consist of Dry Goods, Underwear, Shoes and a number of articles which were left over from the closing out of the stock which was formerly carried by Mr. A. L. Becker. They must be closed out by October 15th.

A nice line of school supplies, which we will not continue to carry, will go very cheap.

Remember, also, we are carrying an excellent and up-to-date line of groceries, which we are selling so fast they never have time to get stale, at prices that will save you money.

As the cafe has again opened Mr. Wagner has discontinued the dining room at the hotel where his patrons have been cared for during the past two weeks.

- Some Domesticity Exposed! -

"My dear," a wife said to her spouse,
"I think that we should build a house;
Of funds, I'm sure there is no lack—
We've lived too long in this old shack.
So let us plan what we shall do
To doff the old and done the new."

No time, to figure, then they lost;
They estimated close the cost—
The kind of windows and the doors,
The shingles, scantling and the floors.
And then they counted up their "tin"
And found that they could make her "skin."

When everything was settled pat,
They both arose from where they sat—
Her smiling "hub" she then embraced,
And kiss on kiss were rightly placed.
She whispered soft, he answered hard—
"You bet your life, at TIDBALL'S yard."
