PICTURES GERMAN IN PITIABLE PLIGHT

Federal Council of Churches Aligns Itself With Relief Movement—Favors Food Credit.

New York, Jan. 8.—The federal council of churches of America has aligned itself behind the American German relief movements and has unreservedly endorsed the proposed $70,000,000 government food credit bill, heads of the council announced today. In asserting that the federal council strongly advocates the passage of the proposed $70,000,000 German food credit bill by the government, Dr. Mills said:

"From my investigation I am satisfied that no other means will save the German people. Charity alone cannot do it. The German middle class, the country's backbone, is in a terrible state. Universities are closing. Hospitals are closing or running on part time. Schools in some instances have closed completely. The middle class is in a state of despair. They are run on part time. Professional men, former small tradesmen, middle class men in all lines, are deserting their former occupations to become laborers to earn enough to feed their families.

"The pitiable plight of all are the children. They are undernourished and undernourished. But one-tenth of the milk necessary to properly feed them. Unemployment is in the millions."

OBITUARY

Mrs. Anna Simpson Walker was born in White county, Tennessee, January 6, 1844, and died January 5, 1924, at her home near Murray, Nebraska. When she was a young girl of 13, the family moved to Maryville, Missouri, and in the early sixties they moved to Rock Bluffs, Nebraska. In 1867 she was married to James Walker. Five children were born of whom two, Georgia and Vance died in infancy. Her husband and one son, Dr. Alec Walker, preceded her in death by several years. Two daughters, Mrs. Bessie Gilmore and Miss Marjory Walker, survive the mother. These, with a son-in-law, Dr. Gilmore, two grandsons, Walker and John G., and a large community of sorrowing friends mourn the loss of this splendid woman.

Mrs. Walker was stricken with disease two weeks ago and despite the best of attention on the part of the physician, nurse and two daughters she gradually grew weaker and on Saturday afternoon, January 5, her spirit took flight.

Mrs. Walker accepted Christ as her Saviour early in life. For years she was a member of the Christian church. For nearly fifteen years she has been a faithful active member of the United Presbyterian church of Murray. We shall miss the inspiration of her presence among us, we shall miss her gracious smile and her encouraging words, but we rejoice to know that she has gone to be with Christ which is far better. At the close of her four score years she might well have said: "I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith."

FARMER HAS A DAY BEFORE CONGRESS

Measures For His Relief Given Attention in Committees and on Floors of Both Houses.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The farmer received a major share of attention in congress today, relief measures being considered both in committees and on the floor of the senate and house while the department of agriculture took a hand in the legislative situation. The senate adopted the Ladd resolution directing Secretary Wallace to determine thru the grain futures administration the position taken on the wheat market by the well known professional speculators and members of the large "futures" commission houses of the Chicago board of trade.

Legislation aimed at aid the wheat growers was considered in both the senate and house agricultural committees and was the center of debate on the floor of the house, special attention being given to the Norris-Sinclair bill proposing a $100,000,000 corporation to buy and sell American farm products both at home and abroad.

Co-ordination of grazing on all state and national public lands was proposed by Secretary Wallace at a conference with western state senators and representatives as a step to improve conditions in stock-raising. He suggested legislation to permit, under certain conditions, addition to the national forest of contiguous unreserved public lands chiefly valuable for grazing livestock.

Representatives of the wheat growers appeared before the two agricultural committees, advocating favorable action on the Norris-Sinclair bill and relating financial troubles encountered by the farmers in their sections.

John Tank, president of the Iowa Equity society, supported the Norris-Sinclair measure before a meeting of the Iowa delegation and discussed other farm legislation with them.

FEAR RIOTING IN BOOTLEG WAR; CALLS IN TROOPS

National Guardsmen Called to Marion, Ill., To Assist Sheriff in Coping With Situation.

Marion, Ill., Jan. 8.—With three companies of the national guard here tonight, everything was quiet. The troops were sent at the request of Sheriff George Galligan, who advised Adjutant General Black in a telegram that he feared rioting might break out as a result of a bootleggers' war. In the three series of raids in less than three weeks, the raid which was last night, when a score of men were arrested, 212 persons have been arrested for alleged violations of the dry law.

The raids have been conducted by federal agents, assisted by hundreds of deputized citizens, many of whom openly aid membership in the Ku Klux Klan. A counter organization to the Klan, known as the Knights of the Flaming Circle, sprung up six months ago shortly after Klan organizers appears in Williamson county.

Deputy Sheriff John Layman stated the call for troops was because the action of the raiders has "assumed the proportions of mob violence."

Trouble was feared, it was said, over the trial of Glenn Young, dry worker, which began in justice court today. Young was charged with assault. He appeared in court today with a large assemblage of friends, who carried two machine guns for "protection." Young is alleged to have struck Paul Corder over the head with a revolver in an argument over dry raids.

Sheriff Melvin Thaxton, who preceded Sheriff Galligan, was condemned by the public, state and federal officials for failure to call troops in time to prevent the Herrin mine riot. Galligan said tonight the situation was beyond his control. According to Herrin hardware men, the sale of guns and ammunition has increased greatly.

The Ku Klux Klan several months ago held a demonstration in Marion demanding a cleanup of the county and since that date bitterness between klansmen and anti-klan sympathizers has increased to an alarming degree.
