Miss Dunn attended the university school of music and Mr. Kellogg is a former student of the University of Nebraska, where he is a member of Phi Kappa Psi. Preceding the ceremony Miss Mueller played the wedding march from Lohengrin and the ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends by the Rev. Dr. Sisson, of Percival, Iowa, uncle of the groom. The bride's only attendant was little Doris Wolcott who wore a pink frock and carried the ring on a white satin pillow. Large baskets of orchid chrysanthemums and pink roses formed the decorations throughout the rooms. K. K. K.'S

Persistent rumors were floating about on Wednesday that on the night before atop the Stacy mill east of Pacific Junction there was noted a blazing cross and around it stood several hundred hooded persons chanting weird songs. From this rumor came visions of the invisible hosts who take upon themselves the task of straightening out the tangles of the law's disobedience and the formation of a political power that has upset the forecasts of the wisest political dopsters.

Mercy! Is Mills county to become a field of activities?

Investigation of the blazing cross and hooded audience revealed a mixture of few facts and much imagination. We wonder if the author is not the same as the one who had us excited about the second great earthquake in California?—Glenwood Tribune.

CITY SCHOOL LOSSES IN CASE

From Friday's Daily—

In the federal court at Lincoln where the case of Pomereux vs. School District No. 1 of Plattsmouth has been on trial for several days, has resulted in a reversal of the decision of two years ago and the plaintiff given a verdict against the defendant school district. This time, Judge T. C. Munger held that the plaintiff company could not be held on their contract for the fact that the boiler in the heating system in the school was inadequate. At the first hearing two years ago, Judge Woodruff found for the defendant district, and a judgment for $5,000 against the plaintiff. The case was appealed to the circuit court of appeals and there it was ordered to be retried and was remanded to the Nebraska federal court where it has just been tried before Judge Munger.

William T. Thompson, former attorney general together with Mr. C. A. Rawls, represented the interests of the school district in the litigation. As the case now stands the school has the boiler used in the heating plant on its hands as the smaller boiler has since been replaced by a more adequate one and this smaller boiler will be worth considerable.

OLD SOLDIERS ENTERTAIN

The G. A. R. entertained the W. R. C. yesterday at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troop where everyone had a good time and joy reigned supreme. Mrs. Troop acted as hostess and general chaperon and under her influence Messrs. Wadham, Verner and even Mrs. S. A. Dodge behaved remarkably well. The food was served and prepared by the old soldiers. Tom Wiles baked the pies and Asbury Jacks fried the doughnuts. Glenn baked the beans and McCarty baked the cake but he let it burn and the party had none. The repast was abundant and delightful.

A Timely Suggestion

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.

Motorists have outgrown that OLD IDEA— "Any old gas is all right"
When it was a triumph to get there and back without having to stop for repairs and adjustments, there was some justification for the notion that the fault was always with the motor. It generally was. Today the tables are turned. The modern motor is a marvel of mechanical efficiency and dependability. It will run on almost any old gas. But for quick starts and pick-ups, for full power and economical mileage, there is a better kind of gasoline—balanced gasoline. Red Crown Gasoline is balanced gasoline—the result of many years of experiment and test, of accurate refining and improved processes. It is built to definite specifications and contains the right proportion of low boiling point fractions and high boiling point fractions to assure every desirable gasoline quality. That's why Red Crown Gasoline is better for winter driving and for summer driving. It costs no more than ordinary gasoline and you can buy it everywhere. You will always get full measure and prompt, courteous service from a dealer displaying the Red Crown Sign. He stands behind Red Crown Gasoline and Polarine, and we stand behind him. They must be dependable.

MORTGAGE BURDENS ON FARMS IN IOWA

Witnesses Say City Dwellers Revel in Luxury While Tillers of Soil Are Compelled to Skimp.

Kansas City, Nov. 15.—Many farmers in Iowa, an agricultural state where diversification makes for prosperity, are heavily mortgaged. J. F. Coupe, assistant secretary of the Iowa farm bureau federation testified today at the middle western grain rate hearing before representatives of the interstate commerce commission. Mr. Coupe introduced statistics by which he attempted to show that Iowa, although enjoying excellent natural farming conditions, had reason to ask for reduced freight rates for grain. Iowa farm land is mortgaged heavily, Mr. Coupe testified, because farmers had been compelled to go deeper in debt to carry on operations. Mr. Coupe's figures showed that of 199 farms considered in Calhoun county, Iowa, 105 reported current indebtedness averaging $1,501. Of 74 farms considered in Humboldt county, 33 reported current indebtedness averaging $2,375. On cross examination by W. F. Dickinson, chief railroad counsel, Dr. H. J. Waters, editor of the Weekly Star, reiterated his testimony of yesterday that the farmer now is skimping through a period of depression. Asked by Commissioner Johnson B. Campbell if the farmer squeezed his pocketbook while others loosened the strings, Dr. Waters said: "Pork tenderloins and sirloin steaks are in demand at city markets. Chuck and pot roast and the cheaper cuts of meat can't be disposed of. The city revels in luxury."

FAMILY GATHERING

The home of Mrs. F. Jackemeyer was the scene of a happy gathering on last Saturday and Sunday, when all of the children were at home, including Chris Backemeyer and family of Waco, Nebraska; Rev. Fred Backemeyer and family of Minneapolis, Minn.; Ed Backemeyer of Sioux Falls, South Dakota; Mrs. Orin Baldwin of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Schelp and son.

This family always love the old home and it is indeed a pleasure to see them gather for a family reunion, for there is a spirit of good cheer about them and all take great interest in greeting the old friends in the "Old Home Town."—Elmwood Leader-Echo.
