Everybody is welcome. The young people are urged to be present to hear what he has to say about the Young Peoples' work.

Making Good Progress On Well

The picking of the oil well which is under operation at this time, is progressing very nicely. The matter is much of a job as no matter what intervenes between the service and the place where it is expected that oil should be struck, the drillers have to go through. At this time it is reported that the drillers have got

Special Picture Thursday Night

Hunting Big Game in Africa with Gun and Camera is a picture of real animal life in the African jungles, filmed by H. A. Snow and distributed by Universal Film Exchange. It will be shown at the W. A. hall Thursday night, April 3rd under auspices of the Parent-Teacher association. The proceeds to go to the High school orchestra. Everyone should come and see this wonderful picture of natural animal life and at the same time help to make this young people's hand a success. There will be a good comedy, too.

PLEASANT BIRTHDAY PARTY

From Wednesday's Daily—

Last evening, Clover Lodge, the attractive home of Judge and Mrs. Alvin J. Beeson, west of the city, was the scene of a most delightful gathering of friends on the occasion of the joint birthday anniversary of the genial county judge and his friend and neighbor, Luke L. Wiles, the joint celebration being arranged and carried out by Mrs. Beeson and her daughter, Miss Helen, in honor of the two gentlemen.

The note of the color scheme used in the dinner party was in pink and was carried out with pink roses, candles and nut cups which decorated the table where the fine four-course dinner was served. One of the chief features of the dinner was the two birthday cakes with their glowing candles and the number of which the guests of honor refused to confirm as to their accuracy but the cakes were very beautiful and attractive.

Those enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Luke L. Wiles, Miss Marguerite and Master Linville Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wiles and daughter, Mary Catherine; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crabbill and daughter, Alice; Mrs. Allen Beeson, Miss Grace Beeson of Omaha; Mrs. A. J. Beeson and daughter, Helen.

SUFFERS SERIOUS ACCIDENT

From Wednesday's Daily—

Yesterday afternoon Edna May Peterson, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, Jr., suffered a very severe injury that will be painfully remembered by the little lady for some time. Edna May was at the R. B. Hayes home playing with her little friend, Jean Hayes, and the two girls were running around the yard and Edna May happened to have a small piece of wood in her mouth when the two girls ran together and the stick was thrust down the throat of the little girl and caused a very severe laceration of one of her tonsils but it is not thought the accident will have serious results with proper care.
