Individuality!

Dainty School Girls!

Even the growing girl likes one or two gingham frocks in her school outfit, knowing their cool, fresh appearance and the dainty air they give her.

She is proud of the pretty picture she makes in them. In our gingham we have a variety and beauty of design that lends itself to the most charming treatment. They are worth seeing for their pattern alone.

Our McCall patterns are authoritative in style and explicit in direction, so that even the novice is assured of success in dressmaking.

FATHER OF LOEB GETS DEED TO FRANKS HOME

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Albert H. Loeb, father of Richard Loeb, who is now awaiting sentence for the kidnaping and murder of Robert Franks, has received a quit claim deed to the home of Jacob Franks, slain boy's parent, it became known Saturday.

It was learned that the home of the Franks family was purchased from the Loeb in 1910.

Under the terms of the deed, the home is transferred to Mr. Loeb for $1 and "other valuable considerations," the exact nature of which was not stated.

Mr. Franks, when questioned about the transaction, refused to comment, saying he had been requested to get to work.

Mr. Franks desired to sell his home because of the associations it held for him and his wife. It is located in an exclusive section of the south side and not far from the Loeb and Leopold residences.

DENVER HAS HOT DRY AUGUST

Denver, Colo., Sept. 1.—Denver, according to a report today, has passed through the driest and with few exceptions, the hottest August since the establishment of the government weather station here, 1933 being the driest in the history of the city.

An inch of precipitation, whereas precipitation of August, 1923, amounted to 3.87 inches. A previous low figure for precipitation was .95 of an inch in 1900 and again in 1917.

EMMA GOLDMAN TO LONDON

London, Sept. 1.—Emma Goldman will be among the first Russians admitted to Great Britain under the new treaty regulations for the admission of the nationals of both countries to each other.

An anarchist, who has a number of friends in London, has informed them she will make her home with relatives here until she has found the right place for her services. She expects to arrive here within a few days, probably during October.

Miss Goldman now is in Berlin but has been asked several times by the authorities to depart. It is not known whether her hand of a few followers who also are in Berlin will come to England.

ASSESSORS TO BE ELECTED

From Wednesday's Daily—There is one provision of the law covering the election of the county and precinct assessors with which many of the voters are not fully conversant. It is that in order to be eligible the candidates for assessors. The law states that the county assessor cannot hold but one term of four years and must then retire and that in the case of precinct assessors they cannot hold but two terms of two years each and then are ineligible for re-election for at least another term. The voters in the various precincts are very much in favor of retaining their assessors in office for several terms but this is contrary to law and assessors who are serving their second terms are ineligible for re-election and their successors must be picked by the voters of the precincts at the forthcoming election this fall.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

In the District Court of Cass county, Nebraska.

In the matter of the estate of John W. Yardley, Deceased.

Now on the 3rd day of September, A. D. 1924, being one of the days of the regular May, A. D. 1924 term of this court, this cause came on for hearing upon the petition of Alma Yardley, Administratrix of the estate of John W. Yardley, deceased, praying for judgment and Order of Court authorizing the petitioner, as such administratrix of said estate, to negotiate a loan of Thirty-one Hundred Dollars ($3,100.00) and secure the same by giving a first mortgage on the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of Section twenty-nine, (29), in Township eleven (11) North, Range fourteen (14) East of the Sixth Principal Meridian, in Cass county, Nebraska, for the purpose of paying mortgages already against said real estate and past due, and securing funds for paying debts and expense of administration of said estate, there not being personal property with which to meet such obligations.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at the District Court room in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, on the 18th day of October, A. D. 1924, to show cause why a judgment and order should not be issued by the court authorizing said administratrix to mortgage the real estate hereinbefore described for the sum of $3,100.00 to pay off mortgages against said real estate and pay debts and expenses of administration. It is further ordered that service of this order be made by publication thereof for four successive weeks in the Plattsmouth Journal.

