marriage in Wednesday of this week to Mr. Leslie Everett, in the form of a miscellaneous shower to which a large number of friends of the contracting parties were in attendance.

Union Boy Attends Convention

That is Geo. Stine, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Stine, is taking in the East, North and South, but not the West, for he is already here. He is taking in the Republican convention, which is in session during the week at Cleveland, and doing it while still at home, as he has instituted a radio, which brings all the portions of the country to his home. Of course this is only interesting this one member of the family. Uncle Rube, of course, keeps in touch with the way things are going by the son telling him who is making the speeches and who is being talked of for the position of vice president in which he was mostly interested.

Woman's Missionary Meeting

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met at the country home of J. E. McCarroll on Thursday where they held a most worthwhile meeting, looking after the work which they have in the regular work of the church. A program was given in which all were engaged and was entitled "The Skipper and His Ship." There were forty of the members present and a most delightful time was had, and which was made more enjoyable by the delightful luncheon which was served by the hostess.

Were Married Wednesday

At the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCarroll on Wednesday evening of this week was celebrated the marriage of their daughter Miss Angie McCarroll to Mr. Leslie Everett, the occasion being witnessed by a number of the most intimate friends and the families of the contracting parties. The home had been appropriately decorated for the occasion and the rooms which were beautiful in the beginning were made more so by the deft hands of the decorators. The bride was especially used in adding beauty to the place. The bride and groom presented a most pleasing appearance when they appeared to pledge their love and fidelity to each other for life. The marriage lines were read by the Rev. C. L. Elliot, pastor of the Methodist church of which both the contracting parties are members. The newly married young folks will make their home southeast of Union where they will remain among the scenes of their boyhood and girlhood. They have both grown to manhood and womanhood's estate here and have a host of friends which with the Journal are joining in extending to this popular couple the wish for a long, happy and useful life.

Is Putting in a Line of Feeds

Tony Sudduth and W. A. Keene were visitors at Nehawka last Monday where Mr. Sudduth secured a truck load of bran and shorts at the Nehawka Mills, bringing them home with them. This is the initial invoice of the stock which Mr. Sudduth has been keeping for a number of years and which will be an asset to the historically minded people of the coming generation, as well as the pictures if those who look parts in the events of the earlier years of Cass and Otoe counties when history was in the making. Mr. Graves has been taking pictures of many of his friends in order to give him the necessary practice to obtain efficiency.

Will Preserve History in Pictures

Attorney C. L. Graves has purchased a new camera which he is using for the purpose of getting the familiar faces of this community and which he will file away with the records of the old settlers society, which he has been keeping for a number of years and which will be an asset to the historically minded people of the coming generation, as well as the pictures if those who look parts in the events of the earlier years of Cass and Otoe counties when history was in the making. Mr. Graves has been taking pictures of many of his friends in order to give him the necessary practice to obtain efficiency.

Hold Children's Day Observances

Last Sunday at the Methodist church the world famed Children's Day was observed and a most worthwhile program presented by the children which they had been assisted in preparing by the ladies of the church. A large crowd attended the presentation of the program, which was well pleased with the excellency of the production.

Lucian LaRue, who has a reputation as a singer of considerable note was a visitor in Omaha for a few days last week. Lucian has sang before the people of the entire west in programs which have been given from Omaha at the broadcasting station WOAW and received many congratulations as to his excellent work.

Union Had a Good Game

Last Sunday the Binky-Dinks, the ball team of Union went to Sciota where they played a team of that locality a game of ball in the afternoon which was neatly contested as at the end of the ninth inning the game stood a tie with each team having four runs to their credit. In the tenth inning, as thing often occur, the luck ran to the Union team and they made four other scores, which they were able to shut out the team of Sciota, thus making the final Union, 8; Sciota, 4.

Attorney C. L. Graves was a visitor at the home of his brother, Shared Graves of Bellevue last Sunday where he met a large number of his relatives and where all enjoyed the occasion very much.

On account of breaking of the machinery of the trucks which are used for the maintenance of the roads, it was not possible to get the maintainers out of the Union station last Monday until the afternoon. They had to send to the factory for parts.
