U. B. Triffy says

When a man wants to borrow trouble, lend him all you have!

Daddy! Those Children Think You're About "It!"

Whatever Daddy and Mother do is just right—you don't want them to be mistaken, do you? Certainly not.

Then teach them to know that the secret of prosperity is the ability to save money.

Help them learn the habit. We want to help you help them. Home banks are fine.

Open an account with us for "kiddies"—we'll show them the same courtesies we would you.

'CANAAH' SCENARIO APPROVED BY AUTHOR

Booth Tarkington Assists Director Neill in Preparation of Meighan's Newest Picture.

The filming of Booth Tarkington's "Conquest of Canaan," which will be presented by the Murray Community club next Saturday night, October 27th, is another example of the close co-operation of the author and producer, a new procedure in motion picture making recently inaugurated by the Paramount company.

Although the continuity for the photoplay was written by Frank Wright Tuttle, Mr. Tarkington revised the script, adding many pertinent suggestions that helped to catch the proper atmosphere.

Mr. Tarkington went through the scenario scene by scene at his home and made notes where he thought changes would improve the picture. He suggested changing the character of "Judge Pike," one of the principal figures in the book, and made other alterations which he said would strengthen the story materially.

Mr. Meighan's support includes such well known players as Doris Kenyon, leading woman, Diana Allen, Ann Engleton, Alice Fleming, Paul Everton, Louis Hendricks and Riley Hatch.

This play will be given at the Peterson hall in Murray on Saturday evening, October 27th, Admission 15 and 25 cents. Music by the Murray orchestra.

Phone us the news. We want to publish everything of importance that happens in Cass county.

Mrs. Throm has been in failing health for some time, suffering from internal cancer. She was taken to Memorial hospital five weeks ago, but there it was realized that her condition was hopeless, and she was taken home. However, she had been actually bedfast for only eight days.

Private funeral services are to be held at the house at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, in charge of Rev. R. F. McDaniel of Springfield, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of this city. Friends may view the body between the hours of eight o'clock and noon of Saturday. ### GIVE FRIEND A SURPRISE

From Wednesday's Daily—

Yesterday was the nineteenth birthday anniversary of Miss Margaret Sitzmann and in honor of the occasion the friends in the Burlington store department, where Miss Sitzmann is employed, decided to give her a pleasant reminder of the occasion and accordingly, with the members of the family entered into a conspiracy that allowed the surprise to be pulled off without the guest of honor being aware of the plans of the friends until they had all arrived at the Sitzmann home. The evening was spent in games of all kinds at which the party derived a great deal of fun and several musical numbers given during the evening assisted in making the event one that will long be very pleasantly remembered. Miss Sitzmann received many beautiful gifts from the friends who were present.

At an appropriate hour a very tempting two course luncheon was served, the members of the party coming with well laden baskets. At the home going hour the friends joined in extending to Miss Margaret their wishes for many more years of happiness.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sprecher, Mrs. Grace Sperry, Misses Katherine Lutz, Dorothy Sattler, Florence Thacker, Elizabeth, Ruth and Margaret Sitzmann, Messrs. Joe McCarty, Vincent Flincy, C. W. Morrison, Henry Ely and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sitzmann.

Lost anything? Advertise it.

The story of a typical American town. Of the "better sort" of folks who were "in." Of the "other sort" who were "out." Of a man of the people who came back home and set some wrong things right.

A rousing, fighting story with a heart of love. From the Famous Novel by Booth Tarkington.