Dated this 3rd day of September, A. D. 1924.

JAMES T. BEGLEY,
Judge of the District Court.

day, they driving over to the capital city in their car for the occasion. While they were away, Albert Wolfe was looking after the barber shop for Mr. Lemon.

Wm. Waldo has been out on the farm plowing and getting the land in readiness for the crop the coming year. While he has been engaged the boys have been looking after the business in town, running the dray and doing the other work.

Mutt and Jeff are now working together since the closing of the threshing season and both are in the blacksmith shop pounding away at the sharpening of the plow lays. They are otherwise known as T. E. Fulton and Warren Munger.

Truman Tyler of Nebraska City, where he is employed with the Cleveland store, of that place, was in Nehawka last Monday visiting with friends and looking after some matters of business. Truman is at this time living in Nebraska City at this time.

Ed Wolfe and wife of near Union, cousins of Albert Wolfe and wife of Nehawka, were guests of this popular couple and enjoyed the visit very much Sunday as was Mrs. Wolfe, a brother of Albert Wolfe, who lives southeast of town in Oteo county.

Eugene Hicks, who has been visiting with friends at Johnson City, Ky., and where he had a most pleasant time for the past few months, returned home last week and is greeting his friends here. Mr. Hicks says that things are looking fine in the southern part of the state.

Mrs. Clarence Hanson who has been having siege with the scarlet fever, is getting along nicely at this time and is up and about, but still in the quarantine has been lifted. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Christweiser, who have been at the Hanson home caring for the patient, have returned home.

J. W. Murdock last Saturday received some fifty bushels of wheat which he had purchased at the South Omaha stock yards and which he is to feed at his farm south of Nehawka for returning to the market when in condition. Mr. Murdock has plenty of roughage and also plenty of feed in the making at this time so as to care for the herd which he has just shipped in.

Saw Cass County Sunday. J. C. Wunderlich and the wife and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schumaker, last Sunday afternoon with the car working at its best, started for the end of the county to see the crops and friends which these people have there, and striking the Red Hill they first went to Murdock, where they found that thriving little city in line shape and their friends enjoying life, and after a short stay there, returned to Alvo, and meeting many of their friends, among whom were John W. Banning and wife, they drove on over to Eagle the uttermost town in the county, and after a visit with their friends there, returned via Elmwood, where they met L. F. Langhorst, who was much pleased to meet them. They then returned home and besides enjoying the pleasant ride found the crops looking fine.

At the Mason Home. Last Sunday Thomas Mason and wife and Thomas Mason, Jr., decided they would go to Nebraska City, where they wished to enjoy the day at Morton Park, and they had scarcely departed ere some of their friends, Mr. E. M. Yancey, inspector at the packing house in South Omaha, and Miss Susan Scott, also of that place, came and finding their friends gone to Nebraska City, also continued to that place, where they all enjoyed the outing. During the week, Mr. and Mrs. Mason and their son entertained at their home in Nehawka, the following friends: M. R. Bush and wife and Miss Florence Noble, of Kansas City, Richard Turner and wife of Omaha and Julian Loberg, of Hiawatha, Kansas.

The Oil Well Going Down. The workmen at the oil well which is being sunk northwest of Nehawka are meeting with good success in the sinking of the shaft and also in the character of the strata through which they are passing. They have much evidence of oil and are expecting to find it in paying quantities in the near future.

Entertained Their Friends. Henry Vanine and wife, at their home southeast of Nehawka, on last Sunday entertained at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Art Hanson and children and Mrs. Thomas Hanson, of Murray. Mrs. Hanson being the mother of Mrs. Van Tine and Mr. Hanson her brother. They also had with them E. E. Miller and wife of Nebraska City and son, Elmer. All enjoyed a very pleasant time at the Vanine home.

