VERY PLEASANT DINNER PARTY AT DONNELLY HOME

Members of Plattsmouth Birthday Journey to Omaha for Social Gathering Wednesday.

From Friday's Daily—
One of the pleasant social gatherings of the late fall season was the pre-Thanksgiving dinner given by Mrs. J. H. Donnelly at her home in Omaha to the members of the Birthday club of this city and in which the ladies had as their guests Mrs. Frank H. Dunbar and Mrs. Merner of Long Beach, California, who had been here as the guest of her cousins, the Misses Mia and Barbara Gering.
The ladies were first entertained at a matinee party at the Brandeis theatre, where they witnessed the performance of "The First Year," one of the season's most delightful comedies that has been presented in Omaha. After the theatre party, the ladies adjourned to the pleasant home of the Donnelly family, where they spent the remainder of the evening.
The rooms of the house were arranged in a color scheme of yellow and pink and in the decorations, carnations were used most effectively in the decorations of the table.
Those attending the event were Mesdames Henry Herold, J. A. Donelan, F. H. Dunbar, Mrs. Merner of Long Beach, Misses Mia and Barbara Gering and Dora Fricke.

JUNIOR RED CROSS DOES A GREAT WORK

Aid the Children of Other Nations and Find Pleasure in the Kindness of Their Service.

From Friday's Daily—
"All the children seem so anxious to make the foreigners happy." This was said by Hazel C. Bruce, secretary of the Junior Red Cross of Burt county chapter. It is interesting to read further of the account of how these children made the "foreigners" happy by filling Christmas boxes and sending them to be given at the coming Yuletide.
"About the middle of September, I sent a box to each of the rural schools and distributed them in the town school. A list of articles that might be put in the boxes, was published in the papers and it was not very long before letters came asking for more Christmas boxes. 150 boxes were distributed over the county and about 75 per cent were sent to the terminal. All the children seemed so anxious to make the little foreigners happy on Christmas day by filling their "box" instead of the usual stocking.
"This is the first year that the Junior Red Cross has been worked on in Burt county, and we certainly do intend to carry out the full program of the year to the best of our ability."
The efforts of Burt county have been duplicated with the same zeal in a large part of the 39 counties that have schools enrolled in Junior Red Cross, a total of 34,000 children in 734 schools, until Nebraska school children have filled 2,217 such boxes this fall to go with the total of 100,000 boxes to children in Europe and the Pacific Islands. So great has been the desire to participate in this project of the Juniors that many requests which were delayed could not be granted boxes. The children of Hayes county, through their Junior Chairman, Miss Grant Hayes Center, were sent word that "The Christmas box project is closed, since they were to be shipped to New York by October 25th. It is to be regretted indeed that your pupils will not have the opportunity to participate in the project this year."
This is only one of the many ways in which the Junior Red Cross aids to fulfill its "I Serve." Its service extends to their playmates, their own school, their community and unfortunate sufferers throughout the U. S. and foreign lands in so many ways that only children can serve.

NEW STANDARD OIL MANAGER IS APPOINTED HERE

From Thursday's Daily—
The Standard Oil company will have a new manager in this city commencing tomorrow, as the company has secured the services of Mr. Cyril Kalina, who enters on his duties tomorrow. Mr. Davidson, who has been the manager here, returns to Nebraska City, where he has property interests and will be located there in the future.
Mr. Kalina should make a very valuable man for the Standard people as he is a young man of many excellent qualities and has been with the firm of Bestor & Swatek for the past year as a clerk and will bring to the position his business ability and pleasing personality and will be found most agreeable to deal with by the public.

NEW OMAHA PAPER

The first issue of the South Omaha Sun as a daily paper will go to the press Saturday, December 1, according to the announcement from that city and the residents of South Side will receive their local news first hand from their own paper instead of the north Omaha dailies. The paper is under the management of E. N. Strahl, one of the popular and live wire members of the newspaper fraternity of the state metropolis and who has for the past few weeks been arranging for the starting of his new paper. The Journal joins in wishing the Sun a career of success in its field and the prosperity that the efforts of its promoter deserves.

FIND OLD TIME INVITATION, TEARING DOWN HOUSE

Observance of 57th Anniversary of the I. O. O. F. Here in 1876 Found in Old Building.

While the force of carpenters were engaged in tearing down the residence property on Elm street that was owned for many years by the late John Waterman, and which is being removed to make way for a more modern residence to be erected by John M. Leyda, the workmen came on an invitation that was issued in this city for the fifty-seventh anniversary of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows which was being held by Platte lodge No. 7 at the Fitzgerald hall in this city on April 26, 1876.

