

"Thresh Your Own"
with the
Advance-Rumely
Steel Separator
[Two-Plow Tractor Size]

FOR the man who wants to "thresh his own" here is an "individual" separator that has no real rival. In the first place it is a Rumely. That means that it saves grain and cleans grain as no other separator can. Professional threshermen by the thousands in the United States and Canada swear by Rumely separators.

Then it is an ideal size for a two-plow tractor. Handles easily, runs easily and has a tremendous capacity for its dimensions.

Will Not Warp or Burn

Nearly 100% steel construction makes this separator immune to warping regardless of the weather or time you leave it unprotected. It is also fire-proof. This separator is especially adapted to the inexperienced thresherman. Every adjustment and oil hole is on the outside. A simple lever raises or lowers concaves. Blast, sieves and even the chaffer are handled from the outside. Everything is within easy reach of the operator.

Being compact, shoe-turning, with a low center of gravity, the Rumely Ideal 22x32 job handles easily in barns or other places where there is not much room.

Come in and let us explain this efficient machine, showing you its many features.

VERY FINE BANQUET HELD BY WOMAN'S CLUB MONDAY NITE

At the Parlors of the Methodist Church; Over Eighty Ladies Enjoy the Event.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The Plattsmouth Woman's club on Monday evening at the parlors of the First Methodist church held their closing event of the year's work in the form of a banquet that was attended by some eighty of the ladies and proved one of the most delightful gatherings of the year.

The parlors were unusually attractive with the tables set with snowy linen, china and the silver and the tables were arranged with the tall yellow candles which added a pleasing touch to the general setting of the banquet.

The gathering was presided over by Mrs. P. J. Flynn as toastmistress, who was very versatile in this role and pleasantly introduced the members who took part in the evening's program.

The principal address of the occasion was made by Mrs. Yount of York, the district president of the federation and who told of the growth and the increasing extent of the work of the clubs in the state and the many matters of importance that were to come before the club in the coming year.

Mrs. John F. Gorder, the very efficient president of the local club also gave a very interesting address that was very much enjoyed by the ladies in attendance at the banquet.

In addition to the excellent speeches of the evening the members of the party were entertained by a well selected program of music and readings. Mrs. Roy O. Cole rendered one of her delightful piano selections, Mrs. Elbert Wiles, another of the gifted ladies residing in this vicinity, gave a flute solo with the piano accompaniment by Mrs. Cole, while Harlan Gorder, who is one of the most pleasing musicians in the high school circles, gave a saxophone solo that was very pleasing, the accompaniment being played by Mrs. Gorder.

The banquet menu was arranged and served by the ladies of the St. Mary's guild of St. Luke's Episcopal church and the ladies of the church filled the wishes of the members of the banquet party in the array of dainties that were provided for the occasion.

RECEIVES REMEMBRANCE

From Wednesday's Daily—
Yesterday while the members of the grand lodge of the Nebraska Masons were here to attend the cornerstone laying and visiting the Nebraska Masonic Home, the members of the delegation representing Crete Lodge No. 37, gave their old friend and former associate, Mr. Caldwell, one of the residents at the Home a most pleasant surprise.

Mr. Caldwell has the honor of being a member of the fraternity for the past fifty years and on this occasion on October 20, 1923, he received the congratulations of his friends but was not aware of the pleasant surprise that was being planned by the Crete lodge.

Yesterday, Reavis L. Blevins, master of Crete lodge No. 37, and James A. Bromwell representing the Crete lodge at the grand lodge, were here and called at the Masonic Home with John L. Tibball, Sr., of this city, veteran past master of the Crete lodge, and finding Mr. Caldwell presented him with a handsome ebony cane with a heavy gold handle which bore the Masonic emblem on it, and also the name of the veteran Mason and the dates of his entrance into the order and the 50th anniversary.

The remembrance is one that Mr. Caldwell will long appreciate and is a very handsome token of the appreciation of the lodge of the veteran's years of service.

A GOOD WORK PERFORMED

From Tuesday's Daily—
Those who visited the Oak Hill cemetery on Decoration Day and had been there a short time previously, were very much pleased with the changes that had been made in the general appearance of the city of the silent. The grass was cut nicely and the road made very easy of travel and in general the cemetery presented a most pleasing appearance. A good part of the excellent appearance of the cemetery is due to Chairman John C. Brittain of the cemetery committee of the council who was on the job in person in assisting in the work, as was Sexton Tulene and the force of workmen engaged was kept very busy attending to the work of placing the cemetery in first class shape and as the result of their efforts there was a noticeable change for the better in the general condition of the burial plot. Some of the improvements that are badly needed there are an extension of the water mains to that place and a new fence that should replace the present dilapidated wooden fence around the older addition to the cemetery.

HOLD BANQUET

From Wednesday's Daily—
At a banquet of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen held Tuesday night at the Lincoln hotel, following an all day session of the auxiliary, A. S. Whitney, Oak Park, Ill., vice president of the B. of R. T., reviewed the history of the B. of R. T. and told of its plans for the future.

The evening session opened at 6:30. An orchestra furnished music during the dinner and dance following. L. B. Frye, secretary-treasurer of Capital City lodge No. 170, was toastmaster.

Mr. Whitney in his speech said that if labor is to progress, it must be done through the ballot. Strikes are going out of date. Mrs. Deplain responded to the call for a talk, and advised women to get into politics.

Governor Charles W. Bryan responded to the toastmistress's request for an address. He said that sanity is measured by peoples ability to cooperate, and stated that he was glad to see the women backing the men with their organization. "Women meet all expectations in all of their activities," he said. Mrs. Bradley responded to the governor's talk and assured him of the support of the auxiliary. Rev. Walter Aitken also gave a short address.

Following the dinner and talks the company adjourned to the ballroom and the rest of the evening was spent dancing. During the intermission little Marjorie Jane Blomberg gave a dainty toe dance and sang a song.

The Wednesday meeting opens at 9 a. m. with lodge ceremonies and completion of instructions, after which the ceremonies of draping the lodge charter in honor of the memory of Mrs. Cecil Sovereign who died recently will be held. At 2 p. m. the auxiliary will take tea at the Governor's mansion.

As quickly as the year's graduates passed out of college preparations were begun for enrolling and caring for the large number of students expected for the summer quarter, which begins June 10. It is expected that the enrollment this summer will go over 3000.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Monday afternoon was the occasion of the Annual Flower Mission of the W. C. T. U. society of this city and an event that is looked forward to each year with the greatest of interest by all of the ladies, and they found that the hospitable country home of Mrs. C. L. The ladies came with many beautiful bouquets that added to the pleasantness of the settings of the meeting and here the time was spent in social conversation and visiting. Mrs. Wiles was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Jessie Hall and it was the universal opinion that the ladies had proven royal hostesses. The afternoon was also marked by a very interesting program of music, both vocal and instrumental, as well as a number of readings and these proved a most delightful feature of the occasion.

The members were especially pleased to have with them Mrs. A. W. Dawson, a former member of the local society, and who is visiting here from her home in Detroit as a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dodge.
