That Loving Cup
Well, a committee was appointed of the superintendent of the Nehawka schools and the two ministers, making three, a hard proposition to deadlock, for the warding of the loving cup for the best kept lawn and the cup was awarded to Joshua Sutphan who all say was an easy winner, the second prize going to Mr. Cliff Larshorn, with two prizes were also awarded for the best kept shrubbery and which was won by J. W. Magney first and Nick Klarens. This should be an incentive to make "Nehawka Beautiful" even more beautiful in years to come.

School Teachers Mow Weeds
By reason of the weeds growing along the walks, so profusely that one could not pass along without soiling their garments when it rained or there was dew, a number of the teachers, who saw that no one was going to cut the weeds, secured some scythes and went after the job themselves. The grass mowed along the walks look respectable. They also made Nehawka look more beautiful. Good for you girls. We are for you with that kind of a spirit.

GOES TO HOSPITAL
From Tuesday's Daily—
Yesterday John W. Crabill, the jeweler, departed for Omaha where he entered a hospital for treatment and an operation. Mr. Crabill has not been in the best of shape for some time and in order to give him any relief it was decided that the operation would be necessary and accordingly the patient will have to remain at Omaha for some time it is thought. The friends of Mr. Crabill are hopeful that the operation may give him permanent relief from his ailment.

DRAWS DOWN FINE
From Tuesday's Daily—
Last evening before Judge William Weber, S. W. Short was given a fine of $10 and costs which totaled $13.50 for having driven his automobile at a rate of speed greater than the law would permit on the streets of the city one night last week. Mr. Short was out of the city up to yesterday and on his return was given the summons to appear before the court. After hearing the facts in the case presented from the standpoint of the police and the defendant the court assessed the fine as stated above.

ANDY WINS ANOTHER
From Monday's Daily—
Andy Graves, well known baseball player of this portion of Nebraska and a relative of the Graves family of Cass county, is still one of the shining lights in the national pastime and this year has been able to add a number of victories to his credit. Andy, yesterday afternoon, was successful in trimming up the Paxton Billiards of Omaha on the Bellevue grounds to the score of 15 to 5. In this game, Andy was on the mound and Herb Klauschie of this city at the receiving end for Bellevue. Klauschie secured three two-baggers, a single and a walk in his innings to the plate in the game. Jimmy Moore, well known hurler of Omaha, was sent to the hill to relieve Miller for the Paxtons in the last game but was hit hard by the Bellevue team who scored at will.

The Paxtons were the winners in the opening game Zera hurling the Omaha team to victory and keeping the hard hitting Sarpy county boys from doing any serious damage to his slants. Clarks for Bellevue was hit hard and with a number of errors, gave Omaha the victory, 7 to 3.

M. R. Shellhorn, who works in the quarry at Louisville, with the family has moved to Manley and they are occupying the home of Grandma Shellhorn. This makes a good way for Mr. Shellhorn to go to his work, but as he could not get a house in Louisville, he was obliged to make the best of the situation.

Oswald Virgin, living just east of Manley, received the good news that his mother, who is staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Burr, near Murray, was much better than she has been as she had been confined to her bed on account of an attack of summer flu, but is now so she can get out again.

Edwin Pierson and wife, who have been visiting for the past summer in Colorado, where they have been recuperating and winning back the health of Mr. Pierson, which has been taxed pretty badly by close application to work, and who will now expect to engage in business in his line, that of hairdressing, somewhere in the near future.

The firm of Hodgen and Bouldin, of Fremont, monument men, has just erected two very imposing and beautiful monuments at the cemetery of St. Patrick's Catholic church for the late John C. Rauth and William Rauth. These monuments are very beautiful and erected in loving memory of the excellent wives of these gentlemen, who were but recently called from this world.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hughes, of Fremont, where he is engaged in business, are rejoicing over the arrival of a son at their home, and are no less pleased than are the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tighe. Both the son and his mother, who was formerly Miss Agnes Tighe, are doing nicely and the parents both are receiving many congratulations. The young man's name is Edgar Francis Hughes.

Manley Schools Open
The Manley schools opened last Monday with a good attendance and the teachers doing their best to arrange and get the scholars in best working order. The work for the past year is good and shows a very lively interest of both the scholars and teachers in the work in hand.

Looking for His Mother
Lawrence Widdifield and wife, of Salem, Iowa, were in Manley last Monday and also Wednesday evening seeking the whereabouts of the mother of Mr. Widdifield, who had been thought to have been dead for some twenty-four years, but whom Mr. Widdifield and his wife found in the hospital for the insane at Hastings. It seems she came to her present condition from a wound she received some years ago and which caused a pressure on the brain from which she never recovered, and has been in the hospital for the past 26 years. The mother, who is now 70 years of age is quite enfeebled and desired to remain there. The son had not seen the mother since he was eight years of age. Mrs. Widdifield was well known by a number of people residing in this neighborhood and was near neighbor in the years gone by to the Akesons and

Achievement Day at Eagle

Byron McMahon's Swine and Corn club held their achievement day last Friday, September 12th, with 100 men, women and children in attendance. Sixty-five pigs were shown. Albin Walberg, and John Snedden gave a demonstration on hog houses and equipment. This was very educational and instructive. Clifford Jacobsen and Francis Walberg demonstrated how to fit a pig for show. After they finished the pig it could go in a show ring any place. Walter Hardnock and Donald Piersol gave a judging demonstration telling and showing the five main points in judging pigs. The prizes and ribbons were furnished by the business men of Eagle. Sweep stakes went to Francis Walberg on a Duroc; sweep stakes on sow and litter to Clifford Jacobsen on Poland China. Ten exhibits of corn were shown and placed. Also the booth on which the Eagle Blue Ribbon corn club won first at the state fair. Mr. McMahon and his club members are to be congratulated on such an excellent Achievement day. Messrs. Gross and Hepler of the Extension service did the placing of the corn and pigs.