MERELY ADJUSTMENT OF RUNS

Engineers Equalizing the Mileage Between Divisions Cause Some Loss to Wymore.

From Friday's Daily—
A report from Wymore concerning the change of men on some of the runs of the Wymore division, by which Lincoln division engineers are given runs over part of the Wymore division, was discussed with some interest by railroad men here. This is said to be an arrangement worked out by the brotherhoods and a matter that does not greatly concern the railroad management, the division of mileage to be made by men from the different divisions being largely the brotherhoods control.
For year Wymore division engineers have been bringing trains to Lincoln over Lincoln division rails for a part of the distance. For years Wymore division engineers have been taking trains into St. Joe over St. Joe division rails for a part of the distance. Brotherhood men on the Lincoln and St. Joe divisions thought they were entitled to a division of mileage that would equalize. This was finally worked out under rules that apply.
Some years ago a similar adjustment was made between the Lincoln and Creston divisions and now Creston division men have run into Lincoln on some trains. Other adjustments are said to be imminent.

JOHN OLSEN PASSES TO HIS REWARD

Prominent Citizen of Elmwood Dies Last Sunday—Had Been in the Milling Business.

Again the reaper of death visited our community and removed another of our citizens, John E. Olsen has answered the last call and passed to his final reward. He had been in poor health for a number of years suffering with a nerve disease. For the past few months he had been confined to his bed entirely. He had been engaged in the milling business for about thirty years. He operated mills at Louisville, Weeping Water and Elmwood and was considered one of the best millers in the state. Following is an outline of his life:
John Edward Olsen was born in Sweden on August 21, 1875, and was seven years of age when he came to America.
He was united in marriage to Phrony Meier of Louisville, Neb., on September 11, 1901, at Omaha, Neb.
Death came to release him from his suffering on November 11, 1923, at the age of 48 years, 2 months and 21 days. He leaves to mourn his death his wife and four daughters, Dorothy, aged 16; Inez, 13; Hazel, 11, and Beatrice, 6; two brothers, Alfred Olsen of the state of Washington, and Otto M. Ring of Gregory, South Dakota; one sister, Mrs. Lena Shalberg of Omaha, Neb., and his stepfather, J. L. Ring of Stromberg, Neb.
He, with his family, have made their home in Elmwood for 18 years. In 1908 he accepted Christ as his Saviour, thus becoming a member of the Church of Christ in Elmwood.
His health began to fail in 1916 and continued to grow worse until death came. Every possible care was given to him by his faithful wife and children during his long illness.
The funeral service was held at the home in Elmwood on November 13, 1923, at 2:00 o'clock, the Rev. J. F. Hay being in charge, and interment was made in the Elmwood cemetery.—Elmwood Leader-Bebe.

MASONS ENJOY A VERY FINE TIME AT MEETING LAST NITE

School of Instruction Held on Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings in Very Fine Culmination.

From Thursday's Daily—
Following a two days' school of instruction conducted by Dr. Litchner, warden of Lincoln, assistant grand custodian, and Dr. Horace Hall of William Hill lodge No. 7, of Oteo, the members of Plattsmouth lodge No. 6 and their visitors held a very pleasant session last evening at the lodge rooms.
The officers who were here on the school gave rehearsals of the work for the benefit of the Plattsmouth officers and members and also of the Weeping Water lodge who were in attendance as well, and the effectiveness of the work was much enjoyed by the membership of the order.
After the work was enjoyed the lodge listened to an address by Judge James T. Begley that was up to the usual splendid standard of the distinguished jurist and covered subjects pertaining to the Masonic fraternity. After the close of the address of Judge Begley the members enjoyed a fine lunch that had been prepared by the committee in charge of the entertainment and served to bring to a close a most delightful occasion.
Among those attending the meeting from outside of the jurisdiction were: Dr. M. U. Thomas, W. M.; S. J. Baker, S. W.; E. B. Taylor, secretary of the Weeping Water lodge, and O. E. Powers also of that city. H. W. Miller and S. B. Bostwick of Capital lodge No. 3 of Omaha were also in attendance as was W. G. Boedeker and O. A. Davis of Murray.

TWO PLATTSMOUTH PROGRAMS. LADIES ARE ENGAGED IN A MOST WORTHY CAUSE

Members of Plattsmouth Woman's Club Will Endeavor to Secure Funds for Cemetery Use

From Thursday's Daily—
The members of the Plattsmouth Woman's club are now busily engaged in the work of assisting in the securing of funds which will be used in the improvement of Oak Hill cemetery.
The ladies have compiled a list of 1,100 lot owners in the cemetery and are endeavoring to get in touch either in person or by letter with the owners of the lots and to have them give what they can toward the permanent improvements contemplated in this city where rest the loved ones of the city.
The city is having a section of permanent roadway made in the cemetery and the ladies if successful in securing a small part of the funds that they are in the campaign to secure, will be able to add a great deal to the assistance that will be available in making the cemetery one of the finest in this portion of the state.
It is the plan of the Woman's club to ask of each lot owner the sum of $10 and those who are able will be glad to give this amount if they can be assured that the cemetery will be brought up to the standard that it should be and made a place that will be the object of admiration to the visitors from many miles around.

