"Nobody ever got to be famous by inventing excuses."

It isn't safe to keep checks or cash around the house. Rats might get them or fire or the baby with scissors — and besides it keeps you more or less uneasy.

Just put them in an envelope and mail them to us, telling us to credit your account. That will save you a lot of time and a lot of uneasiness. And your account will get just the same attention it would were you to come in person.

Banking by mail is highly satisfactory — try it!

W. D. Wheeler and son Percy were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Saturday and also attending the trial as well.

W. T. Vallery was a visitor with his son, Frank Vallery and daughter, Mrs. Wade Porter and their families in Plattsmouth last Sunday, being accompanied by Mrs. Vallery.

Lee Kniss, the mail man has been making his trips over the mail route for some time past with a team, and it looks like he would be compelled to continue the same for some time yet.

If it's Cass county news, you can be sure of finding it in the Journal. Oscar Shrader was a business visitor in Plattsmouth during the past week.

More than ever in 1924 you will need the Journal to keep abreast of the times.

Louis Hallas and the family were visiting at the home of relatives in Plattsmouth last Sunday, making the trip in their auto.

Mr. D. J. Pittman was looking after some business matters in Nebraska City last Monday, making the trip via the Missouri Pacific train.

W. J. Philpot received two car loads of cattle from South Omaha, which he took to his farm west of Murray for fattening for the market.

Dr. J. F. Brendel and Clarence Kell were looking after some business both at Mynard and also at Plattsmouth on last Tuesday afternoon.

W. G. Boedeker, of Murray, W. A. Robertson, Dr. J. S. Livingston and Geo. Kerr of Plattsmouth were looking after some business matters in Nehawka last Sunday.

Joseph Puls, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Puls, living a number of miles west of Murray, has been having some time with pneumonia, but is on the mend at this time, though still a very sick lad.

George Rhoden and the wife were visiting last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Rhoden of Murray. Mr. D. C. Rhoden, who has been feeling pretty badly for some time past, is now somewhat improved.

Herman Gansmer was a visitor on last Sunday at the hospital in Omaha, where Mrs. Gansmer underwent an operation a week ago and is making very favorable gains, and it is assured that she will be able to return to her home by the end of the present week.

Will O. Troop was a visitor at Omaha last Monday, remaining for over to Tuesday morning and parted with all but three of his teeth and while the mouth was rather sore as a result of the lacerations incidental to the extractions, he was feeling relieved from the possession of the aching molars.

Dr. Gilmore during last week had a call to make some four miles west of Murray and on account of the roads had to make the trip via Union and Nehawka, consuming some twenty miles when to have gone directly west would have required only four miles. Cameron Cathey who lives just four miles west of Murray, also had a trip of some twenty miles to get to town, he having to go to Nehawka, then to Union and up the Highway to reach here.

Morton Bartlett was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Tuesday morning.

Joseph Dietl shelled and delivered his crop of corn last Monday, getting it in before the roads got very bad.

While G. W. McCracken was in attendance at the funeral last Tuesday morning, Uncle B. A. Root was looking after the store.

Oscar Dowler shelled and delivered his corn at the Pittman elevator last Tuesday, notwithstanding very bad roads which prevailed.

A. D. Bakke and wife were in attendance at the funeral of Frank Lillie which occurred at the Lewistown church southwest of Murray.

Henry C. Long departed last Friday for the west and will look after some business matters in that portion of the state for a few days.

A. Wilber was in attendance at the sale of George H. Shrader, which occurred at the former's home on the Highway last Tuesday afternoon.

Hitt and Pollock shipped two cars of cattle to the South Omaha market last Tuesday, the stock being accompanied by C. E. Hitt, Jr., who went along to look after them.

Joseph Dietl and wife and Mrs. Irene Bengen were in attendance at the funeral of Frank Lillie, which was held at the Lewistown church on last Tuesday.

Oscar Nailor was in attendance at the sale of John W. Lloyd, west of Union on Wednesday of this week, as well as a number of others of the Murray community.

Today is the sale date of Alph Beverage and T. E. Hathaway, it being held northwest of Murray and a large crowd is attending. Their combined offerings make a large sale.

Messrs. G. W. McCracken, O. A. Davis, Rev. W. F. Graham and L. D. Hitt very kindly sang at the funeral of their friend, for he was sure a gentleman and friend of all, Mr. Frank Lillie's funeral.

Last Friday while the rig was shelling at the home of John Farris, a piece of the machinery was lost and it was not until the next day before they could get the necessary repairs to go ahead with the work, as he was able to get the shelling and delivering done last week.

