We are Yours for Service

Johnson Auto Company Nehawka, Nebraska

Mrs. Elizabeth Chappell is assisting with her work at the hotel and makes an excellent worker. Geo. C. Sheldon was called to Union to look after some business matters on last Monday afternoon. Henry Koehler was a visitor at Union last Monday where he had some business matters to look after. Geo. Kerr who makes his home at Plattsmouth now was looking after some business in Nehawka on last Monday.

Albert Wolfe who is employed at the barber business at Omaha was an over Sunday visitor at home and returned to his work on Monday afternoon. Little Jackie Wunderlich was very sick last Sunday but with the following day was showing nice improvement and since has been feeling much better.

Frank A. Boedeker, bank examiner, was a visitor at home for over Sunday but got out early Monday morning at his work again. Messrs. C. E. Hitt, Sr., and Chas. Hitt, Jr., from east of Murray were looking after some business in Nebraska on last Monday afternoon. Grover Hoback, postmaster of Nehawka, was visiting and looking after some business matters in Weeping Water last week driving over in his auto.

Roy Cole of Murray with assistant linemen were in Nehawka on last Monday looking after some matters for the telephone lines in and about Nehawka. Miss Imo Heebner who is one of the instructors at the Weeping Water schools was spending last Sunday at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Heebner.

Miss Edythe Hanson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Geo. Hanson were passengers to Omaha on Monday of this week where Miss Edythe entered the Clarkson hospital where she will take a course in practical nursing.

Miss Martha Wercknitz of Brooklyn, N. Y., has been visiting in Nehawka for some time and has been the guest while here at the home of her aunt Mrs. D. Steffens. H. H. Stoll who is spending his winter at Jacksonville, Fla., writes that the winter has been fine and that it is his intention not to spend another winter in the north.

was a good sized crowd in attendance and all property went well. Harmon Beck from west of Murray was a business visitor in Nehawka on last Monday and reports that Mrs. Corbett, Mrs. Beck's mother, is now getting on much better and that hopes are entertained that she may soon be out again.

During a portion of last week John Steffens and wife were enjoying a visit from two sisters of Mrs. Steffens, Mesdames Emma Hopp and Clara Derman both of Talmage and they also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson while here. The ladies aid of the United Brethren church are to have a bake sale at the auditorium on February 27 at 2 in the afternoon which promises to be a drawing card for the housekeepers for the many things which they sell help make the need.

Donald, the 18 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Opp, has been very sick at their home in Nehawka with pneumonia and for some time his recovery was despaired of but on Sunday last a change for the better occurred and since the little one has been showing improvement.

With the resignation of the position with Nelson Anderson which has been held by Oscar Johnson who went into business for himself, the position has been filled by Mr. Herbert Stoll who seems to fit into the place and we are sure his clever ways will attract many to this popular place.

Messrs. and Mesdames John O. Yeiser and little son and George C. Wiggert all of Omaha on last Friday called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm spending the evening where all but Mrs. Yeiser and little John departed for their home in Omaha. Mr. Yeiser and his son remained until during this week visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm.

Busy Workers Were Busy

The Busy Workers, the ladies' organization of the Methodist church, served a dinner at the auditorium last Saturday appropos of the holding of the Hampshire sale by Harry Knabe. And as they had prepared an abundance of good things to eat they were also able to serve an excellent supper at the same place which was enjoyed by the town and who pronounced the supper one which could not be excelled.

Grandpa Munn Very Sick

Warren Munn, Sr., better known as Grandpa Munn, father of Warren Munn, Jr., and Mrs. Wm. Steele, has been very ill with pneumonia at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Steele, for some time and has been taken care of by Chas. Burton, who, by some, makes an excellent nurse.

Grandpa Munn has been showing some improvement, though still quite serious. All is being done for the aged gentleman that good nursing and medical treatment can possibly do and it is that that he will be able to do about again in a short time. His many friends are hoping he may soon be out again.

Nehawka Has New Enterprise

Nehawka is to be congratulated upon the opening of a new eating house. The same occupying the building one door east of the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Blake. The new concern which is to be a short order restaurant which will be jointly the property of Oscar Johnson who formerly was employed by Nelson Anderson, and the man who conducts the hotel. They should make the venture a success.