LEGION CLOSES VERY SUCCESSFUL CARNIVAL

Splendid Patronage is Given Legion Show by Residents of County.

From Thursday's Daily—
Last night the doors closed on the four days' carnival that has been staged at the roller rink by the Hugh J. Kearns post of the American Legion, and one that has been a success for the service men promoting it and a source of entertainment to the hundreds that have been in attendance. Last night the attendance reached the peak when practically 1,000 persons assembled in the hall to find diversion and help the service men put over the entertainment as an unqualified success.
The big feature of the evening, which had been looked forward to by all those having chances, was the awarding of the Ford touring car which was offered by the Legion and on which many had chances. This event was held at the close of the evening and several hundred remained to witness the drawing. The names of the tickets sold, each bearing the name of the purchaser were placed in a glass bowl and stirred as much as possible to insure the thorough mixing of the numbers, a committee composed of John F. Gorder, John Bauer and V. T. Arn then took the bowl to the stage where four little girls, selected from the crowd, assisted them by drawing the numbers. Four numbers were drawn first and placed in a box and from these four two were picked that were to be the final contestants for the car and from these two one winning number was drawn. This proved to be held by M. J. Pitman of Avoca, who will find the car awaiting him at the Ford garage when he calls for it.
The drawing was watched with interest and those who had failed to have their numbers drawn in the first pot were keenly interested to find the lucky man or woman.
The entertainment features of the evening were particularly fine as they embraced the singing of Lucian LaRue, the gifted Union Lad, who has been heard so delightfully during the carnival, the singing of Joe Eaton, well known ballad singer of Omaha, and the piano playing of Travis Nesbit, both of whom had entertained the crowds Monday night. Mr. Eaton gave several numbers last night that won him the appreciation of the large audience and was accompanied at the piano by Mr. Nesbit who also favored the crowd with a number of his well known jazz creations.
The members of the Legion feel very appreciative of the splendid pot given them by the people of Plattsmouth in their enterprise and the loyal and enthusiastic manner in which many volunteered their personal services to help in the work, the generous donations for the concessions at the carnival by the business men of the city and the feeling that has covered the course of the whole carnival of "helping out the cause" certainly is a source of gratitude on the part of the service men.
Aiding in the spirit of the occasion was the installing by the business men of the city of the street decorative system sponsored by the Legion and the arrangement of the many artistic windows in the various stores that carried out the spirit of the Armistice day thought.

GRAND JURY GRINDING BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

The grand jury room is the chief point of interest in the city since Tuesday morning and the public interest is keen over the outcome of the deliberations of this body of men called to make a diligent inquiry into the condition of affairs in Cass county.

BOY HAD HARD TIME

From Friday's Daily—
The Omaha afternoon passenger ran over a cow near Springfield Tuesday. The engine ran over the cow and the body got caught under the tender in such a way that it took the combined efforts of all the help that could be mustered up to dislodge her.

MRS. JAMES MAUZY IS HOSTESS TO FRIENDS

Gives Luncheon on Wednesday and Bridge Party Thursday Afternoon at Parents' Home.

From Friday's Daily—
Two of the pleasant social affairs of the fall season were given this week by Mrs. James G. Mauzy to a number of friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hallstrom, in the south portion of the city.
On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Mauzy was hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon that was attended by a very large number of guests and four tables served. The decorative plan of the home was in red, red roses with the red nut cups and red place cards being used effectively. During the afternoon the ladies were entertained by a few piano numbers by Christine Conhugh and readings by Mesdames Allen J. Beeson and William Baird. In the guessing contest, Mrs. W. A. Robertson won the first prize and Mrs. A. J. Beeson won the consolation prize.
On Thursday afternoon the event was in the nature of a 1 o'clock bridge luncheon and the home was arranged in the color scheme of red as on the previous day and the ladies enjoyed in these pleasant surroundings the fascinations of the game of bridge. The first prize was awarded Miss Eleanor Burnie and the consolation prizes went to Miss Gertrude Morgan and Mrs. Harold Holcomb. During the afternoon Mrs. P. J. Flynn entertained the ladies with a number of delightful piano selections. In entertaining, Mrs. Mauzy was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Hallstrom.

