YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE MASKED HALLOWEEN PARTY

Junior Choir of the Presbyterian Church Has Fine Time at the Church Tuesday Night

From Saturday's Daily—
The junior choir of the Presbyterian church Sabbath school had a very unique and delightful social gathering in the church parlors on Thursday evening when they enjoyed a Halloween mask party. Many clever and attractive costumes were displayed and great enjoyment was taken in guessing "Who was who."

The children were indebted to Miss Pearl Staats and Miss Estelle Baird for the planning of the happy event and the delicious refreshments served to them.
The last feature of the evening was a story. The lights were out and with only the glimmer of the Jack-o'-Lanterns on the tables, Mrs. H. C. McClusky told Edgar Allan Poe's story of "The Black Cat." This sent plenty of shivers up and down their spines and gave them all the ghostly, spooky feeling they seemed to expect at the Halloween time.

This junior choir of twenty-four voices has been organized a year under the leadership of Catherine Schneider and Edith Parley and are a great help and inspiration to the Sabbath school.
Rev. and Mrs. McClusky and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rawls were guests at the party of the young people.

BLUE AND WHITE WIN GAME FROM WEEPING WATER

Plattsmouth High Team Wins From Weepers by Score of 14 to 0 —Player Badly Injured.

From Saturday's Daily—
With one of the best teams which has represented their school in a great many years, the Weeping Water high school football team came over yesterday afternoon and in a well played game were defeated by the score of 14 to 0 and gave a real battle to the local warriors who anticipated a fight with the boys from the central part of the county.

The Plattsmouth team showed better form in their passing and the punting of Chase was also a strong feature of the game as was the line smashes of Godwin and the quarter. The latter was also a factor at several critical stages of the game in ground gaining against the Weeping Water team.

The visitors had a very fast team of youngsters which was lighter than the local team and also had the misfortune of having in their quarter back, Joe Swindle, badly injured at the opening of the second half of the battle which deprived his team of his excellent work that he had showed in the opening portion of the game.

In the opening quarter the visitors kicked off to the locals and the ball was returned to their quarter by the opening of the second half of the battle which deprived his team of his excellent work that he had showed in the opening portion of the game.

The second kickoff was received by Wasley who fumbled and was caught on the Plattsmouth twenty yard line. The Weeping Water team in this portion of the game secured the ball when Plattsmouth failed to make its ten yards and tried several passes, which failed and resulted in the locals securing the ball. Chase punted to the Weeping Water twenty yard line and the ball was returned by the visitors on straight football tactics. Fleming of the Weeping Water team made an end run which was good for ten yards and advanced the ball further into the Plattsmouth territory. The half closed with the ball on the Plattsmouth thirty yard line.

In the first part of the second half Swindle had the misfortune in a line smash to have his collarbone fractured and was taken from the game which for a few moments demoralized the visitors' play as he had been the general of the team in the opening half. In this quarter the Plattsmouth team grew dangerous and threatened to score again on the visitors who advanced the ball to the four-yard line of the visitors' but on a fumble they lost three yards and were also penalized which took the ball away from the visitors' goal line and allowed the quarter to pass without scoring.

In the fourth quarter the Plattsmouth team again tallied when Chase punted to the visitors goal line and the ball was returned to the twenty yard line for the play. Krejci was able in a long run to advance the ball fifteen yards and Chase in a smashing drive tore through and planted the ball within a few inches of the visitors' goal. Wasley, full back, carried the ball over for the coveted score and Chase planted the ball for the goal kick.

The game closed with the ball in the Weeping Water territory and left the final result 14 to 0.

How Better Than Pills?

The question has been asked, "In what way are Chamberlain's Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills?" Our answer is, they are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then, they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

GEORGE STERNER HAS GONE TO HIS LAST LONG REST

Resident of Elmwood for a Good Number of Years Passes Away There This Week.

From Saturday's Daily—
Again death has visited our community and removed one of our citizens. Last Friday G. W. Sterner passed to that Great Beyond. He had been in poor health for some time, but during the past few weeks his condition gradually grew worse until the end; and while he was aware that the end was not far off he was cheerful and radiated a spirit of happiness no matter where he was. He has been identified with the business interests of this city for a number of years, and his son Jacob, conducting the Sterner Cafe.

The following is an outline of his life:
George William Sterner was born near Jamesville, Wisconsin, September 25, 1856, and died at his home in Elmwood at the age of sixty-seven years and twenty-four days.

In 1871 he came to Nebraska with his parents and they settled at Salem, in Richardson county. On December 8, 1881, he was married to Martha E. Beckman. To this union seven children were born: Mrs. Nate C. Hall of Eliza, Nebraska; Edward W. of Page, Nebraska; Elmer, of Nebraska City; Mrs. Alfred Peck, of Tecumseh; Jacob, of Elmwood; Charles, of Elk Creek, and one girl who died in infancy.

All the children were at his bedside at the time he passed away. Besides his sorrowing wife and children, he leaves two brothers, three sisters and twenty-three grandchildren to mourn his loss.

The funeral services were held from the Methodist church on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. The sermon was preached by Rev. Carter. The services were under the direction of the I. O. O. F. lodge of this place of which he was a member. Interment was made in the Elmwood cemetery.—Leader-Echo.
