Ost, Ray Frans and the Rev. W. A. Taylor who were all very close friends with this gentleman some 14 years ago, when he left Union. He has been mostly over the entire world since having left here.

Clyde Porter, who has been at the hospital at Omaha fore some time on account of an infection which he has had on his face is getting along nicely, and when the father was up last Sunday to see the son he found him showing much improvement. The mother has been staying with him since he has been at the hospital. On Tuesday Mr. Porter went to Omaha and returned with the son and mother, which made a happy family, when they were able to get home again. The many friends of the young man and his parents are rejoicing in the improvement of his condition.

Appreciate The Kindness.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lidgett, are every appreciative of the kindness which their many friends have shown them during the very serious illness of Mr. Lidgett, and desire to express their thanks to the many inquiring friends who called over the telephone, calls, in person, sent flowers and otherwise extended sympathy and help. Especially do they desire to mention the Epworth League and Royal Neighbors of America in the ministrations.

Very Appreciative Services.
At the Methodist church, last Sunday, the service consisted of a musical program, which was most highly appreciated by all who were privileged to be present. There were many instruments in use and about forty voices added to the delight of the people who were present.

Raised Some Potatoes
Bert B. Everett, who is a farmer when it comes to the practical as well as scientific side and on two acres of ground this season some four miles south of Union raised 700 bushels of excellent potatoes. He brought some of the finest to his friends Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor.

MARRIED IN KANSAS
A very simple home wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bailey of Scranton, Kans., at 12:00 Wednesday, September 23, 1924, when Miss Helen March and Mr. Tim H. Peters of Weeping Water, Neb., by Rev. E. K. Resler of Scranton.

Mrs. Peters is a graduate of the Lyndon high school and also attended Bethany College at Topeka.

The bride was attended by public schools at Weeping Water and the Lincoln business college, and is now a prosperous farmer near Weeping Water.

The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with pink roses, lilies and white asters.

The bride wore a gown of dark blue georgette and brocaded satin. The groom was attired in a dark serge suit.

Little Helen Louise Warner of carried the ring in a rose. She was the only attendant. The Lohengrin wedding march was rendered by the groom's sister during the entrance of the bride party.

A three course luncheon was served shortly after the ceremony. Later in the afternoon the happy couple left for a honeymoon in the west, after which they will be home on a farm near Weeping Water, Neb.

Guests from Nehawka in attendance at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Peters and daughters, Edith and Mathilde, Mrs. S. C. Bedwell of Burlington, and Mrs. Johnson, nee grandmother of the bride.—Weeping Water Republican.

AN UNCOMMON OCCURRENCE
Some little excitement prevailed last Friday afternoon about one o'clock when Charley Johnson, resident of Nehawka, and who is employed on the section here suffered a blood hemorrhage in his left leg below the knee.

Mr. Johnson received an injury to the member several years ago by an explosion of dynamite while working in the stone quarry here and the wound had never healed permanently. The cause of the hemorrhage Friday was due to the bursting of a large varicose vein and an artery and for some time it was difficult to stop the loss of blood. Several of his friends gave first aid until the arrival of Dr. Thomas, who soon dressed the wound and Mr. Johnson was taken to his home in East Nehawka, where a few days of rest will restore his strength from the profuse loss of blood.—Nehawka Enterprise.

HAS AN INTEREST IN ELECTION
Mrs. Murtey of Weeping Water is having a great deal of interest in the outcome of the primary election which is being held in the state of Washington this year. This interest is due to the fact that Ben S. Hill, mayor of Walla Walla, a brother of Mrs. Murtey, is one of the candidates for the democratic nomination for senator and she is naturally taking a keen interest in the outcome that may lead to her brother receiving the highest office in the gift of the people of the coast state.

NEBRASKA CITY KU KLUX KLAN ISSUES WARNING IN BILLS

Organization in Otoe County Town Distributes Handbills With a Warning to Evildoers.

Nebraska City Klan, No. 12, with the promise that "more will follow," became suddenly and vigorously active the past week-end when its members distributed in this community heavy cardboard handbills addressed to "lovers of law and order, peace, justice and morality."

In substance these bills said: "Crooks, bootleggers, law violators—this is where we begin and where you quit. The Ku Klux Klan stands for law enforcement by law enforcement officers only and we intend to see that they do their duty."

"Officers of the law—The Ku Klux Klan backs you to a man when you enforce the law. We and all good citizens stand with you when you don't. The 18th amendment is a part of the U. S. constitution."

"Churches, picture shows—We are absolutely back of the Protestant churches. We are opposed to Sunday picture shows."

"Putting parties—are a menace to national morality. Married men, do your joy riding with your own wives. We watch these parties and can and will furnish license numbers, time, place and names, if necessary."

"We believe in law and order. Think it over. More will follow. Nebraska City Klan No. 12." Friday evening the flaming cross of the Klan burned for more than an hour on a high hill on the Frank Kraft farm one mile northeast of Syracuse. White-robed klansmen guarded the cross and it is estimated that from thirty to forty took the vows and became Knights of the Invisible Empire. The road near the hill was choked with automobiles for several miles to witness the spectacle.—Nebraska City News.

MRS. BACH IMPROVING
The latest reports from the St. Catherine's hospital in Omaha state that Mrs. August G. Bach, who was operated on there a few days ago for gall stones and a case of chronic appendicitis, was still quite sick, but her condition was just as pleasing as could possibly be desired. This will be very interesting news to the host of friends of this estimable lady here and they are trusting that she may continue to improve until she is well on the highway to recovery.

P. E. Ruffner returned home last evening from Columbus, Nebraska, where he has been for the past few days, having accompanied his little granddaughter, Ella Ruffner, to that place where she will attend school this winter.

End Your Gate Troubles with "Can't-Sag" Gates
No more heavy, tumble-down, sagging wooden gates. No more bent and twisted gas-pipe gates. Put up "Can't-Sags"—made of an ideal combination of iron and steel bolted securely together—no screws or nails to pull out. When closed and latched, the "Can't Sag" gate is securely locked at both ends—stock can't break through to destroy growing crops.
Can't-Sag a Fraction of an Inch
In order to sag even a quarter of an inch, 45 bolts and 8 pieces of angle steel would have to bend. You know that is impossible. Yet, this ideal gate costs less than the old-fashioned kind. Thousands are in use on large and small farms everywhere. Drop in and see these gates when you are in town.