SOME EXCELLENT WORK

Those who have had the opportunity of viewing the excellent Armistice day window at the Thierolf clothing store have been very much impressed by the excellent work shown in the cartoons and drawings that were used in the window and many have wondered as to the identity of the artist who drew them.

ENTERTAINS FOR FRIEND

From Thursday's Daily—
Mrs. Theodore Bodine of Orleans, Nebraska, who has been visiting here for several days at the home of her niece, Mrs. A. L. Tidd, was a guest of honor Tuesday at a very pleasant Kensington given at the home of Mrs. W. C. Tappan, and at which a number of the old time friends of Mrs. Bodine were invited in for the afternoon. The time was spent in visiting and the plying of the busy needle until an appropriate hour when very enjoyable refreshments were served by the hostess.

RETURNING TO MISSOURI

From Thursday's Daily—
Mrs. John Brady, who has been here from Casper, Wyoming, looking after the household goods that they have here, returned this afternoon to the west. While here Mrs. Brady announced that she and Mr. Brady are expecting in the spring to leave Casper and return to their former home in northern Missouri, where they have a daughter residing at Watson and will make their home there in the future, as they feel that the excitement of the Wyoming boom town is not half as fine as the peace and quiet that they had in their old Missouri home down among the old friends and neighbors.

PENSIONS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA IN FORCE

Five Men at State School For More Than 30 Years Receive $1,750 a Year Without Working.

The status of the veteran professor at the University of Nebraska is explained by Chancellor Avery in an article in the University Journal for November. Five men of the faculty, who have served the institution for thirty years or upwards have been placed on theoretical half-time basis by the regents with a salary of $1,750 a year. "We have no specific act of the legislature as a legal basis for it," writes the chancellor, "and the regents are not committed to it in the future. It is just something we have been doing, are doing, and with the support of the alumni will continue to do."
The chancellor states that the plan was devised without formal action on the part of any one, in order to enhance the value of positions in the university and as an act of simple justice to the veteran professor. If the health of the latter is good, he is expected to be in residence every other semester, or every year, to give perhaps some elective work, to direct graduate courses, or to devote his time to study of research at some other institution. His name is retained in the faculty list. He has the entire to all meetings and a voice in all faculty matters.
The plan has been found to work well. One of the five on this basis has returned from time to time and done full work. One or two others are able to do just about half time work. Two for health reasons have done little or no work for the last year or two. Nebraska's plan is said to meet with favor at other institutions and to have been adopted in entirety by one other state at least, even to the exact amount paid.
The article mentions that the Nebraska university is not on the Carnegie foundation pension list because of action of the legislature of 1909. The state has no pension laws applicable to a professor in a state university.

YOUNG PEOPLE MARRIED AT GLENWOOD YESTERDAY

Miss Clara J. Boom and Edd Jones Joined in Wedding at Home of Rev. G. T. Roberts.

From Friday's Daily—
Yesterday at the residence of Rev. G. T. Roberts, pastor of the Methodist church of Glenwood, Iowa, occurred the marriage of Miss Clara J. Boom of this city and Mr. Edd Jones, of St. Louis, Missouri. The bridal couple motored to the Iowa city for the wedding ceremony, which was performed in the presence of the members of the Roberts family and Miss Hannah Baldwin of this city, a close friend of the bride and who had accompanied the young couple to that city. Following the wedding, the bridal couple returned to Plattsmouth, where they expect to make their future home.
The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Boom, and has been engaged as the night operator at the exchange of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company for some time and is a young lady held in the highest esteem by a large circle of warm friends who will join in wishing the young people happiness and success in the coming years. The groom is in the employ of the Burlington in the shops here and is a young man of the most sterling character and held in high regard by his associates.

BOYS SUFFER FROM THE BITE OF A RAT

Charles Jay and Charles Russell of Omaha, Formerly of This City, Have Rat Bite Fever.

From Friday's Daily—
Suffering from the effects of complications following the bite of a rat, Charles Jay, aged 12, and Charles Russell, aged 11, of Omaha are at the University hospital in Omaha where they are being treated for a case of "rat bite" fever from which they have suffered for the past few days.
The two boys, who reside at 491 North 15th street, it seems, captured a rat a few days ago and were engaged in playing with it when they were bit on the hand by the rodent and this was followed by the illness of the of the boys who had not made any mention of their having been bitten until their teacher at the Cars school discovered that their hands and arms were badly swollen and at once started an inquiry that led to the discovery of the fact that the boys had been bitten by the rat.
The "rat bite" fever is marked by very severe attacks of chills followed by a high fever which occurs every fourteen days. The case has attracted a great deal of attention at the hospital and the two boys are reported as progressing as well as could be expected and there will be no serious results of their experience it is thought.