SWINE JUDGING BEGINS THE SECOND DAY OF THE FAIR

Genoa and Lancaster County Pig Clubs Take Honors—Dawson Wins with Her Cattle

Lincoln, Sept. 2.—The Nebraska state fair swung into full operation today after the automobile races and an address by Phil La Follette, son of the presidential candidate, had opened the fair officially yesterday.

The turnstiles whizzed around 37,191 times today, setting a record for Tuesday attendance, that on Tuesday of last year being 34,915.

Swine judging opened in the morning when boys and girls pig clubs' pigs were driven into the rings by their young owners. The Genoa Pig club carried off most of the honors in the Hampshire class, sharing them, however, with youngsters from Lancaster county. Elmer Hoffman of Alvo won first in the Poland Boar class and West Point, Dodge and Eagle boys were next in line.

Purses and other breeds were also judged, and there was keen competition in the display of litter of pigs.

Miss Cleora Majors of Lexington won the championship of the boys' and girls' baby beef show. Her grade steer was placed at the head of a string of 120 entries.

Dawson county won first in the cattle judging. Boone, Cumings and Cedar counties next in line.

The night musical review, which scored a big success last year, proved a great attraction this year, drawing a packed grandstand in spite of the chill wind that swept the field in front.

State fair officials predicted this morning that if the crowd would turn out as well on good weather days as it did during the bad weather yesterday, a new record in attendance would be hung up.

Today was bright and a warm sun promised to dry off the grounds for the continuance of the expositions.

Thursday is Omaha day, and a large crowd is expected from there on special trains.

The first annual dog show brought to the fair by the Nebraska Kennel club had its opening today and attracted a crowd. The dogs shown are all pedigreed animals from Nebraska kennels, many of exalted lineage in the canine family. The exhibit is made up of over 2 hundred dogs of nearly every known breed. Judging of the animals began this afternoon.

MAN IS NEAR DEATH RESULT OF TORTURE

Hot Irons Used to Brand Him with Letters 'K. K.' Gagged Blindfolded and Left in Cottage.

Waukegan, Ill., Sept. 2.—A man believed to be Thomas Stolz of Cudahy, Wis., found branded with the letters "K. K." and left bound, gagged and blindfolded in a deserted cottage at Winthrop Harbor, Ill., near here, is near death in the Lake county general hospital here. He is suffering from lack of food and from thirst. The man, who is about thirty-eight years old, was roused to what seemed to be semi-consciousness at intervals, once murmuring: "Turn me to death if you want to cut my throat and be done with it, but don't torture me any more."

Policeman Paul Johnson of Winthrop Harbor heard the words as he worked with the nearly unconscious man, who was found today by George Zittler at Detroit. His rambling words indicated he was attacked by six negroes and taken to a ramshackle place where he was bound, gagged and branded by the negroes who used hot wires to brand him. From Detroit he was thrown into a truck and taken a long distance, he thought, to Gary, Ind., and said he saw a policeman working over him.

TO KNOCKERS

"Tell us not in mournful numbers that this town is on the bum; rouse up from your peaceful slumbers; get out and make things hum. If we go to work in earnest we can make things hit on high; dust thou art, dust thou returnest, is a song of by and by. All the past is done forever—you can't call one moment back—and the future may come never, this is true, so help me Mack. Now's the time to do your boosting, do not await tomorrow's dawn, in the grave you may be roosting, all your boosting chances gone. Lay aside your little hammer, grab a horn and toot a few; squelch the kicker's dad blamed hammer with a joyful blast or two. This old town is sure a pippin, and we ought to boost it big, when we hear some growler yippin' we should smite him on the wig. Mighty oaks that grow and flourish came from acorns plain and small, with your boosting you may nourish something that may prove a blessing to tolling son of men that's the point that I am stressing, boost and boost, then boost again. People love the smiling booster, and for him they loudly cheer, but they hate the knocking rooster, long to pelt him in the ear. Boost your country and your business, boost the people in your town, they will dub you wise and witty and you'll gain a wide renown."—FRIEND SENTINEL.

