would rather be right than president.

Crosses has always been held up as an immensely wealthy plutocrat, but, as a matter of fact, the poor guy never even had a telephone number. There are folks in this town that have three or four of them and are so careless about it that they frequently get the wrong one.

The many friends of Governor Bryan throughout the state are boosting him for United States senator. From numerous reports Charley has a big chance of the solid support of the democracy, and he is very popular with many outside the party. He is very popular with many outside the party. He is making a good governor, and the great ability he is showing should land him in the U. S. senate.

This climate does not always agree with the calendar.

A wise man is never less alone than when alone.

Don't forget bargain day, Wednesday, September 19.

Education has for its object the formation of character.

Young girls are medium sized people who horrify parents.

Do your Christmas shopping early and avoid the warning.

Young boys are medium sized people who stupefy parents.

Where is the money you saved on coal during the hot months?

Brothers are your parent's boys who won't leave you alone.

Those planning all along to get back to work this fall will postpone it until winter.

Rich kinfolks are prosperous relations who give you advice and lend you no money.

Sisters are your parent's daughters who usually ought to be ashamed of themselves.

Just as boys are rushing off to college an Oregon professor quits to become a plasterer.

St. Louis, saw four brilliant meteors in one night. May have been politicians at play.

Married children are grown persons who are doing much better than everybody expected.

A Brooklyn baby that swallowed a toy auto will recover. Please tie your flivver outside.

Women are so touchy. A Detroit one asks divorce just because he split a plank over her head.

Seven Ohioans held a picnic up in a balloon, which is one way to keep things out of the lunch.

While Thomas Edison invents things at home his son invents excuses to return to college.

VETERAN CONDUCTOR
Tom Riley, veteran conductor on the Rock Island lines, finishes 57 years of continuous service and retires. He stuck to the same "boss" since 1866. En enviable record in the matter of public service.

Men like Tom Riley, patiently handling the routine of life, do not get into the news often, but they are the foundations of civilization. It's a pleasure to wish Tom Riley good luck in his years of much earned rest—many of which, we hope, are before him.

Unfortunately, it takes a lot of constructors like Tom Riley to counteract the work of the destroyers.

CASS CO. FARM BUREAU NOTES

$83 State Fair Money
Cass county Pig clubs won a total of $83 in prizes at the state fair. The following boys showed a total of 30 pigs: Cecil and Clifford Jacobson, Francis Walberg, Eagle, Rheo and Harold Timblin, Elmer Hoffman, Alvo; Frank Pollard, Marion Stone and Sterling Ingwerson, Nehawka. In the Poland China class, Cecil Jacobson won first on junior boar and litter. In junior gilt class of 35, Harold Timblin won second, Elmer Hoffman 4th and Clifford Jacobson, 10th. Hampshire, in boar class, Frank Pollard won 4th and also 2nd and 3rd in junior gilts. In Spotted Poland, Sterling Ingwerson won 1st in boars and 4th and 11th in gilts; Marion Stone won 4th in boars and 6th and 13th in gilts and 1st in litter. We are proud of these boys. Their local leaders are Byron McMahon, Eagle; Wm. Hoffman, Alvo, and Superintendent Burby, Nehawka.

Cecil Jacobson, Carl Hardnock and Frank Wolcott, the livestock judging team which represented Cass county, won second place in judging.

Hessian Fly
At the farm of Glen Perry, south of Plattsmouth, the experiment station on Hessian fly reports a few hatching. Between September 10-15 will be an interesting time to visit this station and everyone is urged to come. Prof. Wiser, of the Agricultural college, is there at all times and will be glad to talk to you. Do not miss this chance of learning all about the Hessian fly and the correct time of sowing wheat.

Clothing Clubs at Fair
Following are the awards won by Cass county Clothing clubs' girls at the state fair:
Dress Protector, 1st—Kitchen Apron, 1st—Princess Slip, 1st—Charlotte Joyce, Weeping Water.

GOOD YEAR
As a Goodyear Service Station Dealer we sell and recommend the new Goodyear tires with the tread and lock them up with standard Goodyear Service.

THE best footing your car can get on rain-swept streets and slippery hills is the gripping All-Weather Tread of a Goodyear Tire. The high, thick, sharp-edged blocks of that famous tread take a slippery hold and hang on with a wedgelike action that prevents side-slip or skidding.

Got any extraspace in your house? Take a few sheets of this different wallboard, a few hours' good carpentering—and you have a new playroom in the attic, a den, a sewing room, maid's room or extra bedroom. Sheetrock makes standard walls and ceilings, fire-proof, solid, tight-jointed, permanent, and mighty good looking, too.
