Building Coming Nicely
The new building for Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler which is in course of construction, is coming along nicely at this time, the plastering being completed and the stucco on the outside about finished. Mr. Wm. Obernalte of Nehawka and Mr. Fred L. Hild have the matter of the stucco in hand. Mr. Hild is also erecting a garage and chicken house which will be a most convenient building to this family.

Insurance Paid Promptly
About a year ago, John M. Bartlett bought a $5,000 policy in the Equity Life Insurance Company from the local agents, Jeff Brendel and Lee Kniss. On May 5th he died, having paid one year's premium. The proofs of death were submitted to the Equity Life Insurance company on the following Monday and on Tuesday morning the check for $5,000 was delivered to Mrs. Bartlett.

Enjoy Birthday Surprise
On Tuesday of this week was the 58th anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Emma March of Plattsmouth who resided in Murray for a number of years and so on last Sunday the children and the families went to Plattsmouth to her home where they surprised this good woman and gave her a most pleasant surprise and enjoyable day. A dinner was taken along which was so arranged that all were able to eat at once and enjoy the sociability as well as the good dinner. During the afternoon ice cream and cake was served and an abundance of good music and sociable conversation reminiscent of the former times when all lived in Missouri enlivened the occasion. There were there for the occasion, Messrs. Earl and Jarvis Lancaster, her sons, and their families; Messdames Joe Hathaway and Harry McCulloch, her daughters and their families; Enos Rayer and family who have just arrived from Colorado; Walter Rayer and wife, John Eppings and family, Mrs. Eppings also being a daughter, Frank, Dick and Bud, her sons, also Wm. Goehenour and Wm. Young and Carl Lang.

Entertained Friends For Dinner
Last Sunday at their farm home, northwest of Murray, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Seyboldt, who are past masters of entertaining, and for the day and the splendid dinner they served; Mrs. B. F. Brendel, Mrs. Morton Bartlett and daughter, Florence, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Brendel and their son, Harold, T. J. Brendel and wife of Murray and Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel of Avoca.