C. D. Geary was shelling and delivering his corn last Tuesday. Mr. Geary will not farm the coming year but will remove to Plattsmouth, where he will work for the Burlington railway. Murray in losing this family are losing two excellent people, but what is the loss of Murray will be the gain of Plattsmouth.

Ray Creamer, who has been in Murray for the past few days, departed on last Monday morning for the west, going via Omaha, and will make his home at Overton in the future. Mrs. Creamer is visiting here for a short time until Mr. Creamer shall have arrived there and also the household effects, a part of which were shipped and the remainder of which were taken by Mr. Creamer in his truck.

Out of deference to the funeral of his friend, Frank Lillie, George H. Shrader, whose sale was to have been held in the morning last Tuesday, was postponed until after noon. However, there was a good crowd in attendance and under the deft management of that prince of auctioneers, Rex Young, went along nicely and very good prices were realized for the property.

Morton Bartlett and the family and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Woods were visiting in Omaha last Sunday, going in the morning before the thawing of the roads and returning in the evening after the same were frozen, and while there they visited at the home of Mr. Bartlett's sister, Mrs. P. S. Emrey and family. They were joined in the visit also by the parents of Mr. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartlett and all enjoyed the gathering very much.

Frank Mrasek and George Nickles were attending the funeral of the late Frank Lillie and also accompanied the cortege to Plattsmouth where a short service was also held, on account of the illness of a son who is at Plattsmouth sick.

Married in Missouri

John Reden, who has been visiting in Missouri there for a number of months past, and where he lived and loved his boyhood days, returned from the old home a few days since, and with him came a bride who now becomes a Nebraskan. The Journal, with the many other friends are extending their best wishes to this young couple and are hoping that their lives may be happy, successful and well worth while to those with whom they meet.

Will Feed the Hungry

Following the dance which will be given at the Peterson hall on the coming Saturday evening, which will be the event of the week, Oscar Nailor, who is a noted chef, will serve oysters to the dancers. Sure he will provide something for the other members of the community as well.

DENBY STILL HANGS ONTO NAVY POST

WALSH RESOLUTION TO EVICT NAVY SECRETARY IS PUT OFF SECOND TIME.

POLITICAL RANCOR IS SHOWN

Denby Says He Acted For the Best and Will Not Resign if Resolution Is Passed.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The move for annulment of the naval oil leases proceeded slowly today in a thickening atmosphere of political bitterness. The senate again failed to act on the Walsh annulment resolution, and engaged in an all-day debate in which the demand for the resignation of Secretary Denby was renewed and a similar attack was launched against Attorney General Daugherty.

During the day Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, enlarged the area of oil fields to be recovered by introducing a resolution to assert title to sections of naval oil lands in California now in possession of the Standard Oil company.

Taking note of the attacks on him, Secretary Denby, after attending a two-hours' session of President Coolidge's cabinet, said he believed he had acted for the best in the oil transactions; that he would do the same things again and that he would not resign even if the Robinson resolution demanding that he do so were adopted.

Cabinet Discusses Developments
At the cabinet meeting, the president and his advisers discussed in every detail the course of the administration and it was apparent tonight that the two lawyers to be employed as special counsel in the annulment suits virtually had been selected. Announcement of their names probably will be deferred until congress acts.

On the floor of the senate chamber, Chairman Lenroot, of the oil committee, revealed that Mr. Coolidge had been informed in advance of the sensational testimony given a week ago by Archie Roosevelt relating to charges of a $68,000 payment to the foreman of former Secretary Fall's ranch.

Senator Willis, republican, Ohio, then announced that on the same day Mr. Fall and his foreman, Thomas Johnson, had been placed under surveillance by agents of the department of justice who were instructed to prevent their departure from the country.

Advised that Mr. Fall was unable to appear before it today because of a threatened nervous collapse, the oil committee decided to examine his physicians tomorrow before deciding whether to accept an invitation to question him in his sick room.

ILLINOIS FARMERS BUYING CATTLE NOW TO FEED

NEXT WINTER
Omaha, Jan. 29.—More Illinois stockmen are buying light cattle this winter to rough through the summer and feed out next winter than ever before," said John Johnson, proprietor of Riverside Farm, near Syracuse, that state, who took out a load of good Shorthorn stockers yesterday. "A good many cattle will be summer fed, too," he said, "as some of the stockmen have quit winter feeding altogether."

Only One End.
There should be no end to the search for truth, other than the finding it.

Mrs. John J. Clويد was a passenger this morning for Omaha to spend a few hours looking after some matters of business in that city.