SUFFERS SEVERE INJURY

While Mrs. Charles M. Parker was hurrying to Omaha Saturday by auto called by the serious condition of her mother, Mrs. W. R. Murray, she was the victim of a very painful accident. She was driving along the highway between Fort Crook and Avery when she turned the car, a Ford Sedan, out to allow another car to pass and as she turned the car out it ran into a large area of soft dirt and dust that had been pulled up by the road grader and as Mrs. Parker attempted to turn the car back into the roadway one wheel refused to respond as it was caught in the soft dirt and was turned over. Mrs. Parker was injured when the car turned over and caught in the wrecked car with the result that she suffered the fracture of three ribs and was otherwise bruised and injured. Passing autoist took the injured lady on into Omaha where she was given an X-ray examination and the fractured ribs located and dressed and the patient made as comfortable as possible. The car was badly damaged and will require some $200 before it can be placed back in running order. However severe that the accident was, it is fortunate that it was no worse and the injuries not more severe.

SECOND ROUND OF THE PLATTSMOUTH GOLF TOURNAMENT

Now Being Staged at Plattsmouth Golf Club Course; Consolation Matches Being Played.

From Wednesday's Daily—As the result of the opening round of the city golf tournament of the Plattsmouth golf club the big event is entering the second round today and the victors are meeting their other successful rivals while the losers of the matches yesterday are enjoying themselves in the consolations and some very interesting matches are expected in the day's play.

The first round matches yesterday were two very close and interesting rounds, James W. Holmes winning after a close race from Ed Fricke and E. C. Harris defeating August Clويد in a whirlwind finish after they had battled through the seven-tee holes. Fricke, won by Holmes, which Mr. Holmes and Mr. Harris succeeded in putting their opponents out of the race.

The matches in the championship flight were: Flynn-Speir, won by Flynn; Warga-Bauer, won by Warga; Holmes-Fricke, won by Holmes; Wolff-Dovey, won by Dovey; Campbell-Wurl, won by Campbell; Moore-Bell, won by Moore; Perring-Westover, won by Westover; Clويد-Harris, won by Harris.

The play in the President's flight was very interesting to the members of the club and the fans attending the matches and developed some excellent shots by the participants. The matches played were: Knorr-Streight, won by Knorr; Krecklow-Bates, won by Krecklow; McClusky-L. W. Egenberger, won by McClusky; Jack Hatt-Davis, won by Davis; Ploutz-John Hatt, won by Ploutz; Niel-Stewart, won by Niel; Baird-Stuart Egenberger, won by Egenberger; Rosencrans-Bestor, won by Bestor.

The Lame Duck flight was enlivened by the fact that a number of the hdds were participating and their playing was a surprise as they gave several of the closest matches of the tournament and some of which required an extra hole to be played before the winner could be determined. The plays in this flight were: Minor-Mrs. John Wolff, won by Minor; Boedeker-Pollock, won by Pollock; Richey-Mrs. Speir, won by Richey; Kerr-Mrs. Knorr, won by Mrs. Knorr; Fritz-Fricke-Mrs. Wynn, won by Fricke; Wynn-Mrs. E. C. Harris, won by Wynn; DeWolf-Matzy, won by DeWolf; Brown-Mrs. Bestor, won by Brown.

This morning in the second round of the tournament, Frank Bestor defeated Stuart Egenberger and in the consolation, Mrs. Evi Speir defeated George Kerr.

From Wednesday's Daily—If farmers find it worth while to heat water for their cows, to cook feed for their hogs and to have a hot drink for themselves when lurching in the fields, it is not worth while to provide something warm for the boys and girls who are eating a cold lunch at school? Children not only eat for their bodies and to have a hot body, but they must furnish their bodies with material for growth.

With 15,000 fresh hogs Tuesday the market opened about 10c higher than last week but most of the advance was afterwards lost. The top was $9.50 with trading largely scattered from $8.65@9.75.