Will Drill For Oil Soon

The preparation work which must be done first before the drilling for the oil can actually commence. The derrick which is about 80 feet in height was erected last week and other work is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible in order that the actual work of sinking the well can commence. A crew of some seven men are now employed and the work is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible. Mr. Glen Ruby of Denver, state geologist for Colorado, was in Nehawka looking after some matters connected with the sinking of the well. As the work goes forward faith in the enterprise deepens and there is at this time great faith in the ultimate favorable outcome of the venture. Mr. F. P. Sheldon says tell the world for me, "We are sure going to get oil." Mr. Sheldon is keeping well up with the work as it goes forward and is in a very favorable position to know and the enterprise looks good to him. It should look good to everybody.

Makes Excellent Showing

Last Saturday at the Nehawka scale pavillion otherwise known as Heck's Hivery stable, occurred the sale of that wonderful strain of hogs the Hampshires, which are bred and raised by Harry Knabe. The roads and weather were both against the sale still much interest was manifested and more than half of all the hogs were bought. The wonder being that all but three of the sales made were home people, demonstrating that the neighboring farmers knew to a certainty that the bred sows were well worth more than the price paid. The average price which was paid was $41 and 100 per cent more than one hog would have brought had they been marketed at any receiving station. Mr. Harry Knabe is one of the best judges of hogs and his success makes him an astute business man for he has been able to make the herd pay from the beginning and keeps them paying all the time.

JOHN MOREHEAD SAYS HE'LL FILE FOR RE-ELECTION

Congressman's Decision Removes Another Possibility for Senate from Democratic Ranks

Lincoln, Feb. 18.—Although Congressman John H. Morehead of Falls City did not file for re-election today, Secretary of State Charles W. Pool announced that he had received word from his stating that he would go so in a few days. Morehead's decision to be a candidate removes another possibility for the senate from the ranks of the democrats.

Floyd L. Bollen of Lincoln today joined the rush of democrats who are getting their names on both democratic and progressive ballots when he personally filed on the democratic ticket and accepted progressive petitions.

Others to file today include Thomas E. Connel, candidate for lieutenant governor on the republican ticket; Robert R. Dickson of Fremont as candidate for district judgeships, and Soren M. Fries, of Dannebrog, candidate for the state senate on the democratic ticket from the Twenty-fourth district.

PUBLIC LIBRARY NOTES

Notwithstanding the very disagreeable weather on Saturday, February 16, it was a big day for the circulation of books. It was one of the days that brought the "women folk" to get the Sunday reading. At this time dues paid in the Y. L. R. A. This association buys the latest fiction—books that are talked about—that people want to read at once. After the members read them these books are placed in general circulation. Anyone is welcome to join the club.

The excellent stereopticon views in the library are much appreciated by the younger people and the splendid pictures give valuable information not found in the text books. Better English week is almost here and the librarian has secured several playlets for that occasion, which may be used by any teachers interested. The popular juvenile books for this week have been: "Promised Land", "Robin Hood", "True Abraham Lincoln", "Boy Scout Practice", "Little Women", "Tom Sawyer." An especially good selection of new books for juveniles has just been received and will soon be on the shelves. They are: "The Shadowland", a delightful fairy story by Gertrude Crownfield; "All About Pets", a charming book for the younger readers who like pets; "Around the World in Ten Days", for those who like hotious adventure; "Garnet Story Book", a collection by authors who know how to entertain young readers; "Stories by Mrs. Molesworth", a wonderfully interesting book by an author who needs no introduction; "Through the Cloud Mountain", by Florence Bernard, a book of charming tales that will delight those familiar with characters in the juvenile classics; "Knock Three Times" and "In Wheel About and Cockalene", two beautifully illustrated books by Marian Webb and Grace Ghys; "Sandman's Mountain", a story for large readers to read to small persons, by Louis Dodge; "Every Child", by Louis Dodge, illustrated in color; "Daisy Bellies", a child's book of unusual charm about fairyland where grow "sugar and spice and all things nice," by Olcott; "Something to Make", by Eric Wood for the boy who wants to do something.

A gift of $25 from "P. E. O." makes it possible to get some very desirable additions to the book orders.

NEW STATION IN THE AIR

The new Henry Field Seed company broadcasting station at Shenandoah, Iowa, is in the air with test programs during the noon hour each day and has been picked up by a number of the fans here who are wont to spend a few minutes with their sets each noon on the market reports, weather bulletins or latest press dispatches.

It is announced the station will operate on a two-night-a-week schedule at the start. Their meter length is 255, and they are said to have come in good and strong by those who picked them up Monday noon.

REPORT ON COST OF WHEAT AND FLOUR

Tariff Commission Concludes Hearing on Production Expense—To Announce Result.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The tariff commission today concluded its hearing on the cost of producing wheat in the United States and in Canada and tomorrow will make public the results of its investigation into the cost of producing wheat products, particularly flour, and receive any testimony on that subject. The investigation has been made by the commission and report to President Coolidge probably within two weeks, laying before the president information upon which he can determine whether the cost of production justifies an increase in the present duty on wheat and wheat products. The investigation has been made by the commission upon the application of the wheat council of the United States.