NEUTRALIZED RHINE IS PLAN OF PREMIER

MAC DONALD FLINGS FIRST INTERNATIONAL BOMBHELL WITH PROPOSAL.

BELGIUM IS THE INTERMEDIARY

New British Leader Believes He Has Solution with Assurances to France and Germany.

Paris, Jan. 27.—Premier MacDonald of England flung the first international bombshell today when, through Belgium as an intermediary, he unofficially proposed a settlement of the Franco-French security by internationalizing the Rhine frontier and putting the neutral strip under the league of nations.

The narrow "no man's land" thus created would become a literal barricade protection for both France and Germany, obligating members of the league of nations to wage war against any nation violating its sanctity.

With France's security thus guaranteed, Premier MacDonald believes the way will be opened to revise the treaty of Versailles and put the whole European situation on a firmer basis. These proposals are reported to have been put forward in a secret conference which Premier MacDonald held with the Belgian ambassador in London Friday, the reason for the detour being MacDonald's hope that Belgium will be able to persuade France to adopt the plan.

So urgent did the Belgian government consider the proposals that Foreign Minister Jaspar hastened immediately from Brussels to Paris, where he had an hour and a half conference with Premier Poincare this afternoon.

The strictest secrecy surrounds the conversation, but from reliable and authentic sources, Universal Service is able to indicate that the meeting was practically only concerned with the project put forward by Premier MacDonald.

In diplomatic quarters, however, it is realized that Premier Poincare is hostile to almost any English program and that therefore as long as he heads the French government, there is little likelihood that MacDonald's idea will bear fruit.

POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT MAKES A NEW RULING

Places Newspapers in Same Class With First Class Matter Which Insure Better Service.

As a result of several months' investigation and study by experts of the postoffice department, Postmaster General New today issued the first definite, concise and complete program that has ever been put out by the department for the mailing, transmission and delivery of newspapers.

This order is most important. It is far reaching. It gives the same expedition to newspapers as is accorded to first class mail.

The order is the result of painstaking effort on the part of the postoffice inspectors, under the direction of First Assistant Postmaster General Bartlett. Carefully worded and minute instructions have been issued to all employes engaged in handling the mails, so that there will be no possibility of misunderstanding the importance of getting newspapers to the reader with a minimum of delay.

The essence of the order is that newspapers shall not be mixed with parcels post at any point in their dispatch from the publisher's offices until their delivery to the addressees. Papers shall be handled by themselves, and kept in constant transit, not being sent to railway terminals to be reworked. In other words, they are to be handled in the same manner as first class mail.

An important feature of the order is that no publication shall be given any less efficient or less expeditious treatment than at present. That means that publications other than newspapers will not suffer one iota from this progressive innovation, made by the postoffice department.

Another striking feature of the order is the elimination of sacks of mail which are known to the business world as "mixed mail." Sacks of mixed mail sometimes contain letters, papers and parcels post, and often times the entire contents were treated as parcels post. This order will prevent a recurrence of that condition.

Another important feature of the order is that postmasters are required to notify publishers in each instance when they do not hit the dispatch which they advertise to hit; also to notify publishers when they are sending to wrong addresses and to the addresses of deceased persons. Publishers will also be notified when they are putting up their mail in an incorrect manner.

Under the new system, newspapers will be made up in separate sacks plainly labeled with the word "newspapers." If there are only a few copies of newspapers at the point of dispatch, they will be placed in pouches with first class mail or in separate sacks, even though the sacks are only partially filled. This order means much to the American public. It is one of the most important and far reaching steps in postoffice history. It is for the benefit of those who desire to have their newspapers placed before them at as early a moment as possible. This should keep both the city and rural population in closer and quicker touch with their several fields of activities.

TAKING VOCATIONAL TRAINING

From Wednesday's Daily—Elwood Buttery of this city, who has been given the advantage of vocational training under the government as one of the disabled service men, is now working at the Kansas State Teachers' college at Pittsburg, Kansas, where he is carrying on his trade as linotype operator. Mr. Buttery was for some time engaged in studying and working at the printing office of the University of Nebraska and has since been sent to the Kansas school to complete his work.

ELIMINATION OF THE MASK IS DISCUSSED BY THE KLAN

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 27.—Elimination of the mask and changes in the present form of government will be proposed when Ku Klux Klansmen gather here February 26 in response to a recent call for a national klan congress, according to a story appearing in the Atlanta Constitution. The congress was called by E. Y. Clarke, imperial klan, the story says, "for the purpose of bringing about drastic reforms within the border in event such cannot be accomplished to discuss ways and means of disbanding."
