Beautifying Home Surroundings The Fairview Woman's club met Friday evening, January 25 at the Fairview school for an illustrated lecture on beautifying the nome surroundings. E. H. Hoppert of the Extension Service at Lincoln, was the principal speaker of the evening. By means of lantern slides it was shown how the farm home, no matter how humble, can be made attractive by the proper arrangement of drives and walks and the proper location of trees, shrubs and flowers. The usual This is the system which the Fairview club has decided to follow. At members will bring an outline sketch