The formal hearing today on wheat cost production brought forth little information additional to that already before the commission. Former Senator P. J. McCumber of North Dakota, counsel for the wheat council, presented the result of an investigation made by him in North Dakota and in Canada which placed production costs much higher than the preliminary costs found by the commission's experts. He also presented a report of an investigation made by the American wheat growers' association, whose figures likewise were somewhat higher than the commission's.

Prof. Rex E. Willard of the North Dakota college of agriculture, discussed what prices in their relation to the price of other commodities and said the present tariff on wheat was effective to the extent of about 20 cents a bushel.

THRILLING RESCUE IS MADE IN MIDAIR

Girl Aerial Stunt Performer Saved by Joint Efforts of Pilots of Planes a Mile High.

Houston, Tex., Feb. 17.—A thrilling rescue in midair saved Miss Rosella Gordon, Houston chorus girl, from death while more than 5,000 horrified spectators gazed skyward at Ellington field, near here, this afternoon. Miss Gordon, who formerly was an aerial stunt performer, was attempting to make a parachute leap from a mile high plane when the huge umbrella became entangled in equipment on the plane.

Diavolo, acrobatic airman, who was in the plane, climbed out of the fuselage and down to the landing gear, but was unable to drag her back to safety. Meanwhile C. E. Hanghorn, the pilot, kept the plane in the air, realizing that an attempt to land would have meant instant death to the girl.

Fredrick Leon, Houston aviator, went up in another machine piloted by Tommy Thompson. A mile from the ground he climbed from Thompson's plane to Hanghorn's. He then worked his way to the landing gear, but even he and Diavolo proved unable to withdraw the helpless girl back into the machine.

Leon then mounted to the passenger's seat, and using the auxiliary controls drove the plane while Hanghorn climbed down to the landing gear and between them they drew the girl to safety.

WAR DEBT POLICY REMAINS UNCHANGED

Washington, Feb. 18.—The American government's war debt policy remained unchanged after a conference today of the debt commission. The commission failed to act on proposals that the debtor governments be reminded again that the United States is awaiting funding proposals.

SURGEONS' HEAD DENOUNCES PRACTICE OF FEE SPLITS

"Traffic in Human Life, Depredations of Quacks to be Eliminated," Says Ochsner.

"The buying and selling of human life, the depredations of quacks, the inhuman practices of fee-splitting are going to be largely eliminated through the work of the American College of Surgeons," declared Dr. A. J. Ochsner, of Chicago, president of the American College of Surgeons, attending the clinical congress of the Nebraska section of the college at the Hotel Fontenelle Monday and today.

"Some fifteen or twenty years ago the country was full of medical schools that turned out so-called physicians and surgeons such as did the 'diploma factories' of St. Louis, of which we have read so much lately," he declared. "The public had no way of telling who was educated and experienced, and as a result was largely the victim of malpractice. City doctors from these schools formed alliances with doctors in the country, and patients were sent in on commission. Operations were performed needlessly and fees split with those who had any part in securing the victim."

"Many country physicians sent patients to the city doctors and surgeons who paid them the largest commissions. Even ministers were won't to occasionally come in for a rake-off. "In 1914 a group of representative surgeons came together in Washington and formed the college of which I am now the head. It now has a membership of six thousand and two thousand more will be admitted between now and October. No man can become a member of this college until a state committee, a central committee and finally the parent body itself is thoroughly convinced and certain as to his qualifications, as a man and practitioner. The requirements are strict and thorough, with the result that people today may know that when they secure the services of a member of this college, they are securing the best obtainable in the land, in every respect. Men who will treat them thoroughly, carefully and with due consideration of all conditions.

"We will not be able to eliminate quacks entirely, but we are rapidly crippling their wholesale depredations."

LEASING FOR CALIFORNIA

Mrs. J. E. Mason and daughter, Alice, are expecting to leave Saturday for Santa Ana, California, where they are to join Mr. Mason who has been there for the past two months and is now working at his trade in that place. The family has disposed of their interests here so that they are able to get away and have already shipped their household effects that they are taking. The home here has been rented and Mrs. Mason and daughter in a few days hope to be on their way to the west coast.

Mrs. William Baird was in Omaha today, going to that city on the early morning Burlington train this morning.

James Kahoutek departed this morning for Omaha where he was called to spend the day attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.
