whose funeral occurred last Monday and we will give a fuller account of his life in the paper the coming week.

Miss Pearl Dugey and mother, Mrs. Lelia Queen of Omaha and Ralston, came down to Union to spend the Sunday and while here learned of the death of their aunt, Mrs. J. D. Lewis and remained for the funeral which occurred on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Everett Watkins of Rosalie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Craig who has been visiting here for the past week, departed for her home in the north last Monday and was accompanied as far as Plattsmouth by her father, Mr. Craig, who returned on the train while Mrs. Watkins continued on her way.

W. H. Porter of Omaha was a visitor in Union for last Sunday looking after some business matters and also visiting with friends for the day returning to his home in Omaha in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Porter are both employed with the Hayden Bros. establishment in Omaha where each have a good position.

The many friends of our townsman, Mr. Edward J. Mouzey, were somewhat surprised when he appeared on the street and many of his former very intimate friends did not know him. He has been wearing a mustache and concluded that he would doff it and as a consequence the change in his looks was so great that many of the friends passed him up on the street, not knowing him.

Entertained Friends Sunday
At the home of Mrs. Mollie Garrens in north Union was gathered a jolly crowd of her friends last Sunday to enjoy the hospitality of this lady and her son, both for the day and at the excellent dinner which she served. There were present for the occasion Matthew Pickering and family, James Pickering and family, Dr. W. F. Race and the Misses Edith and Flora Graham of Wyoming. A most enjoyable day was had by all present.

A Wedding Promised Soon
Dame Rumor has it and seemingly very near correct for the announcement has been made that a certain young lady of very vivacious disposition and an excellent young lady is soon to wed a man from Grand Rapids, Mich. The wedding is to occur week after next at Nebraska City. The bride has been making her home in Union for some time.

A Change in Ownership
The lower hotel and restaurant was sold this week and the exchange was expected to take place during the week sometime whereby Joseph Thompson disposed of his interests in Union and Mr. Wm. Loomis of Lincoln taking over the business. The Thompson family will go to Nebraska City where they have a home while Mr. Thompson will probably locate in Plattsmouth when all will make their home there.

Funeral of Mrs. J. D. Lewis

The funeral services of Mrs. J. D. Lewis were held at the Lewiston church on Tuesday afternoon conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor, and the interment made at the Lewiston cemetery nearby. A large number of old friends and neighbors were present to pay their last tributes of love and respect.

The deceased lady was formerly Anna Fitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitch, Sr., pioneer residents of the county, and she spent her entire lifetime in Cass county where she was married to J. D. Lewis, who with three sons and one daughter survive her, they being Lloyd and Wayne Lewis of Plattsmouth, Ed Lewis and Mrs. Earl Merritt of Union. Mrs. Lewis died after a short illness from pneumonia and at the age of sixty-three years.

BERT CRAWFORD IN TOWN
Bert Crawford, who for the past few years has been living up near Hartington, was in the city over last night, visiting at the home of his brother-in-law, Frank Valley. Bert came down to Omaha with a car load of cattle that were sold yesterday and brought a very satisfactory price for Mr. Crawford. In this case we know there is no difference between the word satisfactory and contentment, for good prices bring contentment with the farmers and all will be well. Bert has been doing very well in the northern part of the state, and we know he has many Cass county friends who will be pleased to learn this. He paid the Journal office a pleasant call.

LOSE FIRST GAME ON OWN FLOOR TUESDAY NIGHT

Plattsmouth High Defeated by the Young Hilltoppers in a Heavily Contested Game.

From Wednesday's Daily: School fans for a berth in Class A at the state tournament were given a big and if not final jolt last night when Creighton Prep, city champions of Omaha, took the long end of the score in the most thrilling court battle seen here this season. The score was 20 to 17.

Although Prep won a deserved victory, the Plattsmouth five might have come out ahead had they tried a little team work or had they made half of their free throws. Seldom did they pass the ball in their own half of the floor, Chase or Krejci invariably trying long, wild shots some of which even missed the bank board. Chase also tried long shots but they were not wild, random brand Plattsmouth used.

The first few minutes of play pre- saged an exciting and closely contested game, neither team scoring until near the close of the quarter. Once Krejci dribbled thru the whole, Drennan can only miss in a sea of Prepmen. Chase then dropped one in from the center of the floor for the first field goal of the game, and the crowd went wild. Plattsmouth led at the half 8 to 5.

O'Brien, Prep center, shot the Hilltoppers into the lead for the first time after five minutes of play in the second half which they held to the end of the game. The crowd grew tense as it saw Plattsmouth almost even the count, then fall when the wily Omahas stalled for time in the last few minutes. Once Chase electrified the blue following with a long shot from almost three-fourths length of the floor and it looked like the rally that would carry the Platt- ers to victory had come; but the Prep wall held and that basket was the end.

Captain Wasley for Plattsmouth starred while Captain Coffey for Prep showed up well although Coach Drennan has a squad from which there is little to choose in any of the players.

The attendance at the game last night—standing room was at a premium—was a lesson and reminder to local schedule makers as to crowds they might expect if more teams of Creighton caliber were on the list. It is to be hoped that next year Plattsmouth may meet more opponents of this class.

HAS SOME BAD LUCK
From Wednesday's Daily— Sunday afternoon one of the progressive young merchants of the city who possesses one of the most luxurious of the coupe type of automobiles dispensed by Henry Ford, loaded his family in the coupe and drove to the residence of an old friend and neighbor nearby. The members of the family had come to spend several hours and the faithful car that has traversed many a mile, was left standing out in the muddy road that the damp condition of the weather was making muddier every minute. It was not until evening that the car owner and his family decided to return home and came forth to enter their chariot and were then a little annoyed to find that the car had gradually sunk down into the mud until it closely resembled a submarine even more than car. The owner, however, was undaunted and entering the car proceeded to turn on a plentiful supply of the Teapot Dome product; the car strained and creaked, the engine pounded and the wheels attempted to revolve, but, alas! they moved not an inch, and it was then found that the rigid Nebraska rollers had frozen the mud in which the car was reposing, locking it as safely as though it were confined by a padlock. What was said by the owner need not be said here, as the words were not such that they might fit unheeded on the ear of the passerby. But this, too, was in vain. The car still remains confined in the frozen mud to await the day when the bright sunbath that has made Nebraska famous, breaks forth in all its glory and unseals the forces of mud that hold the car in a close embrace.

The moral of this fable is, "Every- thing comes to him who waits."
