William Wegener Passes Away on Thursday Evening at His Home in That City.

From Saturday's Daily: William Wegener, one of our highly respected pioneer citizens, was called by death on Thursday evening of last week, after an illness covering several months with a kidney trouble, together with heart disease. Every thing possible was done for his comfort and pleasure, and with a trained nurse in attendance and his faithful wife and children ever at his bedside, he passed peacefully away.

Mr. Wegener was born March 23, 1852, in Germany. In his infancy he was baptized in the Lutheran church and in the year 1866, he was confirmed according to the rites of that church and ever after remained a true and loyal member. He came to America in the year 1870, bringing with him his sister, Caroline, and settled in Kingston, Indiana, where he was employed on a farm. His sister married a Mr. Lessman and they lived in Alabama until their death.

From Indiana, he moved to Pontenelle, Nebraska, remaining there only a short time, after which he returned to Germany to bring to this country his mother, one brother and two sisters, his father having died when he was four years old. On his return to America, he came to Cass county, where he passed the remainder of his life.

June 6, 1881, he was married to Miss Wilhelmina Schiefert. This union was blessed with five children, three sons and two daughters, four of whom survive. The sons are Herman, Albert and John, all living in the country and all prosperous farmers. The elder daughter, Louisa, passed away in her early girlhood. The second daughter, Anna, now Mrs. George Heil, is married to one of our prominent farmers and they also live in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Wegener enjoyed a happy married life, which was filled with prosperity and many blessings. They moved from their farm southeast of town in the year 1916, and purchased a home on Cherry street in town, which they greatly beautified and remodeled and where their days passed pleasantly among their old time friends and neighbors, their children's homecoming being among their greatest pleasures. He also leaves seven grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Adana Krueger, east of Louisville—Louisville Courier.

COUNTY AGENT STILL POORLY.

The reports from Weeping Water state that County Agent L. R. Snipes, who has been under the weather for the past few days, is still poorly and is kept on a very severe diet by his physician. He has been suffering from stomach trouble and the fact that he has lived on a milk diet for the past two weeks has made him decidedly weak and feeling the need of rest. The course of treatment will prove effective and the genial county agent will soon be able to be around and back on the job as usual. Mr. Snipes has, since taking over this office, been constantly on the go and has made all parts of the county, in the interest of the extension work and his absence has been noted by the many friends over the county during the past two weeks and it is with the greatest of regret that they have learned of his illness.

MAD DOG SCARE IN THE SOUTH PART OF CITY

From Saturday's Daily: The residents of the south part of the city have been greatly stirred in the last few days over a mad dog scare that has caused all the suspicious looking dogs to be shot on sight for fear that they might develop a case of the rabies.

It was reported that one of the dogs in that locality was showing indications of frothing at the mouth and having the dull movements that indicate the approach of the rabies and this dog was shot as well as others with which it had been associating.

This is not dog day season, but apparently the animal had in some manner contracted the rabies and to be on the safe side a wholesale slaughter of the dogs in the neighborhood was commenced. So far as can be learned there was no person or animal bitten by the dog.

NEMAHA COUNTY PEOPLE LOSE SON

Keithleys of Craig, Mo., Lose Home in Tornado and Boy Who Was Wading After Storm.

On Thursday morning about 4 o'clock Everett Keithley, of Craig, Mo., who formerly lived in this county, was rendered homeless when his house was completely wrecked by a large tree falling on it, during the tornado. The family were in the house at the time, but all escaped without injury by crawling out thru the side of the wrecked house.

But after all that, the worst came about 1:30 in the afternoon when little Jimmy, 7 years of age, youngest son of Everett Keithley, and Carl Rhodes, 12 years old, of St. Joseph, Mo., who was on a visit to his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rhodes, of Craig, decided to go wading in the shallow water and pushed a log off into the old Missouri river. They pushed the log out too far to get back by wading and while they clung to it, the log was swept into the deeper, swift current of the river, and it was impossible for them to get to the shore. Young Rhodes decided to jump and try for his life, but little Jimmy, knowing that he could not swim, stayed on the log and later his screams were heard and he was rescued by his father and other neighbors, who came to his rescue.

The clothing of the two boys was found on the bank by a neighbor, who gave the alarm and the search was begun in time to make the rescue of one possible, but the body of the other boy was not discovered until Monday, when it was found near St. Joseph, Mo.

Everett Keithley is the youngest son of Newt Keithley, of the Hillsdale neighborhood and the boy's mother was formerly Agnes Merritt, daughter of Sherman Merritt, of Nemaha.—Auburn Republican.

MISSOURI PACIFIC MAKES CHANGE IN TIME OF TRAINS

New Time Card Effective Sunday, June 22nd, will Change Time of Number of Trains

From Saturday's Daily: The Missouri Pacific is announcing a change in the running time of a number of their trains that will give a much better service between this city and Omaha as it gives an afternoon train that is earlier than heretofore and one that comes from Omaha later in the morning.

On the northbound trains No. 105 will be two minutes earlier, leaving here at 6:23 a. m.; No. 103 will leave here at 2:35 p. m., instead of 3:19, as at present; No. 107 will remain at 7:35 p. m. as at present.

On the southbound trains No. 106 will reach here at 12:15 a. m. (midnight) the same as at present; No. 104 will arrive here at 8:48 a. m. instead of 8:35 as at the present time and No. 108 will keep their present schedule of 2:35 p. m.

THEM WERE THE DAYS

In these days of rapid transit when the fastest trains of the great system have cut down the running time to the lowest possible figures with the present equipment and the air ships are making the crossing of the continent but a matter of from forty-eight to sixty hours, while plans are being laid for an all daylight flight of some eighteen hours, it is interesting to note just what the traveler of fifty years ago had to contend with in the way of travel.

While Lester Burrows was tearing down his home in the north part of the city he came across an old time card of the Michigan Central stored away between the plastering and the outer wall of the house. This time card was issued in 1871 and was the chief route from Chicago to New York. One of their fastest trains left Chicago at 9 o'clock in the morning and at 11:20 in the evening of the second day arrived at New York.

The trains left Chicago at 6 o'clock in the morning for Detroit and arrived at the future home of Henry Ford at 6:45 at night, making the distance of 284 miles in this running time of 12 hours and 45 minutes.

DIVORCES HOLD STAGE IN THE DISTRICT COURT

From Saturday's Daily: This morning the only activity in the district court to speak of was in the matter of relieving the various parties of the ties of matrimony that had grown worn and feeble.

The case of Clara Sharp vs. Frank H. Sharp was on the docket at the court of Judge Begley and the testimony of the plaintiff and of Hammond Sharp a brother-in-law, was received in support of the claims of the plaintiff for release from the ties of wedlock. The court after the hearing of the testimony and the entering of the default of the defendant, granted the decree as prayed for and awarded the custody of the minor child to the plaintiff.

An action for divorce was filed in the office of District Clerk James M. Robertson entitled Ada Mae Eager vs. Edward Eager and in which the plaintiff asks a decree on the charge of neglect. The petition states that the parties were married at O'Neill, Nebraska, May 26, 1923.
